WHAT'S GOING ON

Our taxes amounted to five times the amount paid to our stockholders last year. No, we are not complaining, but we want you to know what goes into your GAS bill.

Sign in Drug Store—
"Boy wanted. Will pay $5 more than you are worth."

Sign in our window—
"Laborer wanted." Incidentally our laborers earn 80 cents per hour and they are working lots of overtime at $1.20 per hour.

The detective was enjoying a little snack at home, and when conversation lagged he suddenly remarked to his wife "There are five flies in this room. Three are male and two are female."

"Just how do you know?" cautiously asked his wife.

"Well, there are three on that beer bottle and two on the mirror," was his reply.

Next week (April 30) we expect to move our HIGHLAND PARK office to 534 Central Ave. That is the store between Duffy Furniture and Art Olson's.

One of our service men suggests—
Some people think they are thinking when all they are doing is rearranging their prejudices.

NCCS-USO Club Will Observe Anniversary

The National Catholic Community service, which operates a program in the U.S.O. club at 428 Railway avenue in Highwood, will observe its third anniversary on April 21, it was announced today by George Wilson, local N.C.C.S. director. Popularly known as N.C.C.S., it is one of the six member agencies of the U.S.O., and in this capacity operates more than 500 clubs and extensions for service men, service women, and war workers, regardless of race, color or creed.

Parties In All Clubs
Throughout the clubs and extensions, located in every state of the union as well as the nation's capital, individual club celebrations will be held commemorating the anniversary.

One of the largest celebrations will take place in Washington, D.C., when prominent leaders of the press and clergy will be guests at a special anniversary observance. Special radio broadcasts will mark the event throughout the nation.

Services in Exchange For Living Quarters

There is an urgent need by service men and their wives for housing facilities in Highland Park and vicinity. In exchange for living quarters, many wives are willing to stay with children at night. Anyone wishing to provide a room in return for services may call the Highland Park U.S.O., H.P. 4650.

Campbell Guild Plans Dessert Card Party

Campbell Chapter guild will sponsor a dessert-card party Wednesday afternoon, April 26, in the Masonic temple at 1:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Jean McEwen is chairman of the party, assisted by Mrs. Evelyn Briddle, Miss Ruth Siljestrom, Mrs. Dorothy Gillien, Mrs. Lillian Culver and Mrs. Mary Knobloch.

from Good Housekeeping SEAFOOD MACARONI CASSEROLE

- | | | |
|---|-----------------------------|---|
| 1 cup minced celery | 1 tsp. salt | 1 cup raw oysters, or cleaned, cooked, fresh or canned shrimp |
| 1/4 cup boiling water | 1/4 tsp. pepper | |
| 1 cup macaroni, broken into 1-inch pieces | 1 tsp. flour | |
| 3 tbsps. fat or salad oil | 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce | 1/2 cup grated processed American Cheddar Cheese |
| 1 tsp. prepared mustard | 1 cup milk | |
| | 1/4 cup minced parsley | |

Cook celery, covered, in 1/4 cup boiling water, for 10 min. Meanwhile, cook macaroni in 1 qt. (4 cups) boiling water until tender. Drain, and arrange in a 1-qt. casserole. Next stir the fat, mustard, salt, pepper, flour, and Worcestershire into the undrained celery. Mix well. Add milk and heat to boiling, continuing to stir. Then add oysters or shrimp, and parsley. Pour over the macaroni. Top with cheese. Bake in a hot oven of 425° F. for 20 min. If not sufficiently browned when removed from oven, put under broiler until golden-brown. Serves 4. It's nice with buttered broccoli, raw carrot sticks, heated rolls, lemon chiffon pie, and coffee, for dinner.

from McCall's CREAMED PORK IN SWEET POTATO NESTS

- | | | |
|----------------------------------|------------------|--------------------------|
| 4 medium sweet potatoes | 1 cup pork stock | 1/4 tsp. thyme |
| 2 tbsps. melted fat or salad oil | 3 tbsps. flour | 2 cups cooked diced pork |
| Salt, pepper | 1/2 cup milk | |
- Scrub potatoes. Cover with boiling salted water. Cover; boil 20-25 minutes, or until tender. Drain; peel. Press through ricer. Add fat or salad oil, season with salt and pepper. Using rose tip, put through pastry tube, forming 4-inch circle in individual bakeproof dishes. Brown under broiler unit or burner. Keep hot. Mix 1/2 cup stock and flour to smooth paste; add remaining stock, milk and thyme. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened; add pork. Season with salt and pepper. Heat. Serve in potato nests. Serves 4.

Enjoy the Convenience of a Modern Range in Your Post-War Kitchen

Close your eyes and dwell a moment on your post-war dream kitchen. See it in all its splendor...newly decorated...new curtains...new refrigerator...new range.

Yes, a Modern Range streamlined, enduring, easy-to-clean. Modern, efficient surface units for extra speed in cooking...accurate temperature control to take guesswork out of meal making.

What a joy that post-war range will be with all its modern features: Top flood lighting—automatic oven light—automatic oven control—easy-to-use broiler—utility drawer and a host of other conveniences.

While that dream is still fresh in mind, make a note now that the first step to a modern post-war kitchen will be a Modern Range.
