

WHO'S NEWS THIS WEEK

By LEMUEL F. PARTON
Consolidated Features.—WNU Release.

NEW YORK.—We know a broker, a Harvard graduate, who didn't so much as scalp an eighth for over a year. He salvaged enough of his fortune to buy a pair of Harvard at Work Bench and Labor Goes to Harvard Jersey and got a job with Bendix Aviation. He has had a raise in pay and says the house percentage against a man at a work bench is far less than in Wall Street. It is one of many instances of the infiltration of Harvard, and Ivy league associates, into the ranks of skilled labor.

It works both ways. At the suggestion of trade unions, Harvard opens a nine-months trade union fellowship course for labor organization men selected by their unions. They propose to build a bridge between labor and industry, in the seminar sponsored by the Harvard Business school, the Littauer School of Public Administration and the Harvard Department of Economics. Fifteen men begin the course.

Perhaps, under current stress and strain, everybody is working the other side of the street. But there are encouraging precedents. Toyne Hall of London, around the turn of the century, was comparable. While it flushed many doctrinaires and ephemeral dreams, it stirred much honest discussion and helped induce social responsibility both in British labor and industry.

Lucius N. Littauer, the glove magnate of Gloversville and New York city, who established the above school of business administration, was 83 years old last January. When he endowed the school with $2,500,000 in 1928, he said it was to be "administered in the cause of better understanding among all mankind." He was graduated from Harvard 63 years ago, picked up his father's glove business, and in practical business administration, learned much of the interdependent problems of labor and industry.

In congress, 1897 to 1907, he sponsored and established the United States bureau of standards. Somewhat pertinent to this is his bureau of human standards at Harvard.

FERENC VASARHELYI, distinguished Hungarian biochemist, reconditioned and re-energized Benito Mussolini. We had lunch with him recently. We gathered that, in the case of 11 Duce and certain other European careerists he wished he had just let nature take its course. He's against the dictators.

He came here three years ago and has been revitalizing and restimulating Greta Garbo, Alice Marble, Elisabeth Bergner, Antoine de Paris, Jessica Dragonette, Gabriel Pascal and other eminent persons who may safely be revived without any danger of their becoming Frankenstein's. At luncheon, he extolled sauerkraut as an energy builder. The fact is that sauerkraut had a lot to do with upping Horthy and ousting Mr. Vassarhelyi.

When Horthy was a minor naval officer, the men in the fleet went on strike, saying they would rather be shot than eat another yard of sauerkraut. Disobeying the orders of his commander, Horthy seized a cruiser and made the sailors eat sauerkraut, days on end, at the point of a gun. Its inspiring effects were such that Horthy was rewarded by being made chief admiral of the fleet. He ate still more sauerkraut and reached out and grabbed the country.

Mr. Vassarhelyi's career is one of the most unique in the backwash of the first World War, lying as it does in the overlapping zone of politics and dietetics. He thinks food has a profound and determining effect on individual and collective human behavior and that scientists will some day read history in terms of starches and proteins. His political career came to a peak in a dramatic climax in 1917, when he helped ease out the monarchy and bring in the liberal Count Karolyi as premier.

Mr. Vassarhelyi is 78, trim and erect, clear-chinned and hard as nails. He ascribes this to the fact that he practices what he preaches. He thinks a democratized Danubian federation will shape up after the war, and that Europe will be reorganized on sound economic and biological fundamentals. Roughly, these two fields of interest have filled his life, but he puts the main stress on the latter. Much devastating human activity he thinks may be traced to food poisoning.

U. S. O. Club N. C. C. S. Operated 428 Railway Ave., Highland, Ill.

Bigger and better pictures are being shown on movie nights at the Highland U.S.O. club, 428 Railway avenue, Roy P. Bedore, director, announces, through the rotating scheme devised by all the North Shore clubs. A schedule of films to be shown at all clubs in succession has been made up and allows for the showing of newer and more popular attractions. On Tuesday, Oct. 20, Cesar Romero and Marjorie Weaver will be shown in "The Cisco Kid and the Lady," on Oct. 27, "Star Dust" with Linda Darnell, John Payne and Roland Young. Half the proceeds of the annual charity ball sponsored by the Chicago chapter of the Knights of Columbus have been turned over to the two U. S. O. clubs operated by the National Catholic Community service in the Chicago area. The informal affair was held at the Drake hotel and will benefit the Highland club in the matter of program.

