

Society -- Womens News -- Locals

Ravinia Woman's Club to Hear Noted Woman At Jan. 13 Meeting

Mrs. Louise Leonard Wright (Mrs. Quincy Wright), director of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations, will give a talk on current events as the program for the January 13 meeting of the Ravinia Woman's club, a week from Wednesday at 2 o'clock in the village house.

Mrs. Wright, who succeeded Clifton M. Utley as director of the Chicago council when he became editor of the air edition of the Chicago Sun, is also a consultant for the officer of coordinator of inter-American affairs, trustee of the American Council of the Institute of Pacific Relations, president of the Woodrow Wilson foundation, and from 1934-42 has been chairman of the department of government and foreign policy of the League of Women Voters.

She has traveled widely, making studies of international problems, of the League of Nations in Geneva, and of the Mandate system in Palestine, Syria and Iraq, has visited China and Russia and spent considerable time in Europe. She is the author of "Toward a Collective Peace System," "American Neutrality" and "What Every Citizen Should Know About Foreign Policy."

The program committee of the Ravinia Woman's club is sponsoring this event and Mrs. Wright will be introduced by Mrs. Sidney Frisch, chairman. Other members of the committee are Mrs. V. E. Lawrence, co-chairman, Mrs. George K. Bowden, Mrs. Richard H. Hafner, Mrs. Remy L. Hudson, Mrs. Philip L. Johnson, Mrs. Arthur Meyerhoff, Mrs. Arthur Raff, Mrs. L. S. Riggs, Mrs. Louis Robertson, Mrs. D. B. Robinson, Mrs. Harold A. Shebano, Mrs. Robert Spahr, Mrs. Stanley Strong, Mrs. Theodore Uehling and Mrs. Dudley Crafts Watson.

Following the lecture, the tea tables will be presided over by Mrs. J. C. McAleer, Mrs. Hilmar Swensen, Mrs. Paul Wells and Mrs. George Bagley, under the chairmanship of Mrs. M. J. Schemmacker.

COLLEGE NOTES

Richard Davidson Harza was among 330 students who received class scholarship honors at Northwestern university for work done during the 1941-42 academic year. Students who ranked in the upper ten per cent of their class and possessed a scholastic average above B plus were eligible for the honor list.

Harza is the son of Mr. L. F. Harza of 2299 Pierce road and is now a student in the Technological Institute. He is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity.

Nancy Nereim is home from Carleton college at Northfield, Minn., for the holidays visiting her parents, the Roy O Nereims of Central avenue.

Morton Raff, who is a senior at Swarthmore college, and his sister, Paula, a freshman at the University of Iowa, are spending their holiday vacation with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raff of Cedar avenue.

Raymond W. Stafford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Webster N. Stafford of 812 South Linden avenue is one of the 114 Brown University freshman who pledged fraternities recently.

A Highland Park graduate, he was active in athletics while attending school here.

Stafford has pledged Psi Upsilon, one of the sixteen national fraternities at Brown. Founded in 1837 at Union college, Psi Upsilon was established on the Brown campus in 1840.

Mothers And Daughters Meet For Annual Party

The annual mothers' and daughters' party of the North Shore Congregation Israel Sisterhood was held Tuesday afternoon at the temple in Glencoe. The program was arranged by Mrs. Ralph Arnheim.

Featured during the entertainment were Burr Tillstrom and his puppet, Kukla, who has sold stamps and bonds all over the city and entertained soldiers and sailors at all the U. S. O. and service centers in the city, at Fort Sheridan, Great Lakes and Navy pier. Mrs. Milton J. Klee is president of the Sisterhood.

Highwood USO Club

With the holiday festivities over, the staff of the Highwood U. S. O. club, 428 Railway Ave., is making plans for the first anniversary celebration to be held on Sunday, Dec. 10. Both dignitaries of Fort Sheridan and the Catholic Church will be present for the ceremonies, Roy P. Bedore, director, announces.

"Top Sarge" John Meyers, 81-year old Spanish-American war veteran and ex-officio greeter for the clubhouse, played Santa Claus on Christmas night for the boys. Gifts and candy were distributed. Caroling was under the direction of Miss Sally Glass of Highwood. Refreshments were sugared cookies in the shape of Christmas trees and Santas.

Two huge Santa Claus faces with light bulbs as noses dominated the decorations in the ballroom—ropes of scarlet and green being criss-crossed and hung from the rafters, bells at the intersections and tinsel over all. The Misses Leni Bellei and Nora Mahoney directed the prettying up of the place.

