MOVIES AND AMUSEMENTS

MacArthur To Be Honored Sunday

An outdoor celebration, which will blend music, song, dancing, marching, oratory, drama and prayer into the greatest symphony of patriotism that has ever been seen in this country, is the object of the special combined Flag Day, United Nations' Day and General MacArthur celebration that is to be held at Soldier Field on Sunday, June 14th, beginning promptly at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

This great free spectacle and entertainment will draw not only famous speakers from Washington and the Middle West, but also a number of the outstanding stars of radio, screen and stage. The celebration is being sponsored by the Chicago Herald-American in cooperation with the United States War Savings Staff.

One of the awe-inspiring features will be the unfurling of the world's largest American Flag. Speeding across the huge Soldier Field arena Parachute troopers will unfurl from the whole arena.

chief of the War Production Board, who is flying here from Washington for this special occasion, and he is expected to bring a message of unusual interest to all Americans. Mr. Nel- $1,300 War Bond son will be introduced by Merrill C. Meigs, WPB Aircraft Division Chief. Prizes to Be Given program will be Bob Hope, popular president, George S. May. screen and radio comedian, who will Under the original plan, individual merdam. serve as master of ceremonies.

Other honored guests and famous at Tam O'Shanter speakers will be John L. Sullivan, assistant secretary of the Treasury; Dr. and Mayor Edward J. Kelly.

gram of entertainment are Marlene available only to the winner, the run-Dietrich; Eddie Duchin and his band; ner-up and semi-finalists in match Northwestern university. Harry Richman, veteran singer of play and the low scorers in the qualitop-flight songs; Shirley Ross, Mary fying rounds. Under the new plan, Howard and Arleen Whalen,

Soldier Field, a parade will be held on and the highest individual award will 73/4 inches, which has been accepted Michigan Avenue by the Office of be a $100 United States War Savings Civilian Defense beginning at 10 Bond. o'clock in the morning. The line of | The change in the method of dismarch will be from Chicago Avenue tribution, Mr. May said, was made in to Roosevelt Road, where special response to numerous requests from street car service will be available leading amateur golfers who felt that to Soldier Field.

of any kind for this brilliant enter- prizes even though such prizes were tainment and celebration. All seats in the form of War Bonds. will be absolutely free., first come ...first served. The gates open at noon on June 14th, and the program starts promptly at 2 o'clook.

All I have seen teaches me to trust the Creator for all I have not seen.

ST. NORBERT'S CHURCH FESTIVA

Techny

CHICKEN DINNER-SAT.

June 20-21

5 to 8 p. m.

Hot Lunches Both Days

Free Dancing Sat.

Many Prizes Given Away

GLENCOE

830 Vernon Ave.

June 11-12-13 Thurs., Fri., Sat. Clark Gable, Hedy Lamarr "COMRADE X"

Judy Garland, George Murphy "LITTLE NELLIE KELLY"

March of Time

"America's New Army"

