MASON GRADUATES AS LIEUTENANT

Barrett K. Mason of the marine corps graduated from officer candidate school last Wednesday as a second lieutenant in Quantico, Va.

It is estimated that only 3 new dwellings have been built for each five additional families which have been formed during the past ten years.

The Home of Tomorrow will have a luxurious hot spring at the control of the occupants finger tips. There will be water at any temperature, in any quantities to satisfy family needs.

Just Naturally Polite St. Car Con.: "Did you get home all right last night, sir?" Mr. M. After: "Of course. Why do you ask?"

Speaking of politeness—we like the words of Edgar M. Zuenemy, "The Public's attitude toward a company's determined in substantial measure by the company's attitude toward the public."

Reducing absenteeism: Some of the major department stores in defense areas—and some in nearby cities—now have miniature stores in certain defense plants.

Just because Gas is cheap, let's not waste it.
