

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON

NEW YORK.—A few years ago, Thomas Alva Edison offered Dr. George Washington Carver, the Negro scientist, $100,000 a year to join his laboratory and carry through Mr. Edison's research in the making of synthetic rubber. Dr. Carver refused. He said he had too much to do on his peanut research, and wrote: "God didn't charge for his work in making peanuts grow, so I won't charge for mine."

Dr. Carver, at 78, now joins the experimental laboratories of the Ford Motor company at Detroit. It was in 1938 that Henry Ford visited Dr. Carver at Tuskegee institute, and they since have become warm personal friends. Both Mr. Ford and Mr. Edison were deeply interested in synthetic rubber. It is not unlikely that rubber was discussed on that 1938 visit and it is a wide open guess that Henry Ford has taken an even more timely interest in rubber and has enlisted the services of one of the greatest living authorities and skilled miracle-workers in plastics and synthetics—the aged Dr. Carver.

Dr. Carver never has patented any of his innumerable processes, or gained a cent from them. They include making peanuts a $61,000,000 crop and developing from them more than 300 saleable products, including not only foods, but paints, stains and linoleum. Dr. Carver was born in slavery, near Diamond Grove, Mo. He was traded for a horse, found his way into freedom, added scores of millions to the annual crop output of the South.

He was 20 years old before he learned to read or write, and, with this new and prized equipment walked and worked his way to Minneapolis, Kan., and odd-jobbed his way through high school and through the Iowa State college of agriculture and mechanical arts. Soon after his graduation, he joined the faculty of the above college and went to Tuskegee institute in 1896, where he is now director of the department of agricultural research. Simpson college gave him an honorary degree in science, the Royal Society of London voted him membership and he was awarded the Spingarn medal in 1923 and the Theodore Roosevelt medal in 1939.

He is a kindly, stoop-shouldered old man, with white hair and iron-rimmed spectacles. He is unmarried and deeply religious. He is apt to answer questions about his work by quotations from the Bible.

REAR ADMIRAL ROBERT C. GIFFEN, commanding our navy task force, joining the British to keep ship lanes clear and blockade Germany, had a like job in the First World War. Here's the navy's official report on his performance:

"Capt. Robert C. Giffen was awarded the Navy cross for distinguished service as commander of the USS destroyer Trippe, escorting and protecting vitally important convoys of troops and supplies, and in offensive and defensive action vigorously and unremittingly prosecuted against all forms of enemy naval activity."

Unofficial accounts of the day went into much more detail about the young captain's skill and courage in chasing submarines through mine-strewn waters. Toward the end of the war, he commanded the USS Schley in the eastern Mediterranean. In 1927, he commanded the USS Sacramento, was commended for distinguished service with the Asiatic Fleet and in 1928 and 1929 commanded the destroyer division of that fleet. His other honors include the Victory medal, with destroy-er class, the Yangtze service medal and the Navy Expeditionary medal.

Admiral Giffen was born in Westchester, Pa., in 1886, studied at De La Salle Institute in Chicago and Notre Dame university and was admitted to the Naval academy from Nebraska in 1903. In 1907 he took command of the USS Savannah.

On the German short-wave recently, we heard a false American voice telling the world that our navy was manned mostly by frightened youngsters who didn't know port from starboard and all of whom would be expeditiously bumped off by Nazi subs. Admiral Giffen is an old hand at answering this kind of talk—with guns. He isn't given to much to talk, expressing himself most effectively in a chart room or on the bridge. Just in passing, it may have been this Nazi short-wave which led the Japanese to stick out honorable neck recently.

Plan Holy Name Holy Hour For Soldiers Field

Another Holy Name Hour to be held in Soldier field, Sept. 13, is being planned for Catholics of the Chicago archdiocese, the Most Rev. Archbishop Samuel A. Stritch announced this week.

Meeting at the Palmer House, July 1, with civic and religious leaders, Rt. Rev. Msgr. Daniel Byrnes, general Holy Hour chairman, outlined plans for the 1942 demonstration.

Msgr. Byrnes said that he expects the 1942 event to surpass the triumph of 1941.

At the Holy Hour last year more than 175,000 Catholics jammed Soldier field, and 8,000 clergy and laity took part in one of the archdiocese largest religious processions.

Catholics and non-Catholics alike acclaimed the Holy Hour as the most outstanding religious demonstration to be held here since the Eucharistic Congress in 1926.

Assisting Archbishop Stritch will be the executive committee composed of Msgr. Byrnes; Dennis Crowley, vice-chairman; John Golden, secretary; Edward Heing, treasurer; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph Morrison, program chairman; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas Bona, special guests chairman; Rudolph Ellensohn, ushers chairman.

Rev. Edward A. Dailey, publicity chairman; Harry O'Rourke, arrangements chairman; Frank Tomczak, transportation; Walter C. Melius, marshal; David Smith, decorations; Felix Johnie, attendance; Lawrence Prybylski, Jr., reception, and Edwin Thomas, assistant publicity chairman.

The United States Civil Service Commission modified today the requirements for 4 types of scientific positions, in an effort to secure additional qualified persons for civilian work in Federal war agencies, both in the United States and abroad. Appointments are to be made immediately in the fields of metallurgy, physics, meteorology, and chemistry. Appointees will work with specific problems in one of these fields. Most of these problems will be connected with some phase of the war program. Salaries for the positions range from $2,600 to $5,600 a year. College teaching in metallurgy, chemistry, and meteorology is allowed as professional experience for any of the positions, provided that all other requirement for the grade under consideration have been met and that the teaching was carried on with a minimum rank of instructor. For physicist positions, the teaching of physics in colleges, high schools, preparatory schools, and trade schools will be considered as professional experience, with the same provision in effect. Completion of a 4-year course in the optional subject at a recognized college, with a minimum of 2 years of professional experience in the field of the option, or appropriate graduate study, is required. No written test will be given. Applicants will be judged from their experience, education and training. Applications will be accepted until the needs of the service have been met, and must be filled with the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C.
