David Cummings Is Stationed At Great Lakes

The name of David John Cummings, 27, son of Mr. Tom J. Cummings, 125 N. Green Bay Road, Highland Park, Illinois, was added to the large roster of men who have enlisted in the U. S. Navy and who are now undergoing recruit training at Great Lakes.

Big Demand for Suburban Residences

With the lessening of civilian building, there has developed an unusually large demand for new homes in the suburbs. "Not for the past 12 years," said Maurice A. Pollak, vice-president and secretary of Draper and Kramer, Inc., "has there been such a widespread demand for the purchase of residential property within the radius of forty miles from the loop. We not only get this information from local real estate brokers who are closing most of the deals, but our own financing operation on homes are very active in spite of the lack of new construction."

LEGION AUXILIARY

The women's auxiliary of the Stuyvesant Smith unit of the American Legion, Highland Park, will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Highland city hall. Plans for a bingo party to be held April 10 in the Labor temple will be made.

Sunday Evening Club To Hear Two Famous Speakers

Dr. Douglas Steere, young Quaker philosopher from Haverford College, Pennsylvania and Dr. Arthur Compton, world-honored physicist of the University of Chicago, will take part in the Palm Sunday meeting of the Sunday Evening Club in Orchestra Hall next Sunday.

The Coe College Band, official State band of Iowa at the past four presidential inaugurations, will open the meeting at seven o'clock, with a concert of sacred and martial music. Under the direction of Captain Stanley Vesely, this group which is recognized as the foremost cadet band in the country, with this performance will finish a successful tour of the middle west.

At eight, Dr. Arthur Compton will present Dr. Steere, who will give the Palm Sunday message, "Death's Illumination of Life." Preceding his talk the Club's choir with soloists Mark Love and Charles Sears, will sing a group of seasonal selections including "Lift Up Your Heads" from the Messiah, Tchaikovsky's "Legend," Scott's "Ride on in Majesty" and "So Thou Lifest Thy Divine Petition" by Stainer.

Highland Park USO 321 N. Green Bay Road

A complete reorganization of the Girls Service Organization has been made by the girls. The executive officers are as follows: Janet Lewis, President; Pat Flynn, acting President; Nancy Santi, Secretary; Betty Farmer, Recording Secretary; Mary Hart, Captain; Clara Melchiorre, Captain; Jeanne Jenkins, Captain; Lila Letson, Captain; Ethel Swanson, Captain; Mary Desmond, Captain.

The girls have organized so that a minimum of 20 girls will act as Junior Hostesses at the club each evening and will step-up the attendance on regular dance nights which are Wednesday, Friday and Sunday evenings.

The Highland Park unit will also co-operate with other North Shore towns in which there are Girl Service Organizations. They are Glencoe, Kenilworth, Winnetka, Wilmette and Evanston.

The girls units are planning special programs which are designed to fit the interests and desires of the soldiers and sailors. At times joint planning by soldiers, sailors and girls is accomplished. A wide variety of activities such as taffy pulls, box socials, picnics, beach parties, dancing, billiard tournaments, and other forms of wholesome and social recreation will be held.

An outstanding evening of events will be a Sports Show to be held Saturday evening, March 28. Wrestlers from Lincoln Belmont, Austin, Oak Park and Evanston Y.M.C.A. will put on a show. One hundred members of the Girls Service Organization will also be shown. Lieutenant G. L. Ford of Fort Sheridan says there is a great deal of interest among his men and a minimum of 100 will attend from his battalion. Many sailors from Great Lakes are also invited.

A schedule of the calendar of events for the coming week is as follows: Friday, March 27, "DAISY MAY" dance; Saturday, March 28, SPORTS NIGHT; Sunday, March 29, MOVIES, VESPERS, DANCING & "CHOW"—The features will be Ardith Reiss and the singing co-eds from Lake Forest college; Monday, March 30, CRAFT SHOP NIGHT; Tuesday, March 31, DEDICATION OF THE NEW PHOTOGRAPHIC DARK ROOM; Wednesday, April 1, APRIL FOOLS DAY DANCE; Thursday, April 2, GAMES MIXER NIGHT; Friday, April 3, APRIL PAY DAY DANCE—Kenilworth girls; Saturday, April 3, BOX SOCIAL Two-bit limit. HIGHWOOD U.S.O. CLUB

The North Shore Catholic Women's league will sponsor a Sunday night supper at the Highwood U.S.O. club, 428 Railway ave., during the latter part of April, Roy P. Bedore, director, announces. A barn dance is also being planned for that month.

For the first time, the Glencoe G.S.O., under the direction of Mrs. Roger A. Baird, entertained as hostesses for the service men at the semi-weekly dance on Wednesday. Pie was the menu of the evening. Fifty of the Glencoe G.S.O. joined with the Victory Belles in the event.

The Winnetka Woman's club donated cookies on Tuesday of last week and will continue to do so for the duration. Other donors were Mrs. Theo Minorini, Zion bakeries, Omar bakeries, Mrs. Ed Shapiro and Mrs. Jennie Peterson. George J. Alles of Wilmette donated cigarettes last week. Over the fireplace of the club now hangs a horn brought back from the Philippines by "Top Sarge" John Meyers, official greeter of service men in Highwood, during the Spanish-American war. It is used to call the caribou, or water buffalo in the islands.

Ambrose Cantagallo, part-time house man at the club, has joined the navy, having left Thursday of this week for service.

"Letter of Introduction" plus "The Singing Bandit" was shown at the regular Tuesday evening movie program.