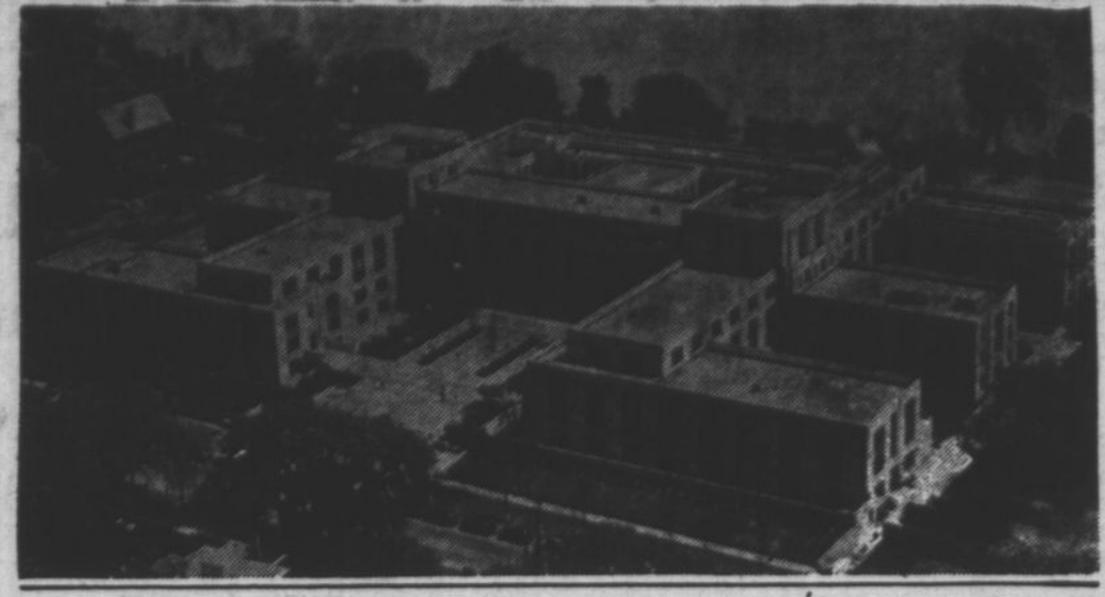

Sun., Mon., Tues., Wed. June 14-17 The Academy Award Winner

"HOW GREEN WAS

MY VALLEY" Walter Pidgeon, Maureen O'Hara Roddy McDowall

'APPOINTMENT FOR LOVE' Charles Boyer, Margaret Sullavan

N. U. Technological Institute

A new outpost on America's important battle front of science will be dedicated here next Monday and Tuesday (June 15 and 16) at the formal opening of the $5,000,000 building of Northwestern University's Technolog-

The dedicatory ceremonies will be highlighted by a series of industrial and educational conferences, attended on motor-cycles, twenty-six Marine by more than 1,000 representatives of industrial firms, scientific groups, and Educational institutions of the nation. despite the fact that both are newly-Speakers will include Donald M. Nelson, chairman of the War Production Board; Charles F. Kettering, president arrived. Miss O'Hara won wide actheir sacks a giant flag that will cover dent of the General Motors Research Corporation; Lt. Gen. William S. Knudsen of the War Production Board; claim in her first Hollywood role as and Jesse H. Jones, U. S. Secretary of Commerce.

The principal address of the day will Franklyn B. Snyder, president of Northwestern university, will welcome the delegates at the Monday morn- sion of "Hunchback of Notre Dame." be delivered by Donald M. Nelson, ing conference. Other speakers will be Walter J. Cummings, chairman of the committee on dedication; Gov. Anna Lee played opposite Ronald Dwight H. Green of Illinois; Alfred H. White, president of the Society for the Promotion of Engineering Education, chairman of the Department of Chemistry, University of Illinois; and Raymond Walters, president of the University of Wisconsin.

awards going as high as $500 were Assisting him on a sparkling pro- contemplated and prizes were to be the money will be divided among a Coincident with the ceremony in considerably larger number of players their amateur status might be affected Remember there will be no charge through acceptance of large individual

The new set-up calls for prize awards of $25 each to the sixteen winners in the second round of match of the winners in each succeeding round of match play up to and including the semi-finals. Thus, a player who wins his match in the third round of match play, will receive a total of $50 in War Bond prizes. If he goes on to win in the fourth round, he will receive a total of $75 and if he wins in the semi-finals, he will receive a total of $100 in War Bond prizes. In addition, the victor in the final round will receive an engraved trophy emblematic of his All-American Amateur championship,

In addition to these prizes, totaling $750, Mr. May said that War Bond prizes would be awarded to the five low scorers in the two eighteen-hole qualifying rounds in the tournament with $100 going to the first place winner, $75 for second, $50 for third and $25 each for fourth and fifth, but that no single player would be permitted to accept more than a total of pole vault mark of 14 feet 6 inches.

Ranking as the only nation-wide amateur contest in the country this year, the All-American Amateur tournament will be held in conjunction with the four-day $15,000 Tam O'Shanter National Open, which will be played over the same course from July 23 to 26. Amateurs competing in both tournaments will be permitted to accept additional War Bond prizes up to a limit of $100 in the Open event, Mr. May said. There will be a total of $1,000 in War Bond prizes for amateurs in the Open, bringing the grand total of awards for amateurs in both tournaments to $2,300.

