Patrons of Schools Invited to Discuss Findings of Survey

During the 1942-43 school year a survey was made of School Districts 107 and 108 in Highland Park by the Committee on Field Services of the department of education of the University of Chicago. Copies of this survey were distributed to every parent and to many other interested citizens. One meeting was held with the survey staff to discuss the findings of the survey.

During the latter part of the 1942-43 school year and all during this school year, the faculties of both districts have spent much time studying the survey. Its recommendations concerning curriculum and instruction are being incorporated into the life tional Child Health day. The plan was The church school for all ages wil of the schools as rapidly as possible.