Sponsor Comedy
Already four offers have come from North Shore communities which have organizations which would like to sponsor the three-act comedy, "The Family Upstairs," presented recently at the Highland Park high school by soldier patrons of the club. In approximately two weeks the Military players will give the play in Fort Sheridan. A meeting was held Thursday to discuss the third production, which may be a musical comedy.

Butterfield Country club of Hinsdale has donated three complete sets of golf clubs and extra clubs to the club, Joseph S. Gillespie, chairman of the patriotic committee, announces. Among new things received at the club are Mexican rosaries.

"Robbie" Magnani, house man at the U.S.O. club, has left to serve as a civilian radio instructor for the army. He is being replaced by Alexander W. Perry of Highwood.

The club is cooperating in distributing literature for North Shore Army day, which will be Saturday, Oct. 31, when Camp Grant plays Fort Knox, Ky., at Dycbe stadium in Evanston. There will be military drills by the army, music by the Grant band and the presentation of a queen. Ballots may be obtained at the center.

October 19 Congregation Israel Sisterhood to Meet

Many traditions have had to give way "for the duration," so it is doubly a privilege to announce that the opening meeting of North Shore Congregation Israel Sisterhood will be "strictly as usual." For many years Rabbi Charles E. Schulman, and Avis Clamitz Shulman have been featured at the October meeting on a joint program. Though these well-known favorites speak from many platforms during the course of a club season, this annual event is the only time that they appear on a joint program. Their subject on Monday, October 19th will be "The Outlook for Civilization" - with Rabbi Shulman discussing "The World of Yesterday" and Mrs. Shulman "The World of Tomorrow."

Mrs. Ralph Arnheim is program chairman. The activities of the day start at the Temple, Lincoln & Vernon Avenues, Glencoe, at 10 a. m. with Red Cross sewing and bandage making. Luncheon will be served at 12:30 by Mrs. B. Z. Rappaport and her committee, following which Mrs. Arnheim will present the program, to which a cordial invitation is offered all interested persons.

New members of the Sisterhood will be the recipients of a special welcome. Mrs. Milton J. Klee is president of the Sisterhood.

50% FUEL SAVING POSSIBLE IN AVERAGE ILLINOIS HOME

According to facts proved at the University of Illinois you can save fuel for Victory by:

A big help is to have your poker straightened and rebent like this about 30 degree angle

1. Reducing Smoke

When adding fresh coal in furnace, boiler, or stove:

- (a) Move glowing coals to one side of firepot;
- (b) Pile fresh coal on the other side;
- (c) Leave glowing coals exposed to ignite smoke and gases from fresh fuel.

2. Keeping Heat In and Cold Out

Reasonable possible savings from:

- Tight storm windows and doors..... 20%
- or Weatherstripping 10%
- Wall insulation 20%
- Ceiling or attic insulation 15%

3. Lowering Temperatures

Every degree reduction of average indoor temperature saves 3%. Reducing house temperature 10 degrees during sleeping hours saves 5 to 10%.

Don't heat garages, unused rooms, or bedrooms when windows are open.

4. An Efficient Heating Plant

Keep registers clean; don't let rugs or furniture block either warm- or cold-air registers.

Keep furniture and drapes away from radiators.

Have furnace or boiler cleaned regularly.

Once a year clean or replace filters of forced air systems.

Robert E. Speer To Address Sunday Evening Club

"Bob" Speer, Christian layman whose personality has dominated the church world for half a century, as missionary, writer and editor of its various administrative bodies, will be next Sunday's speaker at the Sunday Evening Club in Orchestra Hall at eight. He will share the platform with another prominent Presbyterian, Dr. Jesse Halsey, who will give the Bible Talk at the early meeting at seven.