Same ideal meat base ... added nutriments and vitamins

Big Ten Track Meet June 16 At Northwestern

A redistribution of the $1,300 in To the usually brilliant field which Alexander Loudon, Netherlands min- War Bond prizes to be awarded to makes it the number one dual track laugh show which enjoyed a run of radio; and blonde Anna Lee made ister to Washington; the Hon. Lewis winners in the All-American Amateur event of the eight months at tho Harris Theatre, her first public appearance in village Bernays, British Consular General for golf tournament to be played here at nation's outstanding track and field Chicago, recently, has returned here theatricals. Chicago; Governor Dwight H. Green the Tam O'Shanter Country Club spectacles, the sixth annual Big Ten- for a bargain entertainment and confrom July 20 to 25 was announced Pacific Coast dual track meet has tinues to "pack them in. The same Headlining a popular entertainment today (Monday) by Tam O'Shanter's added an exhibition by the world's cast and product of the far-famed Abbey The-

> The dual meet, between top ranking stars from the two Conferences, will be held as a twilight event June 16 at > Warmerdam, the only vaulter in history to clear 15 feet, a feat he has performed on 24 competitive occasions, recently set a mark of 15 feet for world's recognition. His ultimate goal is a height of 16 feet.

Entries in the dual meet competition among them hold seven of the year's outstanding performances by American athletes in the 13 individual events which are carded on the program beside the quarter-mile and mile relays. Five of those seven top performances have been turned in by Pacific Coast representatives, but the Big Ten delegation is optimistic over prospects for its best showing in the meet's history. play and an additional $25 to each Coast teams have won five times in the past, by margins ranging from 101 to 35 in 1938 to 80-56 last year.

Typical of the field's usual caliber was that of 1941 when ten of 16 first places on the All-American College Track and Field Team were picked from among the Pacific Coast and Big Ten stars. Heading the list of outis Harold Davis, brilliant sprinting star from the University of Califoria, whose recent time of :09.4 for the 100yard dash has been accepted for recognition as tieing the world's record.

Other outstanding individuals in the field, all from Southern California, intime of :46.9 this year tied the Los Angeles Coliseum record, Le Roy Weed with a two-mile time of 9:04.2. Gill Greene with a high jump of 6 feet 8 inches, and Bill Schaeffer with a

The Big Ten has the year's outstanding performances in two events, by Bob Fitch of Minnesota with a mile time of 1:53.8. Matthews, how- p. m. at the Community Center. championships behind Campbell Kane lan Defense report and an election of Indiana, who ranked at the top of officers. among college half-milers last year The Big Ten also has Bob Wright of Ohio State, peer of all college high of seven to five, with one event a tie.

INO MORE RUBBER

100 FAT LADIES LOSE 20 LBS. EACH

thirty days between January 2nd and February 2nd, 1942. One registered Nurse lost 29 pounds, and a Dietitian 80 pounds in

'Eileen' Still

Playing To

Packed House

"My Sister Eileen," the smash hit stead of the former price of $2.20.

writer. They pay a month's rent-in Parliament some centures ago. advance-to Mr. Appopolous, a Greek | For both these girls there is prelandlord, on a basement studio in his dicted a long and successful career house in Greenwich Villiage, the Bo on the screen. Maureen has had more hemian section of New York.

Eileen are soon beset by a series of is "To the Shores of Tripoli." would-be admirers, ranging from a professional football star to six romantic cadets of the Brazilian navy. John Loder, Sara Allgood, Barry Their lone window fronts on the Fitzgerald, Patric Knowles. pavement level of a typical Greenwich Village. Through it, the audience can see the parade of unique charac- than faith—the one great moving force ters going by.

