

Gremlins

From the Army air base at Casper, Wyo., comes a first-hand report on Gremlins, those pesky little people who raise such havoc with English and American air pilots.

stationed there, has this to say about those little men: "This all began when Sis sent me a Gremlin. She picked him up down in Pyote while she was visiting me there. Seems he gave her no end of trouble. He would deposit dirt in the corners, pull bobby pins out of her hair, steal them, and the last straw was when he shrunk the sweater which she had made for me so it would fit him. I'm trying to keep him in the barracks until I can determine what species or category he belongs. "You see, you people on the outside are most horribly misled and misinformed as to the true actions and characteristics of Gremlins. The most harm is done by newspapers, magazines and 'Disney.' "Gremlins, like people, have developed certain likes and dislikes. Gremlins only associate with people who associate with airplanes. There are different kinds of Gremlins than those that ride around on airplane wings, punch holes in gas tanks, and stick

RE-ELECT NATHAN S. SHARP CITY COMMISSIONER On His Record

Member of a city council which has given Highland Park a sound financial administration during the last four years. He helped us live well within our civic income. He helped to reduce an inherited deficit, by approximately $6,000. He is opposed to increased taxation. He will continue to serve you in the same conservative manner.

"The domestic Gremlin is a home-flyer from behind with hat pins. loving sort of critter. He usually hangs around the barracks and there executes his various acts of mischief such as: stealing your razor blades, putting cracker crumbs in your bed, tearing buttons off your clothes, steal your stamps, and every time you receive a package from home that contains food they will wait until you are out of the barracks and then pass it around to everyone in sight. They have a habit of holding their tiny hands over your ears when the orderly calls you in the morning so that you oversleep. "Another type very similar to the domestic Gremlin is one who is known to ride on mail trains or airmail planes. They will cross out or change addresses and in some cases destroy letters. One of their lousiest tricks is to open letters containing money orders and erase one or two of the zeros behind the numeral. "This type also very frequently changes the date on a pass so that you overstay, and they never miss setting your watch back when you are on pass. They'll grab your arm when saluting so that your hand comes dangerously close to your nose instead of your forehead. They always slip money out of your billfold so that you're short on a taxi fare or night club bill. They always beat the waiter to the tip. "Of course you have read many acts of the Gremlins who ride with us in the air, so I'll spare you any further indulgence on that phase. I might conclude that any statement in the

Rabbi Richard Hertz Will Preach On 'All In One World'

Rabbi Richard C. Hertz will preach on "All in One World" at the regular services Sunday morning, April 11, at North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glenscoe. When Rabbi Hertz was in New York recently he had an interview with Wendell L. Willkie which prompts his sermon and to which he will refer in his talk. Passover, the holiday commemorating the deliverance of the Jews from the oppression of the Pharaohs and their entrance into the Promised Land, will be marked by Jews throughout the world from Monday evening, April 19, through Monday, April 26. Rabbi Hertz will officiate at special services on the first and seventh days of the holiday, Tuesday, April 20, and Monday, April 26, at 11 a. m. in the temple proper.

As has been the custom for some years, a congregational Seder will be held at North Shore Congregation Israel on the evening of Tuesday, April 20, for members of the Congregation and their families. Rabbi Hertz, assisted by the temple choir, will conduct the service.

Services Held for Former Resident In New Jersey

Word has been received by Dario Bonetti of Central avenue, and Dante Vonetti of Grove avenue, Highwood, of the death of their sister, Mrs. Diana Sheffer, on April 5. She was a former resident of Highland Park.

Services were held in Newark, N. J., where she had made her home the past few years. Burial was at Rosehill cemetery, Linden, N. J.

She leaves, besides her husband, Paul, of Newark, and her two brothers of Highland Park and Highwood, a sister, Mrs. Ada Censotti of Chicago, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bonetti also of Chicago.

