OCD Wartime Cooking School First Class Friday, May 21

The Lever Bros. Wartime Cooking School which is brought to the community under the auspices of the Consumer Information Service of Office of Civilian Defense will be held May 21st, May 28th and June 4th at the Highland Park Y. W. C. A. All classes will begin promptly at 1:30 p. m. and continue for an hour and a half. Admission is FREE and children will be cared for during the classes for twenty-five cents for each child. Housewives are asked to register if possible for the School at the local office of Civilian Defense.

Lever Bros. (makers of Spry) are assisting with the government in a National Nutrition Program to aid housewives with their food problems. The Wartime Cooking School will be conducted by Miss Ann L. Olson, nationally known home economist. Miss Olson will show housewives how to stretch their food rationing points and will actually demonstrate dollar stretching recipes. Miss Olson is a superb cook and the sessions promise to be both delightful and educational. Five shopping bags of groceries and additional prizes will be given away to the audience. This is a real opportunity for women to learn modern food ideas from a recognized authority in the food world. Come and urge your friends to come.

Inter-Faith Group To Hear Talk On 'War Relocation'

The May meeting of the Inter-Faith group will be held at the local "Y" on Laurel avenue, promptly at 10 o'clock Tuesday, May 18, and visitors are welcome.

The discussion will deal with the place of the loyal Japanese of American birth in American communities. Miss Prudence Ross, assistant to the director of the midwest "War Relocation Authority" Mr. Hall, will speak on the work of the United States government in the relocation centers and of the efforts being made to help loyal Americans of Japanese descent fit into American life. Miss Ross has had experience in social service work and has been in charge of certifications for the Illinois Public Relief organization. A period of discussion will follow Miss Ross's informal talk.

As this is the last meeting of the group before the summer recess, a simple luncheon will be served to those who wish to remain after the morning session, for which a small charge will be made. Mrs. Jack Behn is in charge of the luncheon. Reservations must be in the hands of the "Y," H.P. 675, by Saturday, May 15.

Miss Herbst And Ensign Cuming Exchange Vows

At 8:30 o'clock on May 12 while the chancel choir of the Presbyterian church sang the Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin," Miss Dorothy Herbst became the bride of Ensign George Scott Cuming, Jr.

Wearing a traditional gown of white and short veil, the bride exchanged vows with Ensign Cuming while the Reverend Louis W. Sherwin read the ceremony. The bride's father gave his daughter in marriage.

The Tennet twins, Mrs. T. Hamill Reidy and Miss Jean Tennet, and the groom's sisters, Mrs. Richard Maurer and Miss Joan Cuming, who served as bridesmaids, wore pale yellow gowns with matching hats. They carried bouquets of yellow flowers. Attending her sister as maid of honor, Miss Ruth Herbst wore the same gown of hyacinth blue and matching hat. Her bouquet of yellow spring flowers included lavender iris.

The bridegroom's father, Mr. George Scott Cuming, served his son as best man. Ushers were Lieut. Reidy, Mr. Maurer, and the bride's brother, Mr. Robert H. Herbst, Jr.

Mr. Leonard Balsamo sang "O Perfect Love" and concluded the exchange of vows with "The Lord's Prayer." The newly wedded couple left the chancel under an arch of wreaths. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents on Ravine drive.

The next meeting of the Lady Elks will be on Tuesday, May 18, at the clubhouse at 1:30 p.m.

WE MUST WORK HARDER, LIVE MORE SIMPLY

Before canned goods were invented, Americans, rich and poor, made their own gardens and "wintered" through on simple fare, chiefly salt pork, corn bread and potatoes.

Again we need to plant our own gardens . . . to preserve what we can for next winter's use . . . to assure ample food for our fighting men, sufficient food for ourselves . . . TO HELP WIN THE WAR.

PAYROLL DOLLARS
Our 1942 payroll amounted to $597,497.00 which was paid to 304 of our employees who resided within the territory served by our company.

Most of these payroll dollars were spent in the North Shore communities by our employees and their families for food, shelter, clothing and other necessities of life.

Did you figure out the answer to last week's problem? The man who bought the pawn ticket for $1.50 also had to pay $1.50 to redeem the $2 so he was loser by $1.