Under the clever direction of Broadway's master of comedy, George S. Kaufman, it adds up to a great evening of hilarity. In the original ST. Norbert's cast of thirty, are beautiful Marcy Festival On standing individuals in the 1942 meet Wescott, playing Eileen, clever Wisecracking Effie Afton as Ruth, Guy June 20-21 Robertson, pleasantly remembered as the leading tenor in "The Great St. Norbert's Annual Church Fes-Loeb, who starred on Broadway in this year on Saturday and Sunday, "Room Service."

enormously funny."

Coordinating Council Will Meet June 15

The regular annual meeting of the discus throw of 166 feet 25% inches Highland Park Coordinating Council and by Dave Matthews with a half- will be held Monday, June 15, at 8 it's 25th Jubilee this year, and invites ever, placed only third in the Big Ten | There will be a discussion of Civi-and low hurdles last year and un- But with the javelin not in competidefeated in 1942 outdoor competition tion and a probable Big Ten slam after failing to finish in his first start. in the discus to offset the Coast's cer-Comparisons of championship per- tain strength in the high jump, the formances in he two Conference meets Western Conference is optimistically group selling Ravinia Festival Cougives the Pacific Coast team an edge viewing its chances. The Coast team pon books, at tea at her home last sprint.

'How Green Was My Valley' at Glencoe Starting Sunday

The finest examples of imported double-take in glamour from the British Isles since Madeleine Carroll and Vivien Leigh are featured jointly in the Darryl F. Zanuck production of "How Green Was My Valley," the screen version of the Richard Llewellyn best-seller, which is coming Sunday to the Glencoe Theatre. The two beautiful English girls are Maureen O'Hara, formerly of Dublin's Abbey Theatre and the London stage, and Anna Lee, English film star.

Both are obviously slated for top stardom and their sharing of the feminine leads in the film is another example of Hollywood's new lavishness with talent in its productions. Maureen O'Hara as Angharad and Anna Lee as Bronwen appear with Walter Pidgeon, Donald Crisp, Roddy Mc-Dowall and other well-known character actors who were carefully recruited for their exacting roles.

Neither of the lovely actresses is unknown to American film audiences, the fiminine lead in the recent ver-Colman in "My Life With Caroline." She is the wife of the British director, Robert Stevenson.

Both are surprisingly young, in view of their considerable theatrical and motion picture experience. The secert is that both started their theatrical careers at the respective ages of five and seven. Titian-haired Maureen was a child star on the Dublin There the resemblence between ends. Maureen O'Hara is pure Irish, a greatest pole vaulter, Cornelius War- a $2.75 top is now available to the atre. She is relatively tall, standing tolks who like to sit "downstairs" at five feet, seven and a half inches. only $1.65 top. Matinees are priced Her hair is dark auburn, her eyes a at only $1.10 for the orchestra, in- true hazel. Anna Lee is five feet tall, weighs 112 pounds, and is the purest "My Sister Eileen" is the madly sort of blonde. Her family, on her funny adventures of two sisters, Ruth father's side, goes back to early Saxand Eileen Sherwood, who come to on history, stemming from King New York from their home in Colum- Ethelbert of Kent. On her mother's bus, Ohio, in search of careers. Ei- side she is descended from Rob Roy, leen, the beautiful wants to be a great | the Scottish outlaw immortalized by stage actress, while Ruth, who is plain | Sir Walter Scott, and from the Digby but witty, seeks, to be a successful who tried to blow up the House of > roles to date, but Anna has had her The former occupant of the apart- share. Maureen is under contract to ment is a fancy woman and Ruth and 20th Century-Fox and her next film

Completing the featured cast of "How Green Was My Valley" are Nothing in life is more wonderful which we can neither weigh in the balance nor test in the crucible.