Sacred Heart guild members of the Tabernacle society of St. James church served at the Wednesday dance. Mrs. Sante Bernardi is president.

On Sunday the club was the subject of a broadcast over WENR and the Blue network; the origin and work of the Military players was recounted in the quarter-hour program which included songs by the U.S.O. Commandos, including the U.S.O. song, "Keep 'Em Smiling," and a number by Irma Glenn, organist of radio fame.

A New Year's formal will be held on Wednesday of this week, with Evanston persons as hosts.

Sunday Evening Club To Hear Talk By Carveth Wells

Captain John Craig who was to be the speaker at the North Shore Sunday Evening club on Sunday, Jan. 3, at the opening of the second half of the season has gone into active service. In his place the committee has engaged Carveth Wells, Fellow in the National Geographic society, internationally famed explorer, author and radio commentator. Mr. Wells has led expeditions to the far corners of the earth for various scientific societies including the American Museum of Natural History and the Chicago Geographic society.

Since the outbreak of World War II, he has visited Japan, Korea, Manchuria, China, Malaya, India, Egypt and other countries.

London Professor
Mr. Wells was educated at St. Pauls schools and London university where he later became a professor of civil engineering. He has been a soldier, explorer, writer, inventor, naturalist, railroad builder, motion picture producer and a pioneer in radio and television.

