Men's Garden Club Reelects Present Board

At the annual business meeting of the Highland Park Men's Garden club Tuesday night, Dec. 7, in Community center, the nominating committee recommended the re-election of all present officers for a term of one year. Their suggestion was approved by the members, and the following will remain in office:

Dougall A. Kittermaster, president; Jens Ericksen, first vice-president; Bert Leech, second vice-president, and Harry Oppenheimer, treasurer. The secretary, Morton Schamberg, was elected last year for a term of three years.

In addition to the above officers, the following directors were elected for two-year terms: Bruce Krasberg, Jesse L. Strauss, Carl Stith, Barton Pope, Thomas V. McDavitt, Whitt Schultz, and James W. Barton, to fill the vacancy of the late J. D. Dickinson.

Long Illness Fatal to Mrs. Lillian Trout

Mrs. Lillian May Trout, 64, of 104 Elm avenue, Highwood, died Thursday morning in her home after an illness of four months.

Born in Logansport, Ind., she had lived in Highwood for 30 years and was the widow of the late Arthur Trout. She leaves two sons, Leslie of Highwood and Arthur of Waukegan, a daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Anderson of Kenosha, a brother, Perry L. Brown of Brook, Ind., and two sisters, Mrs. Eva Jacobs of Chicago and Mrs. Daisey McDaniels of Wheatfield, Ind.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon in Kelley's chapel, with burial in Oakridge cemetery, Chicago.

Photography, Bridge, Archery, Dancing At Local USO Club

Bridge and archery share the spotlight at the Highland Park U.S.O. on Thursday, Dec. 16. Rush Hussey, 714 North St. Johns avenue, directs and instructs the bridge play while members of the Highland Park Archery club supervise the bow and arrow shooting.

Percy Prior, 1026 Wade street, has begun a plan calculated to interest service people in photography as a hobby. Photographs of 25 service people will be taken every Thursday. These will be printed, portrait style and sent to the family of the service man or woman. Assisting Mr. Prior in this work will be Simon Feuchtwanger, 615 Crescent court, and Frank F. Selfridge, 206 Belle avenue.

Residents of Highland Park are invited to the U.S.O., 21 N. Green Bay road, for the annual Community carol sing, Sunday, Dec. 19, from 6:15 p.m. to 7 p.m. Choirs of various churches and many specially organized choral groups will take part in this traditional singing of Christmas carols.

Supper Buffet Supper

A buffet supper will be served to the service people at 7 p.m. Mrs. Shandor Zinner of Glencoe is chairman of a group of Highland Park and Glencoe couples who will prepare and serve the supper.

At 7:30 the A Cappella choir of the North Shore Country Day school will present a short program. Then comes the feature of the evening when Santa Claus will arrive to present gifts to all service people. At 8:15 the post band of Fort Sheridan will play for dancing.

Plans are being made for two groups of Christmas carolers to leave the club at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Dec. 22, on a journey through Highland Park. This plan is under the supervision of the Service council of the club. Fred Woodward, Ph M 3/c, of Los Angeles, Calif., now stationed at Great Lakes, is chairman of the committee in charge. The carolers will return to the club at 10 p.m. for coffee and cake.

Sgt. and Mrs. Stupey Lose Infant Son

The three-month-old son of Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Richard E. Stupey, Richard Michael, died last Thursday, according to word received by the Sgt. Stupey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stupey, 100 Walnut street.

Since Sgt. Stupey left for overseas duty last March, Mrs. Stupey has been living with her parents in Edgeley, N. Dak. Sgt. Stupey had never seen the baby, who was born Sept. 4, left for England.

Sgt. and Mrs. Stupey were married last winter when he was stationed at an air base in South Dakota. Several months later he left for England with the air force.

Sgt. Stupey has three brothers, last winter when he was stationed at an air base in South Dakota. Several years ago, first class pharmacist's mate in the navy, now in New Zealand, and Joseph Jr., who lives in California, and a sister, Mrs. Lillian McCampsey, of Waukegan.
