Highland Park's Doings!

Private Wally T. Carr
A-12-4 F.A.R.C.
Second Platoon
Fort Bragg,
North Carolina

Dear Wally:

Hi Boy,
How've you been?
Your letter received today seemed to indicate that you, too, are enjoying Army life. It's really great. And it makes you hard and tough like Dave Floyd use to make us when we were on his football team. Remember those days?

Highland Park High

Highland Park High is going to have a good, winning football team this year. And this is a prediction: I'll wager tow-headed, good-looking Pete Weber will be one of HPHS's outstanding quarterbacks.

This letter, Wally, is going to jump around so hold on.

By the way, Marge Weber paid our town a visit this past week. She was to fly in, but at the last minute an Army officer reported that he had to make a quick trip and Marge took a train home.

The home front

North Shore civilians are really pitching in.

They're behind us, Wally. Yep, they're driving fewer miles, reading more books, collecting more scrap, cooking more cookies and candies, writing more letters to us lads in the service, and also doing a great deal more entertaining. Sure feels good to know the home front is on our team, too.

Remember that old Model A roadster I use to have?

Yes, the one I sold to Burt Beers.

Well, guess where that old flivver is ending up.

Yep, that's right. In Highland Park's big scrap heap.

How about that?

North Shore friends . . .

You inquired about your friends. Well, here's a temporary line up.

Johnny Seyfarth has enlisted into the Signal Corps. And so has Bud Moroney. Both good boys. Mighty glad that we have them in our division of the Army.

And Willy Hinn. Remember Willy? Remember how he used to scoot around the ends when he played half back for HPHS. Well, Willy is going into defense work. Either at Douglas or Abbott's.

What's Bill Boehm doing?

Well, he's still doing good work at the Induction Center in Chicago. He does many different jobs: fingerprinting, recruiting and interviewing. He gives a lot of his friends as well as men he's never seen before lots of good advice.

Highland Park lads . . .

Haven't heard about Bill Peters lately.

Bet he'll be getting his wings soon.

Say, do you know Hank Date? He's a freshman at HPHS. Do you remember attractive Beverly Date? Well, Hank is Bev's brother. And

Former Resident Passes Away

Mrs. George C. Huebner died at 4 p. m. Saturday in Iowa City at the Urban and Urban clinic where she had been for the past ten weeks undergoing treatments.

Julia Emeline Reffey was born in Minier, Ill., June 12, 1900, the daughter of Mrs. Mary Ann Reffey and the late Henry P. Reffey. She came to Kewanee in 1915 and made her home here ever since with the exception of nine years in Highland Park, Ill. Her marriage to George C. Huebner took place Sept. 15, 1928. Surviving with the husband are the son, Ernest George Huebner, the mother and the following sisters: Mrs. Evetta Berg, Kewanee; Mrs. Lucy Hickman, Canton, and Mrs. Ethel Luchow, Detroit, also many nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at 1 p. m. Wednesday at Seifert and Smith funeral home. Burial was in Hopedale, Ill.

Fighting Marines Featured in New Genesee Film

Belching cannon, the shriek of diving planes, the roar of anti-aircraft and the staccato hammering of machine guns, the symphony of battle accompanying the deeds of heroic American fighting marines, will thunder out from the screen of the Genesee theatre, when Paramount's "Wake Island" arrives next Sunday.

Paramount has taken the epic story of the fourteen-day siege of our Pacific outpost, one of the most inspiring stands of this war, and made a screen drama of it, from the viewpoint of the men who fought the battle. Four hundred and forty-six Marines fought an invading force of more than 20 times their number.

here's another prediction: I'll wager Hank Date will be one of HPHS's most popular young men. Watch and see. He already has a flying start. And while you're watching keep your eye on Mason Armstrong. That boy is also going far.

I see Ensign Howell Murray made Highland Park shine in some heroic gun crew operations. Howie's got what it takes.

The good, the great, and the heroic come out in men more often than not. Hank Wilder is a Lieutenant Junior Grade out on the Coast.

Which, for some reason brings up Barby Tennant.

Barb has been having great fun in her pre-marriage days. Lots of good parties and such. PMarge Mac Donald, Dorcas Fitzgerald, and Nancy Leigh Bowes have been doing some gay entertaining.

Princeton . . .

Steve and George Aubrey are back at Princeton working mightily hard.

Jim Aubrey is in the Air Corps. And young brother Dave is just about the most popular lad in HP's ever-better Young Set.

Ann Miller is not returning to National this year. The story goes that she is relaxing after some big and wonderful preparation for the Lyle-Murray wedding of two weeks ago. Incidentally, pretty Ann caught Dotie Murray's bridal bouquet. Guess she'll be the next one to leave.

Doggone.

Rather wish Ann would stay around until I earn my first million. And that's a long way off.

But let's go on. . .

Dick Higgins is in the Navy Air Corp. He's down in Florida now. Guess he's really working. They're running his Special Dartmouth unit through rapidly. Bet Dick will be an instructor. He's about the most tolerant and sympathetic young man I've ever known.

Haven't heard from friend George Lyman. How's he doing?

Cal Defenbau is in the Signal Corps. He's done well so far and might qualify for a commission as second lieutenant.

