Anyone who is interested in working in this study group may still join.

The annual State Department Day for the League of Women Voters held at Evanston, Fri., Sept. 18 was extremely well attended by Highland Park Leaguers. The group which went to a portion or the whole of the all-day conference include Mrs. Albert Ahrenberg, Mrs. J. Stannard Baker, Mrs. Clarence Balke, Mrs. Douglas Boyd, Mrs. Edgar Carter, Mrs. Jas. Knight, Mrs. Ferdinand Kramer, Mrs. Richard Loewenthal, Mrs. Walter Neisser, Mrs. Harry Pier, Mrs. Maurice Pollak, Mrs. Chas. Spencer and Mrs. J. M. Watkins all of whom are members of the board.

Following logically upon the heels of this discussion of plans for 1942-43 was the September Board meeting of the local League which occurred Wed. A.M., Sept. 23 at the H. P. Community center. Here the chief topics of conversation were (1) plans for the November elections as being worked by Mrs. Van K. Kirk, Chairman of the Dept. of Government and its Operation; (2) the need in Illinois for County Units - of Public Health as presented by Mrs. Ferdinand Kramer in the Dept. of Economic Welfare; and (3) the League school, being directed by Mrs. Walter Rubens.

The League School is to be held each Monday at 1:30 P.M. beginning Oct. 5 at the library auditorium and continuing until April. Open to League members and non-leaguers the school will deal with the structure and function of democratic government in war time. Wartime's the time for Canned Foods to strut their Many Uses

says Dorothy Greig

Tomato Meat Loaf made flavor-rich with condensed tomato soup.

IN these busy days the canned or packaged food that may be used in two, three or four different ways is the prize on any woman's shelf.

We love cereals that double for crumb toppings or in puddings... canned fruits that can be served in salads, pies, sauces or as meat garnishes... prepared flour mixes that become everything from pancakes to pie crusts. They're precious aids to a war working woman.

And as a prime example of a product with many uses, consider condensed tomato soup.

First, of course, it's soup... in fact, two kinds of soup. An equal quantity of water added results in a tangy, vivid and stimulating soup. Or, with milk added, a smooth, bland, cream of tomato soup.

It's a superb tomato sauce, too, just as it comes from the can. Simply heat and serve. Or it can be the base for a spicier sauce, if you wish:

Spicy Onion Tomato Sauce
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 cup onions, chopped
1 can condensed tomato soup
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 tablespoon vinegar
1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
Sprinkling of ground nutmeg

Cook the onions in butter until soft and yellow. Then add the tomato soup, sugar, vinegar and spices. Heat to boiling and simmer 3 to 5 minutes to blend the flavor.

Makes approximately 1 1/2 cups sauce. Serve over frankfurters or pork chops.

You can use condensed tomato soup in cooking, also. Ever try adding it to meat-gravy or pot roast? To stew or casserole to enrich and give flavor? Ever poach eggs in it? Or mix it in meat pie or with macaroni and cheese? Or blend it with grated cheese whipped into baked potatoes?

And meat loaf! It gives that extra rich savor—especially when the loaf is made this way:

Tomato Meat Loaf
1 pound ground veal
1/2 pound ground beef
1/2 pound ground pork
1 cup onions, chopped
3 teaspoons butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 1/2 cups bread crumbs, soft
1 can condensed tomato soup
2 eggs, beaten slightly
2 tablespoons parsley, chopped

Combine the chopped onions, which have been cooked in butter until soft, with the ground veal, beef and pork. Then add the salt, pepper, soft bread crumbs, tomato soup, eggs and chopped parsley, and mix thoroughly. Pack in a greased loaf pan and bake in a moderate oven (350°F) for one hour to one hour and a quarter; baste with hot water and butter three or four times during the baking. This may be served hot or cold. Serves 8.

Form Committee To Start Scrapbook For Overseas Soldiers

Reports from army camps at home and overseas reaching the Highland Park Woman's club indicate that American joke books, cartoon books and collections of American style short stories are almost as welcome to the American boys as a letter from home.

Forty-eight members of the club will meet at the clubhouse every first and third Tuesday morning of the month at 9:30 a.m. and all day every Friday. They will select, clip and arrange reading material for scrapbooks for service men.

Francoeur, co-chairman, will oversee Friday morning's work. Mrs. Leonard W. Keaster, chairman, and Mrs. Lyle W. Maley, co-chairman, will continue the work on Friday afternoon. Miss Sarah McConnell is one of the best piano teachers in the country. I have been familiar with and greatly admired the work she has been doing for a long period of years. Both by training and great experience she is entirely capable of handling either an elementary or an advanced piano pupil—even those who were formerly her students. She has the ability to give the student a thorough understanding of the instrument and the joy which comes from playing it. She is one of the few teachers who merit the entire confidence of the musical public as does Miss McConnell.
