Women To Hear Program Of Character Sketches, Tuesday

Eleanor Sikes Peters, re-creator of plays, brings to the Highland Park Woman's club at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 3, a program of character sketches equally effective in serious drama, quiet pathos, light humor or sophisticated comedy-satire. As an artist, Mrs. Peters has the gift of identifying herself with each of her characters, giving them flesh and blood reality.

After attending Sweet Briar college in Virginia, Eleanor Sikes Peters was graduated from the University of Wisconsin. Following that she trained in Chicago and New York dramatic studios.

Each year the recitalist selects for her program a few of the season's best plays reflecting the current mood in dramatic writing. Some of these she adds to a permanent repertoire, because of their more lasting values.

Edwin G. Martin, interior decorator and member of the board of governors of the Illinois chapter of the American Institute of Decorators, will open the day's events with a lecture at 10 a.m. on "The Evolution of Wallpaper and its Latest Adaptation." This is the first lecture in the series sponsored by the collectors' study group, Mrs. Charles Mason, chairman. Luncheon, in charge of Mrs. Baker Hamilton and Mrs. J. S. Bracken, will be served at 12 noon.

Two Highland Park musicians, Mrs. Jack Spackner, violinist, and Mrs. Albert Pick, pianist, will play the allegro con fantasia, intermezzo andantino and the finale allegro motto quasi fiato movements of Paderewski's sonata for violin and piano at 12:45.

This is the first musical program which Mrs. David Sanders, music chairman, has scheduled to precede three of the year's programs.

A brief business meeting will be held at 2 p.m. after which members will hear Eleanor Sikes Peters and her character sketches. Hostesses at the door and the tea tables will be: Mrs. Herman Black, Mrs. Walter M. Buckroeder, Mrs. Eben Erikson and Mrs. Sidney Parry.

Barn Dance Held By Briergate Club

A meeting of the Briergate Community club was held Tuesday, Oct. 20, at the Issak Walton Cabin in the Woods, west of Deerfield. Supper was prepared by a committee, and served to the 50 members and their guests attending.

After supper, the tables were cleared away and an accordionist and an experienced "caller" led the group in Virginia reels and square dances.

At the meeting the big American flag the club had just purchased to fly on the community flag pole was unfurled. The flag which had been used previously had become too tattered.

This was the second meeting of the Briergate Community club this fall. The first meeting was held last month at the home of Avery C. Jones, club president.

Changes Made In Board Personnel Of Voters League

At the League of Women Voters board meeting held, Wednesday morning, October 21, Mrs. Louis Haller, president of the Highland Park League, announced a number of changes in the personnel of the board. The new incumbents include one officer, Mrs. Edward I. Colombo, corresponding secretary; and one department chairman, Mrs. Ferdinand Kramer, who is now heading the department of government and economic welfare, and her new co-chairman, Mrs. Albert W. Elliott.

Added to the Publicity Committee are Mrs. Ben Lazard, in charge of posters, and Mrs. Robert Cooper, in charge of display. The new chairman of publications is Mrs. Edgar B. Carter, whose co-chairman is Mrs. Leon Harpole. In precincts 3, 7 and 10 are new precinct chairmen, namely Mrs. D. L. Clinton, Mrs. W. P. Goodreds and Mrs. John Y. Crompton.

Elections Committee To Be Chosen By League of Voters

At the moment the Highland Park League of Women Voters is pioneering in the matter of gradually building up within the organization election specialists, by having a permanent elections committee to serve the league membership.

The members of the committee include one or more persons (depending on the total number of leaguers residing in the precinct) living in each of the seventeen town precincts, with the idea of their becoming a clearing house on all matters pertaining to elections. Any league member desiring to obtain information about elections, offices to be filled, names of candidates for office, or the technique of voting may phone the captain or co-captain living nearest her within the precinct in which she lives. The names of the captains and co-captains have been sent to each leaguer.

Visiting Night To Be Held By P.T.A.

The annual Highland Park high school P.T.A. visiting night will be held Thursday, Nov. 12. Although originally planned for the first Thursday in the month, it has been changed to the following week in order to coincide with American Educational week.

Conferences with the teachers will take place from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock. In addition to exhibits in some of the rooms, there will be continuous movies in several rooms.

Program Planned For Meeting of Elm Place P.T.A.

A program has been planned for the meeting of the Elm Place school P.T.A. to be held Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 4. A study group meeting will take place at 1:30 o'clock in the art room, at which time Mrs. Boye will discuss "Forward With Books." She will explain what books do to influence children's lives and the place of literature in children's lives.

The regular P. T. A. meeting will start at 2:30 o'clock in the auditorium. It will be in the form of a book quiz conducted by the seventh and eighth grade students.

Miss Boye will present a talk on current books for Christmas gifts, following which, tea will be served.

Local Girl Scout Council To Be Hostesses At All Day Meeting

"Girl Scouting in Wartime Community Planning" will be the theme of an all-day meeting Friday, Nov. 6, at which the Girl Scout council of Highland Park will be hostesses to Scout councils of Glencoe, Deerfield, Libertyville, Bannockburn, Lake Forest and Lake Bluff. The meeting, one of the most important Girl Scout gatherings of the year in the north Suburban area, will be held in the Presbyterian church, Laurel and Linden avenues, Highland Park.

The meeting will begin at 10 o'clock and continue to 2:45 o'clock. Girl Scouts are invited to come to the meeting at any time after 3:15 o'clock to see displays of arts and crafts made by members of Girl Scout troops, which will be one of the features of the meeting.

The theme for the meeting is a development of an idea presented at a Girl Scout meeting in October in the Palmer house, Chicago. At this meeting current problems affecting Girl Scout troops were presented by members of the National and Regency boards, and representatives of national agencies. It was suggested at that time that the problems could be solved effectively in regional meetings at which the ideas presented could be considered in relation to the local boards.

Agencies represented on the coordinating council of the Girl Scouts and representatives of the schools have been invited to attend the meeting.

Mrs. C. Eugene Pfister, commissioner, Highland Park Girl Scout council, will preside as chairman of the meeting and welcome the guest representatives of other suburban councils. She will introduce Mrs. A. Gordon Bradt, commissioner of the Evanston Girl Scout council, and will explain the purpose of the meeting. Paul J. Misner, superintendent of the Glencoe schools, will discuss the problem from the standpoint of the grade schools and Dr. Harold Spears, principal, Highland Park high school, will speak from the standpoint of the high schools.

A symposium "Present Planning for Children" will be conducted by Mrs. Charles Carey, commissioner, Glencoe Girl Scout council. Other speakers at the morning session will be Mrs. Alfred Taylor, chairman, women's division, civilian defense in Glencoe, whose subject will be "Government Wartime Agencies;" Edwin C. Jones, field representative, Recreation service, Office of Defense, Health and Welfare services; Mrs. H. D. Aylesworth, Junior Red Cross, Libertyville, Ill.; Dr. Dorothy S. Davis, of Deerfield, "The Health of Our Children," and Mrs. Glenn Thompson, of Glencoe, who will discuss Girl Scout activities and "What More Can Be Done."

The meeting will adjourn at 12:15 o'clock for luncheon. Women are requested to bring their own box lunches. Coffee will be served.

The afternoon session from 1:15 to 2:45 o'clock will be devoted to group discussions with Mrs. E. E. Mack, chairman, women's division, Glencoe Community Chest, as chairman. Dis-