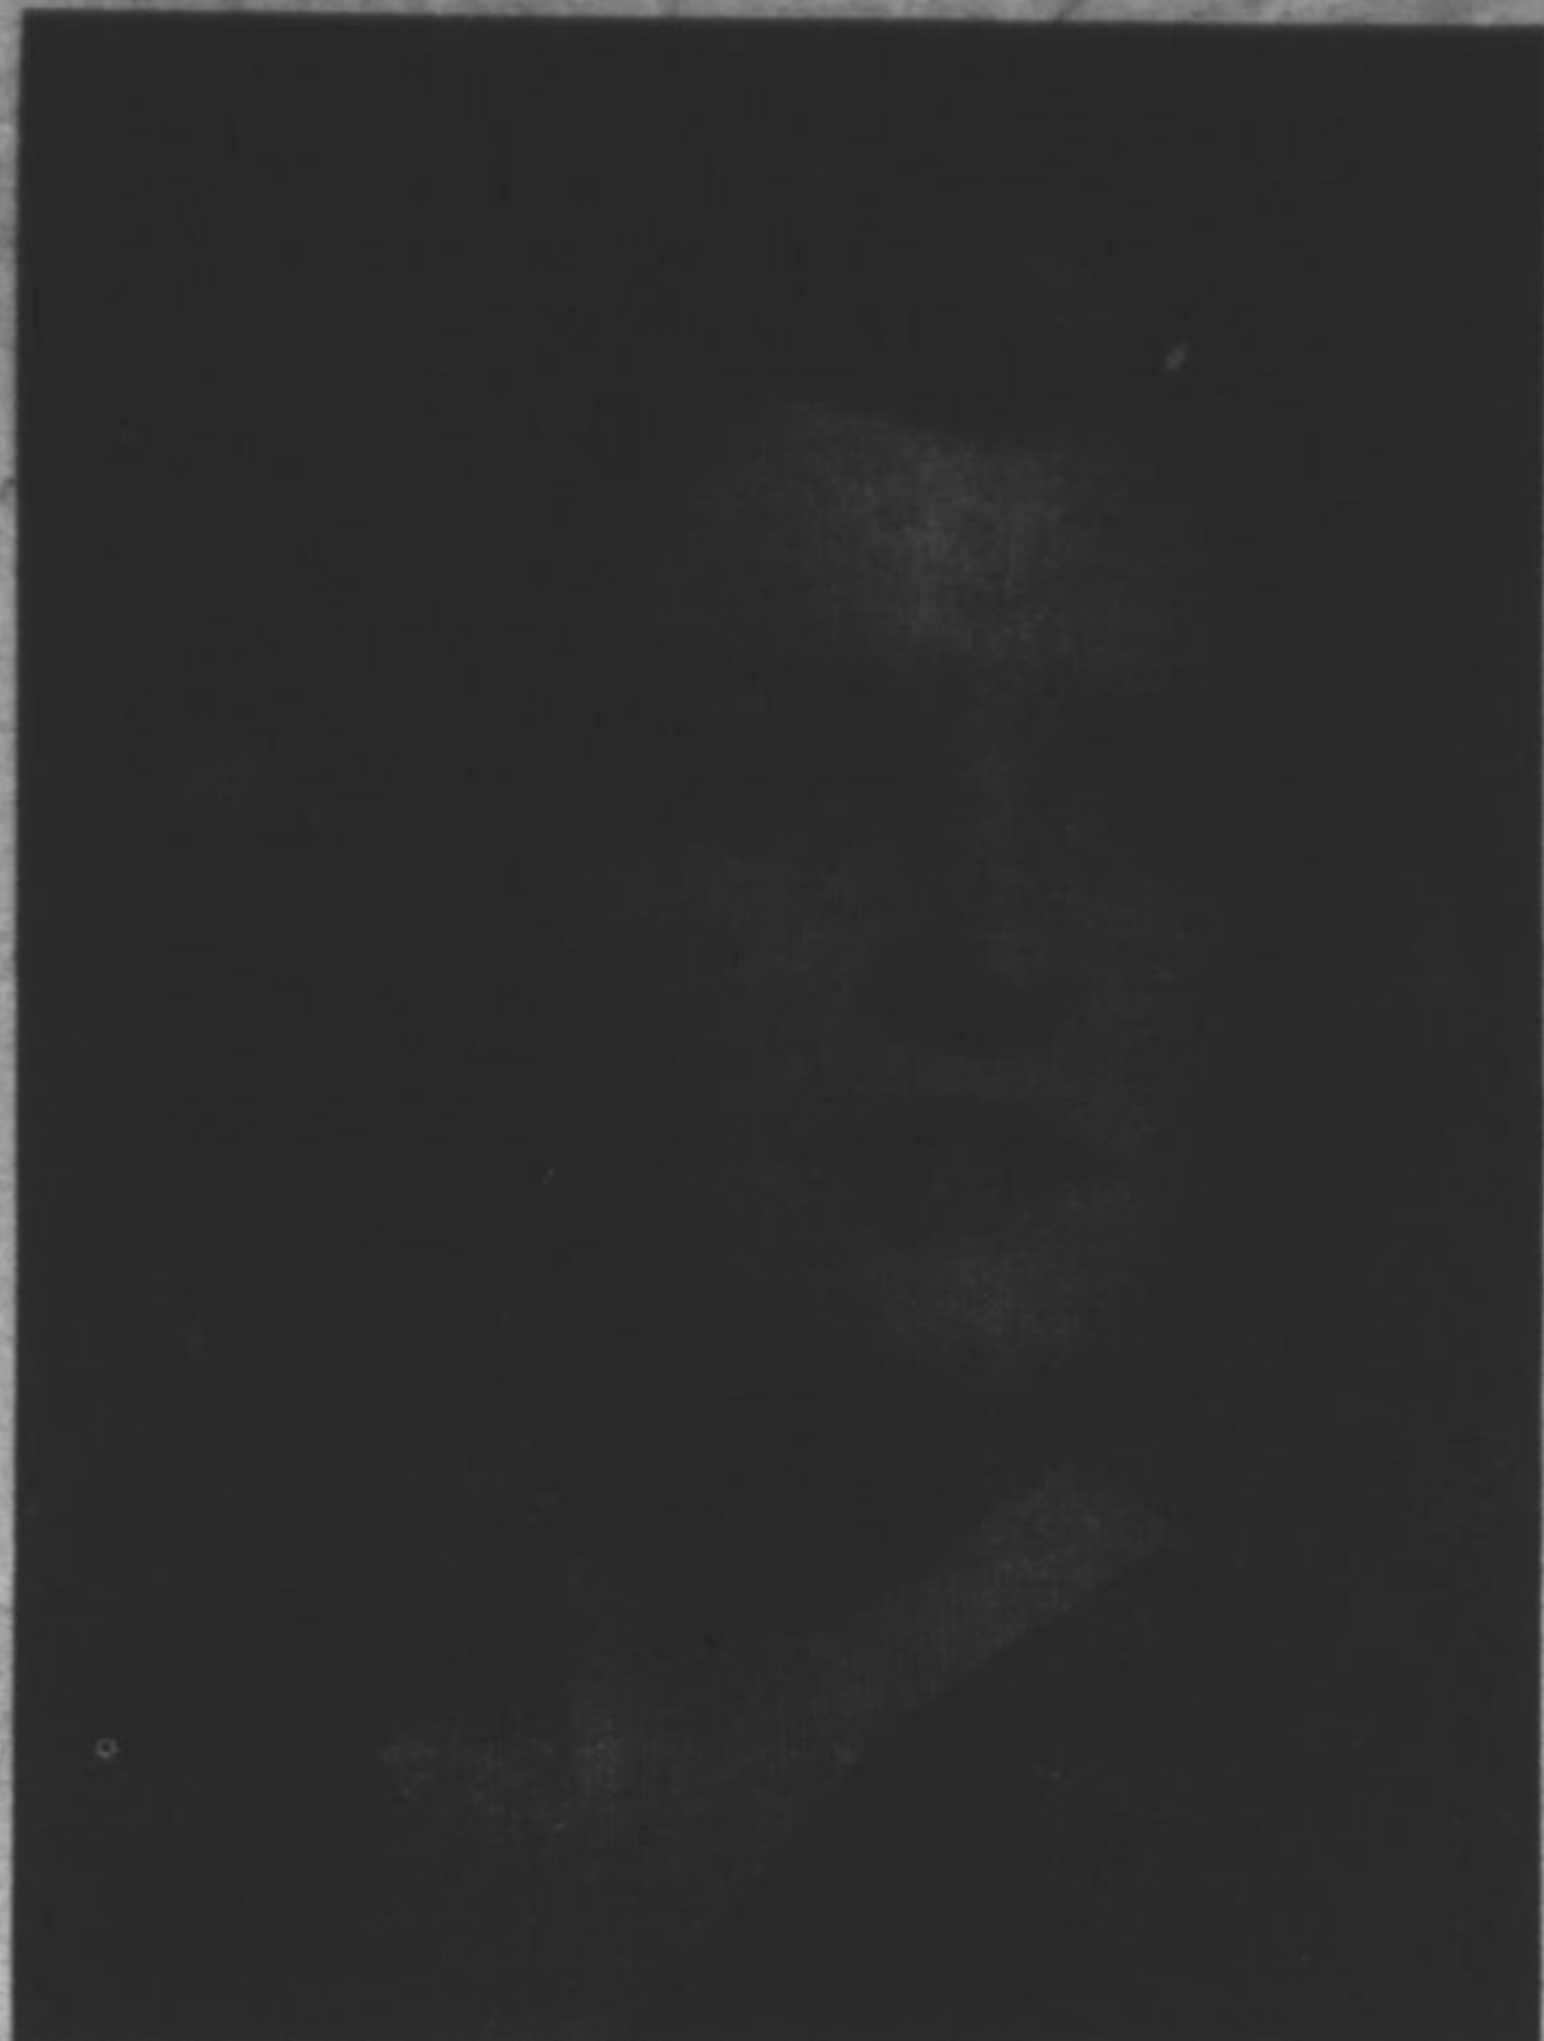

Among his books are "Six Years in the Malay Jungle," "Let's Do the Mediterranean," "Bermuda in Three Colors," "Exploring the World," "Panamexico." Five of his books have been transcribed in the Braille for the blind.

For his lecture for the North Shore Sunday Evening club, he will speak on North Africa, illustrated with moving pictures.

New Schedule for Presbyterian Church Woman's Association

The Woman's Association of the Highland Park Presbyterian Church will start the new schedule for group meetings on Monday, January 4, 1943. They will be held in the Parish House.

The Association board will meet at 9:30 a. m. The roups will meet from 11 to 4 p. m. There will be the usual surgical dressings and sewing, and a new war project, the Knapsack library for soldiers and sailors. Coffee will be served at 12:30 and each member is asked to bring his own sandwiches.

Engagement Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Muhle of Central avenue, Deerfield, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Betty Lorraine, to Glen C. Ohmann, petty officer, third class, U. S. N. R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl S. Ohmann of Taylor avenue, Highland Park.

Both Miss Muhle and Mr. Ohmann are graduates of Highland Park high school, and he is stationed at the Naval Reserve Training Base at Glenview as an athletic instructor.

The wedding will take place the last of January.

H. P. Public Library

Headhunting in The Solomon Islands around the Coral Sea—by Caroline Mytinger.

A fascinating account of an unorthodox expedition made by two young women to such places as the Solomon Islands and New Britain, in the Southwest Pacific. One gets an intimate and realistic picture of such town as Rabaul, of primitive life among the Melanesians, and of the more sophisticated sort on the plantations where the girls visited.