More Highland Parkers . . .

Dave Wilder will be a second lieutenant when he is graduated from Iowa.

Say Northwestern has a good ball club this year. Wish you could be here to take in some of the games. Perhaps your furlough will be granted in time to see NU play its last game.

See Mr. E. P. Barnes on the 7:29 every morning. He's looking well and prosperous.

I heard from John Brigham the other day. He's in the Customs Department of the Coast Guard. He claims he likes his work.

Well, Wally, that's all. I do hope you get into Officer's School soon.

Keep up the good work.

Remember that your Highland Park friends are all pulling for you and wishing you the best of good luck.

Tonight is the last time I can register. I've been so busy studying and recruiting for the Army I haven't had a chance to register.

But I'll do it tonight.

And right now.

See you soon. . .

—Whit.

HIGH FLIGHT

Oh I have slipped the surly bonds of earth
And danced the skies on laughter-silvered wings;
Sunward I've climbed and joined the tumbling mirth
Of sun-split clouds — and done a hundred things
You have not dreamed of — wheeled and soared and swung
High in the sun-lit silence. Hovering there
I've chased the shouting wind along, and flung
My eager craft through footless halls of air.
Up, up to the long delirious, burning blue
I've topped the wind-swept heights with easy grace
Where never lark, nor even eagle flew;
And while with silent, lifting mind I've trod
The high, untrespassed sanctity of space,
Put out my hand and touched the face of God.

MEAT AND WAR

Ham as a family favorite becomes even more important now as housewives discover how they can save a substantial part of the wartime food budget by purchasing a whole ham and serving all parts of it in many delicious ways. Timely information on the best way to do this is supplied by George Rector, the famous food consultant of Wilson & Co.

For a family of five it's suggested that a whole ham weighing about 12 pounds be purchased. Mr. Rector then suggests that you have the butcher cut it into three parts, (1) shank, (2) center, (3) butt, then have him split the butt in half horizontally and cut the shank into three parts as illustrated.

He has demonstrated that with a whole ham cut this way, the housewife can serve ham at proper intervals in seven different delicious ways without a bit of waste, yet none of the dishes have that leftover flavor.

With the half of the butt that contains the bone (E) you prepare a tasty New England boiled dinner; from the center of the ham (D) comes a handsome baked-ham dinner; from the boniless half of the butt (F) you cut slices to any desired thickness and you have a tempting meal of broiled ham and eggs.

The triangular piece of the shank (C) provides the meat for a savory ham and cabbage dinner. Another cut (A) can be made into ham loaf, and the last shank piece (B) cubed, provides the main ingredient of a tempting casserole supper. And then, of course, there's always that delectable split pea soup made with the ham bone for a meatless day.

It is mainly by such economical and attractive use of meat that the ingenuity of the housewife is making such huge contribution to the winning of the war.

Many housewives will thank Mr. Rector for showing them how to make use of a whole ham to provide so many different, attractive meals that bring praise from a ham-hungry family that is finally getting enough ham.

Goodman Theatre Season Opens

The Kaufman and Hart comedy "George Washington Slept Here" that has played with great success in New York, is now making its Chicago debut at the Goodman Memorial Theatre. This is the beginning of the twelfth season at the Goodman in the presentation of the Art Institute Members' Series plays which were inaugurated by Maurice Gnesin, the head of the Theatre and Theatre School. The plays are open to the public, but Art Institute members through the privilege of their membership may procure tickets at a considerable reduction.

"George Washington Slept Here" is scheduled for a two and a half weeks' run and will close October 17, with one matinee performance on Thursday, October 8. The policy this season is to play two Sunday evening performances and no Monday night performances. There will be one production a month through May.

James Bridie's Scottish comedy THE BLACK EYE is announced to open in November. This played in London for some time where it met with great success.

The director of the Children's theatre, Charlotte B. Chorpenning is rehearsing the first children's theatre production of the season, scheduled to open October 24 in the afternoon. The title—ALICE'S NEW WONDERLAND, and her adventures on the way to Shangri-La—arouses a keen curiosity as to just what Mrs. Chorpenning is doing to the Alice characters. But the mad Hatter will be found at his mad tea party, the white rabbit will be there and of course the Duchess, not forgetting Tweedle and Tweedledum. For those who love the Lewis Carroll characters this will be another great adventure which will appeal to children of all ages.

Stag Planned By Temple Men's Club

WHAT'S COOLING

"COURAGE" is one of the newest additions to names of perfumes. Tsk! Tsk!

Speaking of Courage, there are so many new motormen and bus drivers handling transportation in Washington now that it is nothing unusual for a motorman to ask some of his passengers which street they think the bus ought to go down. Long-time commuters express no surprise, tell the bus driver which way to go. However, it makes some visitors and new riders nervous.

Speaking of Washington—Big Four Magazine says "A priority is the right to ask for something you know you may never get."

Priorities play a big part in the lives of GAS MEN today. Priorities on pipe and repairs, freezes on appliances, and shortages of manpower are a necessary part of the War. You, our customers, have been very patient with the delays and slower service. We DO appreciate it.

Know any husky men who want laborers' jobs at 80c an hour for this fall and winter? We need several.