Dr. Robert E. Speer, as secretary of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, as president for four years of the Federal Council of Churches, as chairman of the General War-time Commission of the Churches, and as one of the foremost exponents of Church Unity, has had an influence of universal proportions on the work of the Christian church. Though never ordained, the degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him by the University of Edinburgh in 1910. He is said to know more about the foreign field than any living man, and his frequent tours have taken him into Persia, India, China, Korea, Japan, South America, Siam and the Philippines. He will speak Sunday on "Whose Fight Is It?" Clifford W. Barnes, president of the Sunday Evening Club, friend and contemporary of Dr. Speer, will preside and introduce him. William S. Warfield, Chicago business man, will also take part.

Dr. Halsey, a newcomer to Chicago, member of the faculty of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary, will make his first appearance at the Club. He has been recommended as a speaker of unusual ability and for his experience of versatile activity. He is a former pastor of Presbyterian churches in the East, professor at Columbia, for several years a member of Wilfred T. Grenfell's Mission in Labrador, Y. M. C. A. war worker in Russia and chaplain of the British Navy in 1917.

The Sunday Evening Club choir of 125 and its quartet of prominent soloists will present a program of sacred music including "All Praise to God" by Wagner, "Soft Floating on the Evening Air" by Root, "Crisis the Lord" by Maunder, Marian Carlsio, guest soprano, will sing "Hear Ye Israel" by Mendelssohn. Doors open at 6:45. Admission is free.

Dr. Speer, will preside and introduce him. William S. Warfield, Chicago business man, will also take part.

Reports, Payments For Third Quarter Due Under Job Act

Third quarter contribution and wage reports under the Illinois Unemployment Compensation act became due Oct. 1. State Director of Labor, Francis B. Murphy has reminded employers.

"Under the Illinois act, most employers who had six or more persons in employment during parts of any twenty weeks in 1942 or during parts of any twenty weeks in 1941 are liable," Director Murphy said.

"We are requesting employers to be both careful and prompt in filling out the forms and submitting contributions," Murphy added.

"Tardiness in paying contributions and filing reports is penalized by added charges provided in the law," the director pointed out. "The grace period for the third quarter ends Oct. 31, and reports not postmarked on or before that date will be subject to a penalty charge of 2 per cent a month, based on the amount of contributions due."

Woman's Guild Holds Its 35th Annual Rummage Sale

The Woman's Guild of the Glencoe Union Church will hold its annual rummage sale Thursday and Friday, Oct. 29 and 30 in the basement of the church. Mrs. Henry Droba is in charge of the sale. Members of her committee are busily gathering and sorting the treasures which are coming in rapidly.

It is expected that woolen coats, suits and dresses will be in special demand this year, as well as shoes and rubbers. The children's clothing, women's dresses, and men's apparel are always popular departments. Great bargains are also to be found in the household sections, where draperies, slip covers, pictures, bric-a-brac, and even kitchen equipment await the canny buyer.

The rummage sale is the chief money making venture in support of the Guild's many charities. This year the members feel the rummage sale is a patriotic institution. Frugal Americans do not discard good clothing and usable household equipment. Children do outgrow clothes, however, and styles will change. So, the efficiently conducted rummage sale is the ideal market for clever buyers to find good used merchandise at reasonable prices.

The Woman's Guild has held its sale the last Thursday and Friday of October for 35 years. The hours will be from 8 A.M. through 7:30 P.M., in order that everyone may find a convenient shopping time.

Change Date of Men's Club Party

The date of the opening meeting of the Men's club of North Shore Congregation Israel, Glencoe, has been changed for Oct. 13 to Oct. 21 at Hotel Moraine-on-the-Lake at 8:15 p. m.

The program will include discussion, refreshments and cards.

Jack Burns, former employee of the Deerfield A & P store is now stationed at Great Lakes.