Silent Enemies by Justina Hill.
The author, a distinguished bacteriologist at Johns Hopkins, has written a book that will inform and encourage men and women in the services and their families, about the diseases intensified by war.

Fifty Years Below Zero by C. D. Brower.

For fifty-seven years Charles Brower has lived within the Arctic Circle. He tells vividly of the daily lives, manners, customs of the Eskimos, of hunting, sealing and whaling with them. Nor did he lack visitors—Amundsen, Captain Bob Bartlett and the whaling captains and crews.

The Chicago, by Harry Hansen.
Of the Chicago river Hansen says: "The Chicago river has a pivotal place in history; without that river there would have been no Chicago, the state of Illinois would have ended at the end of Lake Michigan; the greatest railroad terminal of the world never would have existed, and nobody would have spent a billion dollars trying to keep the sand out of the ditch. And if I had known more about it when I lived there I would have looked upon it with greater respect.

The Friendly Mountains by Roderick Peattie.

This is the first in a new series—The American Mountain Series. It is the regional story of the mountain ranges of the Northeast, favorites of vacationists throughout the country; it tells how the ranges were formed, about the first white settlers, of the wild life, climate, accessibility for sport, etc.

Robert Wood To Marry Peggy Beattie Of South Carolina

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Peggy Beattie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Marshall Beattie of Greenville, S. C., and Robert Macpherson Wood, lieutenant in the army air corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Arthur Wood of Highland Park.

Lt. Wood has been stationed at Greenville as an instructor pilot, since he received his wings last August at Kelley field, Texas. He and Miss Beattie expect to be married in January.

Miss Beattie is a graduate of Mount Vernon seminary and Converse college. Lt. Wood attended the Highland Park high school one year and was graduated from Princeton university in 1936 and from Yale law school three years later. His elder brother, Arthur MacDougal Wood, is a captain in the army air corps, now stationed in Washington, D. C.

Miss Beattie has a brother, Lt. Samuel Beattie, who is with the army in Egypt.

Second Lecture To Be Given By Helen Adams

"Powerful Personalities in the House of Representatives" is the subject of the second lecture in a series of five to be given by Helen R. Adams under the auspices of the Council of Jewish Women on Wednesday, Jan 6, at 10:30 a. m. at the North Shore temple. Mrs. William Sahud is president of the Chicago section of the council.

Mrs. Adams, who has been associated with newspaper syndicates and magazines as reporter and feature writer, and who had had commissions in Europe as well as in Washington and other sections of the United States, has arranged a series of lectures which deal with current history and politics woven around the men and women of influence in the government. Mrs. Adams is well known in civic and club circles, not only as a newspaper woman, but as a lecturer.

There will be no charge for admission and everyone is welcome. Mrs. Harry L. Cannann, chairman of the North Shore committee, will open the meeting.

Complete Plans For Elks Annual Party

Highland Park Elks lodge are completing plans for the annual New Year's eve party to be given in the Elks hall, starting at 9:30 o'clock Thursday evening.

An orchestra will play for dancing and a turkey dinner will be served. Favors will be presented to all guests.

REVIEWS BOOK FOR CHICAGO SUN

Appearing in the December 27 issue of the Chicago Sun's book section was a signed book review by Mary Jean Gatewood, a senior at the Highland Park high school. Miss Gatewood reviewed Marjorie Hill Allen's "Winter's Mischief."

Priscilla Carver To Give Lecture At Woman's Club Jan. 5

Miss Priscilla Carver, well known in Chicago and North Shore musical circles, will give a brief piano recital at the Highland Park Woman's club at 12:45 p. m. on January 5.

Miss Carver received her musical education in Europe under the direction of Theresa Carreno and Harold Bauer, and has three times appeared as piano soloist with the New York Symphony at Ravinia park and in addition has made solo appearances with the Chicago Symphony and the Business Men's orchestra.

Lake Forest music lovers have subscribed to a series of morning recitals given by Miss Carver for many years. Her spring recitals have been given in Highland Park for a number of seasons.

The Mazurka and Nocturne No. 13 by Chopin comprise the first group of numbers which Miss Carver will play for the Woman's club. The following modern compositions are included in the second group: "Mirror Lake" by Niemann, "Water Wagtail" by Scott, "Nocturne" by Respighi, "Lady and the Nightingale" by Granados and "Andaluza" by Ve-Falla.

