Little Giants Travel To Waukegan

Playing their seventh game of the season, the Little Giants will travel to Waukegan this Saturday to meet a strong Waukegan eleven.

Winning five out of six games so far, the Little Giants will be out for a win this Saturday against a strong rival. Waukegan has been defeated twice this year, once by New Trier and once by Elgin. The former was their only loss in the Suburban league.

According to head coach, Dave Floyd, the team may travel to Waukegan by cars.

York Lightweights Defeat H. P. Soph-Frosh Team 7-0

In a game marked by great defensive stands by both teams, the lightweight gridders from York defeated the Highland Park pony gridders by a score of 7-0.

During the first two periods of the game, the ponies' line held the powerful York team backfield, and at the half there was no score.

The lone score came in the third quarter on a bad break.

The pony line played great ball. It was sparked by the defensive play of Kohn and Weaver, who repeatedly broke through to stop the York ball carriers in their tracks.

This Saturday the ponies will travel to Waukegan to play a game which promises to be a real dog-fight.

Experienced Swimmers Bolster Season's Prospects

Although the swimming season doesn't begin for some time, your reporter thinks it is time to consider the strength of the teams.

There are a number of promising swimmers on hand this year. Among them are Martin Detmer, Jack Leeming, Steve Pollack, George Hiller, and Henry Date. Coming from

Frosh-Soph Meet Waukegan On Opponents' Home Field

The Highland Park frosh-soph football squad will clash this Saturday with a heavy and fast Waukegan team on Waukegan's home ground.

The ponies have shown much improvement since the beginning of the season. The backfield, with Remo Vai, line-pounding fullback, and Bill Kelly, quarterback, is clicking, and the line is good on offense and defense. The ponies are rience in passing gained in previous games, they will do better this Saturday. The ends, Tom Martin and Virgil Ritacca, are great on defense. These two boys are good and are going to pull down some passes at the game.

The game will prove to be tough, but the boys are confident of a victory. Bill Kelly, the quarterback, when asked what he thought the outcome would be, said, "Waukegan has a tough team, but we'll take 'em."

Varsity Wins Homecoming Game 40-6

Unleashing a powerful ground attack, the Highland Park varsity gridders swamped York, of Elmhurst, 40-6, in the annual homecoming game at the athletic field last Saturday.

Highland Park started the scoring in the first quarter. Having received a bad kickoff on their own forty-five, they proceeded to carry it to the 1-yd. line, where Dean smashed over on third down. Flocchi missed the point from placement.

Later in the first period, Melchiorri, sub for Foster, intercepted a York forward pass on his own 45-yd. line. Although hemmed in by tacklers several times, he broke through and went fifty-five yards to score. Flocchi converted, making the score 13-0.

A long pass, completed deep in Highland Park territory, gave York a first down on the 11-yd. line. Several line plunges gave them another first down on the 1-yd. line, from where Johnston carried it over for the touchdown. An attempt at passing for the extra point was no good.

At half-time the score remained at 13-6, neither team being able to score in the second period.

Eisenbrand started another drive for the third Highland Park touchdown by taking a punt on his own 35-yd. line and carrying it to York's 45. The Little Giants then drove through the line until they had a first down on the 9-yd. line. Wood plowed to the five and on the next play he carried it over for the third touchdown. Not being able to kick because of a poor center, Flocchi picked the ball up and ran over the goal line for the extra point.

Three more scores were made in the fourth period. Fiore went thirty-six yards to score on a quarterback sneak. Flocchi missed the ex-

Little Giant Gridders Win Five Out of Six

In the six games played so far this season, the Highland Park football team has shown a marked improvement as the season has progressed. From the first game with Hinsdale until the Homecoming game with York, our boys have improved so much that they look like altogether different players. Following is a brief account of the games played so far:

Highland Park at Hinsdale—In our first game of the season, the Highland Park gridders defeated the Hinsdale team by a score of 12-7. Johnny Wood scored both touchdowns for us, one on a 60-yd. pass-lateral play from Eisendrath to Morelli to Wood. In this game we were very ragged on our pass defense, and our running plays were not going too well.

Kelly (Chicago) at Highland Park—This was our first home game, and our easiest of the season. The first string played little more than half the game, and the reserves got their first chance of the season. Tom Foster scored two touchdowns, and Francis Fiore and Dave Deap got the other five pointers. The highlight of the game was Bob Flocchi's kicking of four perfect extra points.

Highland Park at New Trier—In our only setback of the season, the Blue and White gridders were beaten 26-0 by a strong New Trier outfit. In this game everything seemed to go wrong for the Highland Park boys, and New Trier seemed to get all the breaks. They scored three times on long passes, and the fourth touchdown was set up in this method.

Highland Park at Maine—Seeking revenge for their licking at the hands of New Trier, the Blue and White roared from behind to defeat Maine by a score of 14-6. Johnny Wood made our first touchdown and accounted for one extra point. Art Eisenbrand returned a punt seventy-five yards for our second touchdown, and he also accounted for one extra point. The varsity line played their best game of the young season, and things looked bright in the Highland Park future.

