RAVINIA OPENS!

At Ravinia Park, June 29—
Yes, it was a little chilly... but we didn't mind because the spirit was gay, warm, festive...

We arrived at 8:15...
The long, black, sleek limosines of pre-war-Ravinia-days still slowly drew up to the main gates... and dignified guarantors stepped out.

Mink coats. White orchids. Beautiful formals. Lots of soft and lovely silver foxes. Women in bangs. Debutantes. Dowagers. Business men. Army and Navy Officers. Soldiers, sailors and marines. Waves. Waacs. Spars. Photographers. Thirteen hundred petunias. Neatly clipped green grass. White crunching stones. And over 2700 people—all kinds, all classes. Yes, lots of people...

But not as many as last year or the year before...

Most of the lads are gone now... gone to far away states, far away lands...

How they wish they could have been there.

But there were lots of pretty girls—petite Highland Park girls, Northwestern coeds, and girls home from the Eastern finishing schools...

Rosemary Pease. Beverly Date. Bev Roach. Bobbe Bosworth. Catherine Marks. Karen Swenson. The new Mrs. Joe Eyer. And the new Mrs. Bud Pfister.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Clarke. Mr. and Mrs. David Suttle. Mr. and Mrs. James

Lytle. Mr. and Mrs. Howell Murray. Mrs. Harold Marks. Mr. Francis Norwood Bard. Mr. and Mrs. Jerome T. Bowes, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Boynton. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton B. Burch. Lt. and Mrs. Edward E. Burwell. Mrs. Herbert R. Butz. Mr. and Mrs. L. Lewis Cohen. Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Cusack. Mr. and Mrs. Percy B. Eckhart. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Field. Lt. Col. and Mrs. Harold M. Florsheim, General and Mrs. Robert E. Wood...

Great Lakes Sailors opened Ravinia festival, 1943.

And then Desire Defauw, conductor, led his Chicago Symphony Orchestra into and beautifully through Mendelssohn's, Ravel's, Debussy's, and Strauss's music.

INTERMISSION...

It was about the same as usual. Salutes were passed among men in uniform. Women eyed each other carefully and not altogether constructively. And the conversations... they went something like this...

"Boy it's cold!" "Gosh, this sure is a society affair." "I wish Bob were here to enjoy this." "I'm going to come to every concert from now on!"

And so it went, Highland Parkers.

The crickets were there. The people were there. But there was something lacking. You know what it is...

But peace will come.

Roger P. Kirkgasser will report July 1 to the Marine Detachment Navy Training unit at the University of Rochester, N. Y., where he will attend an engineering school. He enlisted in the reserve corps while attending Syracuse university, and will receive a commission upon completion of his course. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kirkgasser of S. Sheridan road.

Another son, Pvt. George Kirkgasser Jr., is serving with an army signal corps unit which is presumably overseas.

A True or False Quiz for Owners of ELECTRIC ROASTERS

STATEMENT—Meats should be kept in the refrigerator until ready to roast.

TRUE FALSE

The above statement is False. Meats should be taken out of the refrigerator 2 or 3 hours before roasting.

STATEMENT—Before roasting meat, the roaster should be pre-heated to maximum temperature.

TRUE FALSE

The above statement is True.

STATEMENT—A complete meal—meat, potatoes, vegetables and dessert—can be cooked in the electric roaster at one time.

TRUE FALSE

The above statement is True.

STATEMENT—When cooking meats and vegetables both should be placed in the roaster at the same time.

TRUE FALSE

The above statement is False. Vegetables require a shorter cooking time, and are normally placed in the roaster after the meat has been started.

STATEMENT—Meat should be browned 30 to 45 minutes with vents open.

TRUE FALSE

The above statement is True. After browning, turn heat control to lower temperature (as indicated in directions for roasting various meats).

STATEMENT—You should not add water to meat unless braising or stewing.

TRUE FALSE

The above statement is True.

STATEMENT—The electric roaster is convenient for servicemen dinner parties.
