Annual Dog Show At Amphitheatre March 28-29

Whippet racing is one of the unusual entertainment features planned for the annual all-breed Spring Dog Show that will be held in Chicago next Saturday and Sunday, March 28 and 29, in the International Amphitheatre.

According to officials of the International Kennel Club of Chicago, sponsors of the event, Whippet races have been scheduled both days of the show. Each race will consist of a minimum of four heats, and the semi-finals and finals will take place Sunday afternoon.

Famous Dog to Run
These fleetest-footed of all dogs will race over 100 yard courses. A field of 20 dogs will compete, it is announced. Among them is "Ladysman of Ben Dor" one of the most famous racing dogs in America, winner of 95 out of the 106 races he has run.

Approximately 100 dogs are expected to take part in the Field Trial Exhibition which will include six stake events, three each for all breeds of Retrievers and Spaniels. The dogs will work in both water and land retrieving through an improvised cover that will extend over 50,000 square feet surrounded by bleacher seats for spectators.

Another unique feature of the Chicago Dog Show will be a dog judging contest for amateur participants between 14 and 21 years old. Cash prizes of $105.00 will be awarded to the six highest scoring boys and girls in judging four classes of dogs, each class consisting of a different breed.

The scores will be determined on the closeness of a competitor's placing of the classes with those of the official judges. The breeds that will be judged are English Springer Spaniels, Beagles, Pomeranians and Chows.

Feature 109 Breeds

Based on an unusually large early entry, the management predicts an exhibit that will exceed 1500 purebred dogs this year. Classes will feature 109 different breeds.

Judging will begin at 10 a. m., on Saturday morning and will continue until 10 p. m. as the contestants, representing scores of rare and well known breeds, are paraded before the 20 judging experts who will make the awards.

The two-day judging program will be climaxed Sunday evening, March 29, with the naming of the best dog in the show by Mrs. Geraldine Rockefeller Dodge, of Madison, New Jersey, one of the country's leading dog judges and an internationally known fancier.

Community Center Square Dance Club Meets April 1

The fifth meeting of the Highland Park Square Dance club will be Wednesday evening, April 1, at 8 p. m. at the Community Center.

In addition to the regular dancing, two new forms of Early American dancing will be taught. One of these, called the "Running Set," is now danced mostly in the Appalachian mountains. It is an Early English form from which most of today's square dances have developed.

The second variation will consist of the old-fashioned party games to music, such as "Milly Boy," "Skip to My Love," and "John Brown."

Veterans Scarce In N. U. Lineup This Season

When Coach Lynn Waldorf of Northwestern checked over backfield candidates at the opening of spring football practice he found few familiar faces among those present. Out of 12 backfield lettermen on last year's squad, eight were seniors and the remaining four are competing on the track and baseball teams.

Bill deCorveant, Tuffy Chambers, Ike Kepford, Don Clawson, George Benson, Don Kruger, Dick Erdlitz and Sonny Skor have completed their competition. These eight players held key positions in the Wildcat backfield for the past three years.

The returning backfield lettermen, Otto Graham, whose running and passing was a highlight of last season; Ed Hirsch, fullback, and Don Buffmire and Dud Kean, halfbacks, are out for other sports. Graham and Hirsch are candidates for the baseball team, and Buffmire and Kean are on the track team. All were sophomores last fall.

With such a scarcity of veterans, Coach Waldorf will concentrate on freshman backs this spring. Joe Scriba, a small but shifty runner from Owosso, Mich., is being tried out at left half. Other halfback prospects are Harry Franck of Davenport, a brother of George Winter of Evanston, and Laurie Adelman of Milwaukee. Nick Vodick, hard hitting fullback from South Bend, and Ernie Beck, quarterback from Hammond, are other freshman candidates.

Fray-Braggiotte Piano Recital April Twelfth

Bertha Ott Concert Management is presenting the world-known duo-pianists Fray and Braggiotti in a two piano recital at the Eighth Street Theatre, 741 South Wabash Avenue on Sunday afternoon April 12th at 3:30. Fray and Braggiotti are uniquely known for their pioneer work against the uniform and monotonous two piano music treatment, developing a blending of their own without the sacrifice of their respective talents for music. They are the first to present a full evening's program of original transcriptions, with a repertoire greatly varied and even quite advanced.

In addition they have contributed their influence in America's growing taste for the finer music. Both were classically trained, but also assumed the theory that the great works are popularized in order that the layman too may become acquainted with it thus stimulating an interest for its original source. They point out that inasmuch as gigs and waltzes were made immortal by Bach and Chopin, the popular music of today stands an equal chance of underlying the symphonies of the future. Fray and Braggiotti believe that humor has its place in music, and in 1931 they performed Braggiotti's caricatures on the styles of famous composers. Their best known serious works are Debussy's and have built up a large library of original transcriptions. This achievement is known widely throughout the music world.

Friday afternoon, 9:15 to 10:10, a Good Friday service will be held in Torrey-Gray Auditorium, on Moody Institute's campus, at which the Rev. Waldon Wilson, D. D., pastor of North Shore Baptist Church, will speak. Special music will be given by the Galilean Male Quartet and Dr. Homer Hammontree. This meeting will also be broadcast.

