Samplers Exhibit at the Highland Park Library

Have you seen the exhibit of samplers at the Public Library? If not, why not come in and look at them. The exhibit was loaned by Alden, Inc., and includes many interesting pieces. Some of the samplers were made over one hundred years ago and by children as young as seven or eight. The collection represents different periods and styles of the art of sampler making.
 The library has books on samplers and other forms of needlework which might interest you. Some of these are: Samplers and stitches, a handbook of the embroiderer's art by Mrs. Archibald Christie; Mary Thomas' Dictionary of embroidery stitches which contains many illustrations and instructions for all kinds of stitches. The Encyclopedia of needlework by Therese de Dillmont includes, besides embroidering, information on crocheting, knitting, tatting, and lace-making. Cross-stitch by Vera C. Alexander gives instructions, designs and suggestions for modern samplers.
 If you are interested in rugs, we have Rug making by Dorothy Drage which has instructions on how to make woven rugs, rag rugs, needlework and other rugs. Rare hooked rugs by William W. Kent has many illustrations of all kinds of hooked rugs. In the Hooked rug, also by Kent, the author tells of its ancient origin, modern development, methods of making, sources of design, value as a handicraft, and other data.
 The Romance of the patchwork quilt in America by Carrie Hall and Rose Kretsinger tells of the origin and history of quilt making; of quilts of colonial ancestry and of modern design; and of the art of quilting and quilting designs.
 No list of books on needlework would be complete without books on sewing. Some of these are: The New encyclopedia of modern sewing by Sally Dickson and Frances Blondin. Simplified home sewing by Helen Hall. Needles and pins, the American woman's complete sewing book by Ida Riley Duncan.

Alliance Formed by Local Clergymen
 On Thursday morning, Sept. 28, at 10:30 o'clock, the local clergymen, representing protestant churches, convened in the parsonage of Rev. H. K. Platzer, who was the congenial and gracious host. This was the initial meeting of the local pastors. The purpose of this meeting and those in the future shall be for closer cooperation and fellowship, to plan for community events affecting church life in general, and stimulate thought along the lines peculiar to the profession in general. Rev. Christoph Keller acted as the chairman of the meeting. Rev. Lester Laubenstein was then elected as president of the Alliance and Rev. Gustav Pahl, Jr., as secretary.
 Plans for the Union Thanksgiving day service were made and discussed. This year the service will be held in Bethany Evangelical church and Rev. G. A. Pahl, Jr., will deliver the sermon. It is hoped that the people of the community will attend this service and give thanks to Almighty God for His great mercy and goodness.
 "V" Day services will be held in all churches on the day when it is officially announced, or, should the official announcement come late in the evening, it will be observed by such services as shall be fitting and proper; namely, with prayer and confession of sins of commission and omission, asking for God's forgiveness, prayers for a just and durable peace, and dedication of self to God's Will.
 Following the business of this meeting, Rev. Pahl presented a paper on the status of Christian Missions in China today. This was largely in the form of several confidential letters from missionaries now serving in China, or en route to China since June, 1944.
 The presentation of some paper or thesis will be the feature of each meeting. There will be five such meetings each year. The next meeting will be held in the study of the Presbyterian church the latter part of November.
 The following pastors attended this meeting: Rev. Keller, Trinity Episcopal; Rev. Laubenstein, Bethany Evangelical; Rev. Pahl, St. John's Evangelical and Reformed; Rev. Platzer, Redeemer Lutheran; Rev. Sherwin, Presbyterian; and Rev. Wilson of United Evangelical. Rev. Wilson is a newcomer to our community and the Minister's Alliance. He was cordially received into the fellowship.

Constitutional Amendment
 Chicago, Sept. 26 — "I do not believe that a person can be a good citizen in the State of Illinois today who will go into the polling booth in November of this year and vote against the Constitutional Amendment which will permit the sheriffs and treasurers to succeed themselves in office."
 Howard Doyle, United States District Attorney at Springfield, and a prominent downstate democrat, made that statement at Decatur before a joint session of the nonpartisan Sheriffs and Treasurers association, which launched a state-wide drive for the proposed amendment to the state constitution. Doyle continued:
 "For just about the time you fellows get to be good; just about the time when you have really learned your jobs; just about the time that you are rendering the kind of service that the people want you to render, then the law says 'step out' and you can't continue on a program or policy that might be for the very best interests of your county."
 "A sheriff or a county treasurer develops through experience in his office; and when any public official renders real service, the kind of service that the people are entitled to, then no constitution or no law should say to that man, you can only hold office for one term."
 "I would be the last person in Illinois to be against this amendment."
