Lily Pons and Kostelanetz to Give Concert, July 31

In the joint concert which Lily Pons and her husband, Andre Kostelanetz, will present in Soldiers' Field on Friday night, July 31 under auspices of the Chicago Opera Company, Mr. Kostelanetz will include two musical "portraits", both of which will be receiving their first Chicago performances. They are (1) "A Lincoln Portrait" by Aaron Copland, and (2) "The Mayor La Guardia Waltzes" by Virgil Thompson.

Although the idea of musical portraits is not new, Mr. Kostelanetz points out that the compositions he will feature here are a direct result of events in December, 1941, when he gave a great deal of thought to the manner in which the magnificent spirit of America could be mirrored in music. Believing that the greatness of a nation is expressed through its people, and that the people who have achieved greatness are logical subjects for musical portraits, Mr. Kostelanetz discussed the idea of some musical character delineations with three of America's leading composers—Aaron Copland, Jerome Kern and Virgil Thompson.

Mr. Copland's choice of a great American who had the qualities of courage, dignity, strength and simplicity that could fittingly be mirrored in music, was Abraham Lincoln. Lincoln's letters and speeches supplying his text, Mr. Copland made his first "sketch" last February 12, finishing his portrait of Lincoln on April 16. A few weeks later orchestration was completed. Mr. Copland working entirely with his own material except for two songs of the Lincoln period—"Camptown Races" and "Springfield Mountain."

The Lincoln composition is divided roughly into three parts. In the first portion, Mr. Copland suggests the mysterious fatality that surrounds Lincoln, bringing in Lincoln's gentleness and simplicity of spirit. The second part of the portrait sketches in the

HAS BIRTHDAY PARTY

Jerry Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sture Johnson, entertained six of his friends at a party Saturday in his home, 597 Vine ave., in honor of his third birthday.

Salmon Jellied in TOMATO JUICE is refreshing, vitamin-rich dish

Dorothy Greig

KREEN of flavor, coolly refreshing—that's our salmon dish. It's rich in vitamin C, thanks to its tomato juice. And the salmon itself is a hearty protein food. For dinner, precede it with a favorite hot soup, such as chicken, to supply the one hot dish every meal should have. Follow with a simple fruit dessert, and you have a meal that's easy to prepare, nutritionally sound, and delicious to eat.

Mix the salmon dish early in the day and park it in the refrigerator to chill until you're ready to whisk it on the table.

1 can tomato juice (14 oz.)
2 teaspoons gelatine (softened in 1/4 cup cold water)
1 can (1 lb.) salmon
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup white pepper
1/2 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise
Sprinkle the 4 teaspoons of gelatine on the cold water and let stand for five minutes. Heat the tomato juice and when hot pour over the softened gelatine and stir until dissolved. Cool.

Remove all bones and dark skin from the salmon and flake; then add lemon juice, salt and pepper. When tomato juice and gelatine begins to thicken, fold in the flaked, seasoned salmon and salad dressing. Pour into a mold which has been rinsed with cold water. Place in refrigerator and chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with crisp lettuce, watercress, chloory, radishes, etc. Serve with Cucumber Cream Dressing. Serves 8.

Cucumber Cream Dressing

1 cup salad dressing or mayonnaise
1/2 cup whipped cream
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons onion, finely chopped
1 cucumber, chopped
2 tablespoons parsley or watercress, chopped

Peel the cucumber and cut or chop into small pieces; then drain. Fold the whipped cream into the mayonnaise; then add the salt, finely chopped onion, chopped cucumber and chopped parsley or watercress. Makes 2 cups.

Establish Bond Booths In Local Stores

Secretary of the Treasury Henry C. Morgenthau has asked the retailers of America to help the treasury sell one billion dollars in War Savings bonds and stamps during the month of July. In many of the large cities, stores have set aside 15 minutes of each noon hour during which sale of merchandise is suspended and the time devoted to sale of bonds and stamps.

The plans to cooperate in Highland Park were announced by L. B. Sinclair, local member of the Lake county War Savings staff. Salesman will be on hand each night in the Alcyon theater to sell stamps to the movie-goers.

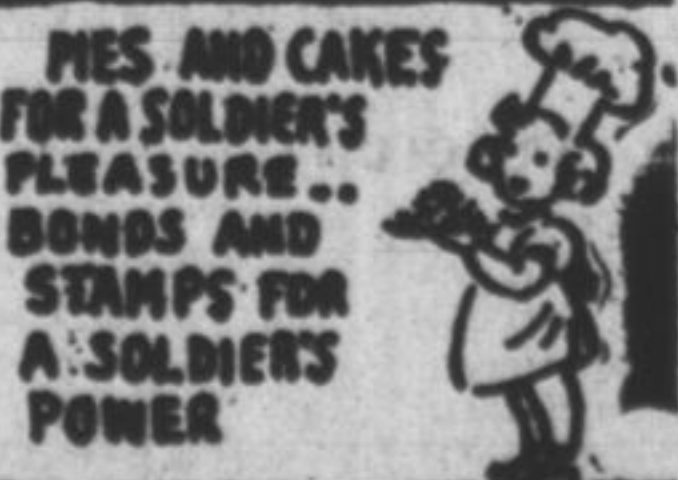

For the balance of this month, stamps and bonds may be purchased from 10:30 a. m. until noon and from 3:30 p. m. to 5 p. m. from volunteer salesgirls at booths in J. B. Garnett company, F. W. Woolworth and the Highland Park pharmacy, National pany, Sears, Roebuck and company, Tea company and the Jewel Food store.

Mrs. Kennicott in Charge

Mrs. H. L. Kennicott is in charge of organizing the workers' group and has announced that the following will act as team captains at the above stores: Beatrice Gaidzik Perry, Sheila McKelvy, Helen Gatewood, Shirley Brown and Helen Speed.

Their co-workers will be Annette Jones, Bonnie Pfantstiel Geppert, Jane Rosenthal, Anne Miller, Vivian Lytle, Sally Friedman, Gloria Jensen, Gloria Segert, Rosemary Irwin, Patricia McGowan, Barbara Cole, Ruth Schulte, Cynthia Howe, Patsy Blake, Betty Weddell, Mary Lou Dyer, Edith Musser, Muriel Hull, Priscilla Hull, Gloria Crain, Muriel Hansen and Audrey Wessling.

Highland Park USO News

Interesting and encouraging statistics have recently been tabulated on attendance at the club for the month of June. The total monthly peak was 11,714 persons, while 246 laymen helped with the programs (as hosts etc.) and 189 took direct part in the entertainment. Last week's attendance passed all weekly records since the opening of the club. 150 men and 90 GSO girls came to the party for the 230th Signal Corps on the 7th, and 65 attended the beach party at the home of Mrs. Truman Metzler, to name only a few of the popular events. 475 people attended the Night Club formal sponsored by the Jewish Welfare Board. The Saturday night Variety Shows put on by Mrs. Brown have increased Saturday attendance over 100%; 200 at least may be regularly expected. On Sunday, 175 saw the movie "Great American Broadcast", and later danced to the Royal Knights orchestra secured by Mr. Ben Bruce. This band of 13 men and 2 girl singers was voted the season's best by all the girls and service men present.

Horse shoe pits are now ready for use at the club, and beach parties are planned for every week or 10 days. A new and popular feature has been the loaning of cameras to the men; any cameras not wanted by the owners can be put to good use by the club, so don't overlook that old Brownie of Junior's, or the Kodak you retired when you bought the new Super Speed model.
