Kay Varner Weds Sgt. Kesketh in Military Rites Dec. 19

Miss Kay Varner and Sgt. Gerald Kesketh of Johnstown, Pa. were married Saturday at 2:30 p. m. in military rites at Fort Sheridan. A small reception followed in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Varner, 680 Deerfield ave., Highland Park. The young couple are now on a honeymoon and will live in Highland Park on their return.

Mr. Varner gave his daughter in marriage. Her bridal gown was fashioned of white satin along princess lines. Her veil was fingertip length and fell from a crown of seed pearls, and she carried yellow centered white chrysanthemums.

As matron of honor, Mrs. Peggy Patterson wore a yellow mousseline de sole frock, floor-length. She had an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums in fall shades and wore a spray of them in her hair. Sgt. James Shulte, also of Fort Sheridan, served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Varner chose a black crepe afternoon dress, trimmed with touches of white and black accessories. Her shoulder corsage was comprised of gardenias.