This musical interlude is the second in a series which the Woman's club music department, Mrs. David Sanders, chairman, has arranged to precede the afternoon speakers.

Woman's Club to Hear Lecture By Agnes L. Sasscier

Agnes L. Sasscier, a member of the Colonial Coverlet guild and Midwest Antiques association, will discuss painted tin or Toleware, before the collectors' study group of the Highland Park Woman's club at 10 a. m. Tuesday, Jan. 5. A number of fine pieces from her own collection will be on display for inspection and study.

A collector of antiques, Mrs. Sasscier's "Collecting Bees" have included old cameos, inkstands, valentines and shaving mugs. A number of her collections have been sponsored by the Chicago Public library and have been exhibited at the main branch on different occasions.

In 1938 an article written by Mrs. Sasscier on bookmarks appeared in American Home magazine and articles on other subjects have appeared in American Collector and Hobbies publications.

Announce Engagement of Bereath Nelson

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tomblin of 534 Lincoln place announce the engagement of their daughter, Bereath Nelson, to Naval Aviator Cadet Earling Zaeske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zaeske of 506 Lincoln place.

Both Miss Nelson and Mr. Zaeske graduated from Highland Park High school in 1940. Mr. Zaeske attended Iowa State university at Ames, Iowa until his enlistment last May. He was called to active service in August, and expects to complete his flight training in March, and is now a student at the naval air base at Corpus Christi, Texas.

No immediate plans for a wedding have been made.

RABBI TO SPEAK ON OUTLOOK FOR '43

"The Outlook for 1943" will be Rabbi Charles E. Shulman's sermon topic for the regular Sunday morning services on January 3 at North Shore Congregation Israel, Glencoe.

For Breakfast— Try this HOT CEREAL
• Children Love It
• Easily Prepared
• Healthful
• Economical
For Luncheon or Dinner—
• Cool, Slice and Fry

MONARCH
Food of Wheat
See other Monarch Foods—all but on hand

Make Reservations Now!

VILLA MODERNE

TONY CABOT
and his orchestra
Sunday Dinners from $1.25
No Cover or Minimum Charge

GALA NEW YEARS EVE PARTY
$5.00 per person plus tax
Includes all party
EXCELLENT DINNER

H. P. 4283

THE BEST PEOPLE THE BEST CUISINE

New Year's Day Dinner

Fresh Shrimp Cocktail	Fruit Cup Supreme
Consomme, Croutons	Chilled Tomato Juice
Assorted Canapes	Bismarck Herring
	Relishes
Roast Prime Rib of Beef, Melon Pickles
Half Val-O-Will Chicken Fried Golden Brown
Roast Young Tom Turkey, Cranberries
Broiled Lamb Chops, Mint Jelly
Baked Sugar Cured Ham, Raisin Sauce,
Whipped Potato	Pecan Sweet Potato
	Cauliflower, Cheese Sauce
	Buttered Asparagus
	Harvard Beets
	Molded Cherry and Pecan Salad
Mince Pie	Layer Cake
Chocolate Sundae	Apple Pie
	Caramel Sundae
	Strawberry Parfait
Camembert, Roquefort or Liederkrantz Cheese, Rye Crisp or Crackers
	Choice of Ice Cream or Sherbet
	Beverage
	$1.75 Per Plate

HOTEL MORAINÉ
ON-THE-LAKE
Telephone H. P. 4444 for Reservations

THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS

Entered as Second Class Matter March 1, 1911, at the Post Office at Highland Park, Illinois.

Issued Thursday of each week by the Highland Park Press, 818 Laurel Avenue, Highland Park, Illinois. Telephone: Highland Park 877.

MEMBER OF CHICAGO SUBURBAN QUALITY GROUP

Communications intended for publication must be written on one side of the paper only, and placed with the name and address of the writer. They should reach the office by Wednesday noon to insure appearance in current issue.

Subscription Price, $1.50 per year. 5 cents per single copy. $5.00 per year outside Lake County, Ill.

Acceptance for mailing at special rate of postage provided for in Act of October 3, 1917, authorized on condition that notice of change in postage will be printed on regular advertising matter.

LESTER S. OLSON, Publisher

Just a Notation

new year
IN THE
Main Dining Room
RUSS MORGAN
Moods in the Morgan Manner
TWO ELABORATE FLOOR SHOWS
Reservations $10 per person plus tax
LONGBEACH 6000

EDGEWATER BEACH HOTEL