-Harvey Cushing

Waltz" and "Rose Marie," and Philip tival on Wankegan Road, will be held June 20 and 21st. It will open with In his review of "My Sister Eileen," a home style chicken dinner to be clude Cliff Bourland, whose 440-yard Ashton Stevens, critic for the Chica- served at 5 to 8 p. m. on Saturday. go Herald-American, wrote: "It is At the same time a bake sale will be held on the top floor with pastry of all sorts and also on Sunday morning. There will be many prizes given during the two day festivities. A committee of one hundred men and women are working on arrangements. Hot lunches on both days and free dancing on Sunday night,

> St. Norbert's Church is celebrating all friends of the parish to come and celebrate this event with the parish-

Mrs. Howard Detmer Has Tea For Ravinia Workers

Mrs. Howard Detmer, Bob o'Link road, entertained the members of her will be favored in the mile relay, in Wednesday afternoon. Her guests which California set a world's record were Mrs. Jesse Halsted, Miss at the 1941 meet, and the Big Ten Grace Gregori, Miss Thoretta Grewill be conceded an edge to repeat its gori, Mrs. Otto Greessens, Mrs. G. W. Ross and Mrs. Burton Smaley.

SPECIAL FEES Week days, after 3 p. m. 75c After 4 p. m. .. 50c

BRIERGATE

(Formerly a private club-now daily fee) CHAMPIONSHIP GOLF AT ITS BEST Available for week day tournaments

Saturdays and Sundays-1 p.m. to 4 p.m., $1.50; 4 p.m. to 5 p.m., $1.00 Ladies' Days-Monday and Friday
On Deerfield Road between Skokie Road and Waukegan Road DEERFIELD, ILLINOIS

Chicago Phone: Whitehall 6530 or Deerfield 505

By VIRGINIA VALE Released by Western Newspaper Union.

THE nation's largest radio I stock company is behind the weekly production of the WPB's new program, "Three Thirds of a Nation," heard Wednesday evenings on the Blue network. Produced in cooperation with the Hollywood Victory committee, clearing house for war-time appearances of the Associated Actors and Artists of America, the program has at its disposal the resident membership of all Southern California. Castings weekly draw from a reservoir of more than 10,000 screen, stage and radio actors, all volunteers.

The Tone family, Franchot and Jean, will soon be working at the same studio. Franchot has signed a term agreement with Paramount; it calls for four pictures during the next two years. Jean Wallace Tone, a "Louisiana Purchase" beauty, is already there.

Ann Harding is returning to the screen in Metro's "Odor of Violets," a mystery drama soon to go into production. Edward Arnold has the principal male role. Donna Reed, one of Metro's abundant crop of starlets, is also in the cast.

ANN HARDING

You may not recognize Chester Conklin at once in "I Married a Witch"; playing a bartender at a country club who's in much of the opening action, he appears without that famous walrus mustache.

An evening gown that Priscilla Lane wears in "Silver Queen" is going to be melted down and given to the Ambulance corps when she's through with it. It's a 17pound silver dress, and will eventually become wiring and dental plates for soldiers.

The diamonds that Marlene Dietrich wore in "The Lady Is Willing" are facing the camera again, this time in "Ellery Queen Across the Atlantic." The picture teams. Margaret Lindsay and William Gargan. The story requires a collection of jewels, that are stolen, so James Hogan, the director, got busy and rented them. Miss Dietrich got a break-she just borrowed the gems.

Those children's giggles you will hear in Walt Disney's "Bambi" are the sounds of youngsters, filled up with ice cream, enjoying some old Mickey Mouse shorts. Disney wanted spontaneous laughter, and that's how he got it.

In all the movie studies Adolphe Menjou is known as the script girl's pet He keeps track for himself of all the tricky little details which the girls have to watch. For example, in RKO's "Syncopation" Menjou and George Bancroft de a let of smoking, which means that lengths of cigars and ash must be matched in scenes which may be filmed weeks apart. Menjou carries a pocket rule, measures cigar and ash at the beginning of each scene, and calls his results to the script girl.

Claudette Colbert has signed a three-year contract calling for one picture a year with RKO. Her first assignment will be the leading role in the screen version of Pearl Buck's "China Sky"-she'll play an American doctor.

Stepping into the title role of the "Bulldog Drummond" series, back on the air after an absence of several months, Santos Ortega follows in illustrious footsteps. George Coulouris, the last incumbent, is on tour with that very successful play, "Watch on the Rhine," E. E. Mathews was the first actor to assume the role, and John Barrymore, Ronald Colman and John Howard did it on the screen.

ODDS AND ENDS-Robert Prestor