Friday afternoon at 3:30 Stainer's "Crucifixion" will be presented to the radio audience only. This is sung by Trinity Choir, with Richard Crooks, tenor; Lawrence Tibbett, baritone, and Mark Andrews, organist.

All broadcasts on the following Sunday will feature Easter music and messages.

Soldiers Families To Benefit from Golf Tournament

Families of soldiers killed in action while serving with General Douglas MacArthur's Army of the Philippines will benefit from the net proceeds of the $15,000 Tam O'Shanter Open and All-American Amateur golf tournaments to be held here at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club from July 20 to 26, inclusive.

This announcement was made by George S. May, president of Tam O'Shanter, who said that the offer was accepted in a letter received yesterday from Henry L. Stimson, Secretary of War. The fund will be administered by a recently organized agency known as the Army Emergency Fund which has been formed for the specific purpose of handling the human problems that arise in the families of soldiers though launched with the cooperation of the war department, it is a civilian organization manned by volunteers and has been dubbed the new civilian A. E. F. Robert B. Patterson, Under Secretary of War, is serving as its president and General John J. Pershing has accepted the post of honorary president. In accepting Tam O'Shanter's tournament receipts as one of the first major contributions to the new organization, Secretary Stimson said:

"The Army Emergency Fund is just such an agency as could receive donated funds with the assurance that the families left by casualties of the Philippines will be furnished financial assistance."

In announcing acceptance of the fund, President May predicted that the two Tam O'Shanter tournaments, which are to be held concurrently, would break all previous attendance records for golf events in America and that the net proceeds would range between $10,000 and $25,000.

Mrs. D. Hermann, who spent the winter in Florida, and with her daughter, Mrs. W. Webster, Sheridan avenue, has returned to her home in Winnetka.

Star Dust

STAGE SCREEN RADIO
By VIRGINIA VALE
(Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

ONE of the most important films ever made in this country will be released shortly to motion picture houses throughout the nation. It is "Hidden Hunger," starring Walter Brennan, presented by the Federal Security Agency as part of the National Nutrition Program. A simple story of better eating for sound health, it's not just a picture with a message; it has a lively and amusing plot, it's highly entertaining, an excellent, two-reel production made by experienced producers, directors and actors.

Jean Bennett has revived the old-fashioned "quilling bee" on the set of her current Columbia film, "Highly Irregular"; she's organized 65 elderly ladies into a group to knit and sew for men in the service. The gossip's modern, Hollywood variety!

William Lundigan thinks his lucky breaks began when he left Syracuse university in his second year there to take a job in a radio station. An RKO executive whom he interviewed on the air told him he ought to be in pictures; when a New

WILLIAM LUNDIGAN

York friend fixed up a test for Universal, he just had to stand and talk as he did for radio. He made pictures for Universal and Warner Bros., then was signed by Metro—and had the luck to land in the starring-making "Andy Hardy" series, as the new boy friend of Andy's sister in "The Courtship of Andy Hardy."

Jean Arthur was in a scene with Ronald Colman and Cary Grant for "Three's a Crowd"; three soldiers who'd been watching rehearsals had just left. Suddenly an overhead "spider"—a multiple electric switch box—blew out, showering them with sparks. "Where you going?" shouted Director George Stevens. "After those soldiers," she replied, "to put out the bomb!"

Lucille Norman, blonde and 19, went east to go west. She left Steele City, Neb., to win a place as radio singer over a Cincinnati station; while trying out there for the Metropolitan Opera auditions she was spotted by a movie talent scout, and now she's in Hollywood.

Johnny Johnston, young singing guitarist of radio fame, was picked by Paramount for a co-starring role with Ellen Drew in "Priorities of 1942"; it's a musical film with the activities of aircraft plant workers for its story background.

Recently before "Henry Aldrich" went on the air a petition was circulated asking the right to smoke backstage. Just before the broadcast it was slipped into "Mr. Aldrich's" script for safekeeping, and he very nearly read it over the mike.

Note for baseball fans: The Brooklyn Dodgers didn't want that picture about them to be called "Them Lovely Bums," so remember that it will be offered to the public as "It Happened in Flatbush" unless somebody thinks up a better title.

Just before the war department forbade the use of rubber latex Paramount got under the wire, so you'll see a three-foot latex balloon as a prop for Martha O'Driscoll's bubble dancer scene in "My Heart Belongs to Daddy."

Al Pearce of the air waves is interested in adding Marie Blake to his radio gang. She's Jeanette MacDonald's sister, and you probably saw her somewhere in the "Dr. Kildare" series of pictures—she played the telephone operator.

ODDS AND ENDS—Bill Stern, radio sports announcer, will be seen in the Lou Gehrig film, "The Pride of the Yankees" . . . A fruit dealer who knows and admires Edward G. Robinson spells the "Big Town" star's name out in fruit on his stand . . . A Royal Air Force officer lent Franchot Tone the uniform Tone wears in Columbia's "Highly Irregular" . . . Rosalind Russell, who'll star in "My Sister Eileen," is singing for the boys on her tour of army camps in the Southwest, and they love it . . . Jack Benny has signed a new two-year contract, which will carry him into his tenth year with the same sponsor.
