First Hand Reports
Mr. Thomas' lectures are the first hand reports of a newspaperman who knows how to dig out the facts, check their accuracy, and analyze them for his audience. His world travels which began during high school and college vacations, have taken him to Japan and Russia several times. In addition, he served as a war correspondent in the western theatre of the war, participating in several commando raid parties on the European continent. He hales from San Francisco graduating from the University of California in 1928.

Remy Hudson, president of the Parent-Teacher Civic association, quotes the speaker as promising an open forum at the conclusion of the lecture if desired by the audience.

Timely Books at the H. P. Library

Send your favorite book to a fighting man. When fighting slackens and a quiet rest hour comes... then a book is a real companion.
The Victory Book campaign is being continued in Illinois during 1944 under the direction of the Honorable Edward J. Hughes, Secretary of State and State Librarian, and Carl Roden, librarian of the Chicago Public Library.
During the past two years of the Victory Book campaign, nearly 17,000,000 books have been collected throughout the United States, most of which have been distributed to the army, navy, the American Merchant Marine Library association, the United Service organizations, American Red Cross, War Prisoner's aid, to War Relocation centers and to selected industrial areas.
"Good books of all kinds are needed now—fiction, non-fiction, best sellers, classics and paper-bound books. All books should be in good physical condition."
Why not look through your books today? Do it now! Surely there must be some that you enjoyed reading yourself, but would like to share now with a service man. Bring any books which you would like to contribute to the Victory Book campaign to the Highland Park Public Library, 380 Laurel avenue.

Glassware Display
A handsome linen cloth provided a handsome foundation for Mrs. Wilford K. Shippe exhibit of dew drop and star glassware centered around miniature bouquets of marigolds, jonquills and for-get-me-nots grouped in an old castor. Small glass plates with deep rose goblets and cups laid on an embroidered cloth, were a stunning contrast developed by Mrs. Carl Quanz, who accented her motif with rose red tulips. Mrs. Mason Smith's fascinating majolica tea pot and oval leaf plates laid on a hand woven cover, together with Mrs. Charles Mason's wedding band china and loop glassware, were charming and cozy informal arrangements.
Honor Old Residents
Mrs. Eugene Pfister, as chairman of the home and education department, sponsoring the tea, welcomed members and guests and extended special salutations to the McCaren sisters, old residents and special guests, whose father secured his land grant here in 1848. During the tea hour past presidents presided at the table bedecked with pink tapers, camellias and snappers arranged in antique fruit dishes.

Agnes Sasscier To Address Women On 'Parian Ware'

Agnes Sasscier's lecture on "Parian Ware" at the Highland Park Woman's club next Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock will be the fifth in the lecture series on antiques sponsored by the Collectors' Study group.
Parian is a translucent hard paste porcelain or biscuit ware originally made in France. During the eighteenth century, figurines and busts of famous Europeans were made by skilled potters. Parian was soon found to be suitable for more decorative pieces and was transferred into vases, ewers, trinket boxes and perfume bottles at an early date.
A remarkable resemblance to the exquisite marble of Paros Greece suggested the name "Parian" to Spode, who was one of the early manufacturers. Copeland succeeded Spode and potted at Stoke-on-Trent in England in 1848, and in 1850 Adams made figures in Parian which excelled all others in delicate detail.
Mrs. Sasscier has been invited by Mrs. Charles Mason, Collectors' Study group chairman, to display pieces from her collection recently exhibited at the Chicago Public Library in connection with the century anniversary of Parian manufacture in America.

Red Cross Nat'l. Drive

of the Highland Park war fund drive, and Gilbert K. Hardacre, co-chairman, joined with Mr. Menke in voicing their conviction that the national objective of $200,000,000 will be reached because the people recognize the vital part that Red Cross must play within the next 12 months.
Highland Park's portion of the national quota is $40,000.
Alleviate Suffering
Reviewing accomplishments, Menke pointed out that the Red Cross spirit springs from human desire to alleviate suffering and pain in war and in times of disaster, and that during this war this spirit has been carried to every part of the globe where American men and women are serving the nation. Most of the numerous Red Cross activities are carried on by unselfish volunteer workers.
"So expansive is the Red Cross service during this war," continued Chairman Menke, "that practically every American civilian is in contact with at least one of its functions. To continue this gigantic work we feel certain that Highland Parkers will assume their $40,000 share of this responsibility."
Every citizen of Highland Park will be given the opportunity to contribute to this cause through the war fund drive campaign which started yesterday under the guidance of the Rev. Sherwin and Mr. Hardacre.

Ask Cooperation

All persons who live in Highland Park and work elsewhere are urged to make at least a part, if not all of their war fund contributions, otherwise Highland Park may have difficulty in making its quota.
Headquarters for the campaign this year is the Red Cross center in the Public Service company building, Mrs. Edward A. Smith, senior staff assistant is in charge of this office. Clarence Witt is the Red Cross treasurer. All checks should be made payable to the American Red Cross. In case of mailing, they should be addressed to the American Red Cross, 521 Central avenue, Highland Park.

American industrial research has made thousands of worthwhile improvements to products used in our war effort. For instance, Iso-Butane which is used in aviation gasoline has been reduced in price from $300 per gallon to $2 per gallon through improved production methods. Laboratories of American Gas Association have been devoted entirely to war material problems but their discoveries will contribute to better living for you after the war.
