Seventh Ravinia Festival To Open On June Thirtieth

Rowena Bennet Writes Poem for Service Men

With Mrs. Bennet's consent, a portion of this poem has been appropriated as a greeting to appear on birthday cards sent out to local boys in Service by the Service Men's Mothers' Club.

OUR HOME-TOWN BOYS
Of all the boys in uniform
That we go out to cheer,
Our own boys, our town boys,
It's you we hold most dear.
Though you may trek across this land
Or tramp on foreign ground,
Our thoughts shall travel after you
And wing the world around . . .
And wing the world around, boys,
For it is time you knew
Your own folks, your home folks
Are thinking well of you.
We watched you walk to school and church
When you were not full grown,
We watched you walk away to war
To battle for your own . . .
To battle for your own, boys,
For you can feel the danger
To this our town, and this your home,
More keenly than a stranger . . .
So here's a wish, and here's a prayer,
For, oh, it's time you knew
Your own folks, your home folks
Are thinking well of you!

There will be no summer letdown on Chicago's "morale through music" front, it became certain today with the first announcement of the seventh Ravinia Festival at the celebrated north shore park from the Ravinia Committee.

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra under noted guest conductors will open a six-week season on Tuesday evening, June 30 with concerts each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evening and Sunday afternoon through August 9; followed by a four-concert week of chamber music by the Budapest String Quartet, opening Tuesday, Aug. 11. This follows the pattern of last season.

The conductors for the first and last weeks of the symphony concerts have been engaged. Dimitri Mitropoulos, distinguished conductor of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra will make his Ravinia debut during the initial week. The closing week will bring back to Ravinia's podium Pierre Monteux, conductor of the San Francisco Symphony, who closed last year's Ravinia season so successfully.

At Charleston are three magnificent gardens to which lovers of beauty come from all over the world. "I specialize in gardens" wrote the late John Galsworthy, noted English novelist, and I assert that nowhere in the world is any garden so beautiful as Magnolia-on-Ashley, twelve miles from Charleston.

These pictures are accompanied by music which is contemporary to that period when the city was at the height of its beauty and culture.