Dr. E. Stanley Jones To Address Chicago Sunday Evening Club

The "World's Foremost Christian," Dr. E. Stanley Jones of India, will speak next Sunday in Orchestra hall before the Chicago Sunday Evening Club. President Clifford W. Barnes will present him to the capacity audience which he always attracts, whom he will address on the subject: "The Word Convulsion—Has It Any Meaning?" Edward K. Welles, a trustee of the club will take part.

For many years Dr. Jones' written and spoken word has been a guide to a higher sense of Christian living in all lands, and his latest book, "Abundant Living" is considered a daily guide book to every Christian on the globe. A former missionary of the Methodist Church, his primary field was India, but his parish has become the World. Last December Dr. Jones started conservative religionists by proposing a federal union of all churches to be known as the Church of Christ in America, of which each denomination would be a branch. Christian unity has been the goal toward which he set out in 1907 when he began his religious career as a young preacher in Lucknow.

Special Palm Sunday music by the Sunday Evening club choir of 125 and the Coe College Brass Choir of Cedar Rapids will be a feature of the meeting. The club chorus will sing at eight, starring Mark Love, Charles Sears, Virginia Auyer and Louise Weber, names well known in the radio and opera fields. Edgar Nelson will direct them in a program of the world's greatest "Holy Week" music. The visiting band will give a concert at seven under the direction of Capt. Stanley Vesely, who has led them in Presidential inaugural concerts, and other important occasions on which they represented the State of Iowa. The president of Coe college, Dr. Charles A. Anderson will follow the concert with a short Bible Talk, and alumni of the college will be special guests.

Doors open at 6:45. Admission is free to the 3,000 seats available in Orchestra hall.

Rebekahs to Entertain Odd Fellows at Meeting

Sheridan Rebekah lodge, No. 801, will have the Highland Park Odd Fellows and their wives as special guests at their meeting Monday evening, April 19, at the Masonic temple. A social hour has been planned, followed by a short business meeting of the lodge. Members of Rebekah lodge, Odd Fellows, husbands and wives of both lodges are invited to attend.

Captain Eddie Rickenbacker says: OF TORPEDO SQUADRON 8

"To these boys should go the undying gratitude of every man, woman and child within the boundaries of the United States of America for their daring accomplishments and loyalty to the cause, that will go down in history as one of the outstanding epics of World War II.

"Few of us can visualize the strength of character and courage needed and displayed by the members of Torpedo Squadron 8 in their willingness to help destroy a vicious enemy when death faced them.

"Let every American man, woman and child on the home front try in his humble way to equal the efforts of these men, because none of us can ever hope to approximate their sacrifices."

They didn't count the cost

Every American knows the suicide saga of Torpedo Squadron 8. How it lost all 15 planes and all but one of its 30 men in a mission which helped produce our great victory at Midway. It was these boys who found the Jap fleet. Who radioed its position. And without the necessary fighter and high altitude bomber support dove to the attack.

This week the big 2nd War Loan Drive is on! Our country is not asking us to give or even risk our lives. She simply wants us to lend her money. And this 13 billion dollars must be raised during April to assure more torpedo squadrons—more victories like Midway.

It's true we've done a good job so far. But this war is far from won. The Japs are building new airfields in Kiska on American soil. Submarines are sinking our supply ships within sight of our own shores.

It's a long way from Casablanca to Berlin, or Tokio.

While you help your country you will help yourself. Your purchases of War Bonds help retard inflation. They are as safe as your government. And when Victory has been won you will have saved the money you need for a new home, new car, new luxuries.

You may say, "But I've been buying War Bonds. Paying higher taxes. Giving up conveniences." If you think you're doing all you can, recall the last words of Commander Waldron to Squadron 8: "Of course, we will strike regardless of the consequences." Unquestionably answering this new call will mean more self-denial. Giving up more luxuries. Additional inconveniences. But on the hot sands of Tunisia, in the steaming jungles of New Guinea, in that "hell-hole" at Guadalcanal... other men are doing more.