Highland Park at Glenbard—Playing their best game of the season, the Little Giants had things well in hand from the opening kickoff until the final whistle. Johnny Wood again scored twice, and Texas Foster scored once. Our final touchdown was made on a pass from "Squeaky" Melchiorri to Eugene Peterson. Bob Flocchi made two extra points, and Squeaky Melchiorri added the third on a dropkick. The final score was 27-0.

Details of the homecoming game will be found elsewhere on this page.

Can you swim? Learn how to save lives. Come out to the life saving classes. All girls interested in joining these classes are to talk to Miss Hocker.

Turnout Poor for Freshmen Activities

The turnout for after-school freshman hockey was a great disappointment.

Once the game got started, it was enjoyed by all and four teams have been chosen.

Janq Swinea, who has been chosen manager, says that the teams now playing are the two freshman teams, red vs. blue, and the two sophomore teams, blue vs. green. The winners of each game will then play.

Miss Nelson hopes that the freshmen enthusiasm will become greater in the sports following hockey and speedball.

The H. G. A. scholarships were awarded to Gloria Holland, who is now attending Monmouth college, and Ann Rose Murphy, who is attending Lindenwood.

Lost and Found

Mrs. Sossdorf claims she has enough jewelry to start a store.

How about it kids. Have you forgotten little keepsakes or valuables in the locker room? Mrs. Sossdorf would be glad to give them back if you can describe the lost articles.

"Mary Jane," aren't you lost without your identification bracelet? Other items Mrs. Sossdorf has collected are lapel pins, a flowered chain bracelet, charm bracelet, lock-et and friendship rings.

A COLUMN FOR RECORD COLLECTORS... Swing It! BY LUCKY REYNOLDS

Asch, a commercial record company, has pressed some really hot music this week. Commodore, a runner-up, has done a nice job, too.

"Roll 'Em"
"Mary's Boogie"

For something in "hot jazz," you should by all means get this platter. It's one of the best out, since Asch's album 450.

"Mary's Boogie," a solo, is good, but there have been better pressings by Mary than this.

"Roll 'Em" presents Newton's trumpet, Hall's clarinet, and Dickenson's trombone with Mary's piano work, too. Jack Parker is on the drums and A. Lucas on bass.

"WILD BILL" DAVISON
Commodore 1511

"That's A Plenty"
"Panama"

Commodore has done nice work in the past, and now for the present they are offering this new platter.

"That's A Plenty" is a collection piece for any record hound. It features "Wild Bill" on the trumpet, Fee Wee Russell on the clarinet, and G. Brunis with some nice work on the trombone.

"Panama" also has the above artists, with the addition of Eddie Con-

Hi, Joes! Are you hep? Yes, sir... the horn is heading the name bands this week by climbing right on the old-top. His Columbia platter 36729 helps him a lot, besides his pressing of Columbia 35958.

Benny Goodman and T. Dorsey are fighting over second spot. Benny's Victor 26170 (re-pressing). "As The Angels Sing," has been making lots of "solid senders" jump. T. Dorsey's Starmaker album helps him a lot in hanging on to second rating.

I know, we're all just waiting to find out what Mr. Petrillo has to say at the end of his next meeting with AFM. We hope that he will allow G. Krupa to press some more swell tunes like "Belere At The Savoy" and "Side By Side."

The lining up of the top bands for Chicago (what there is so far) will be as follows: Gene Krupa at the Sherman stand for six weeks starting October 20. He will be followed by Tommy Dorsey December 12 for two weeks.

H. James will play a two-night engagement at the Aragon the 28-29th of this month.

See you later,

OFF THE RECORD

This is strictly meant to be just what it says, "off the record," so don't let it get you down. As I always say, people have more fun than anyone, anyway. So now we'll get down to the gruesome facts.

The girls here in school certainly haven't let up any on their letter writing to the Armed Forces. Of course Coco Barr will be only too glad to write to you every day..... if your name is Harry!!

The girls on the receiving end of this mail situation also merit attention. After a long month of waiting for him to get overseas, we all enjoy watching the smiles that spread over Shirley Therrien's face as she reads her mail during lunch. Naturally it goes without saying that whenever the Marines are mentioned, there's an extra light in M. L. Tjaden's eyes. And to squeeze the Navy in here, too, Carol Pasquasi finally heard from Danny last week.

Miles Zimmerman is cramping my style with his patient pecking with one finger on the typewriter. Isn't there anyone, beside myself, who will offer to give him some free, easy lessons?

Joanie Sheahan eats such a balanced meal during lunch that I'm beginning to feel a guilty conscience.

If "those girls" in fifth period lunch don't stop singing happy birthday to "Molly," I've an opinion someone's going to lose his respected temper!!!

It was heard expressed by Dawn Osburn that she wished they'd get some good records in the juke box. Well, Dawn, you know what can be done about it!!!

Believe me, some of the girls in Miss Nelson's seventh period gym class merit something equal to the purple heart. Let's take it easy, girls...PLEASE!!!

Well, this seems to be the door through which I wandered in, and probably will do nicely for my departure. So 'bye for now kids..... see you later!!!

The seniors are big and strong, And never do anything wrong. They work like beavers all the while, Not one of them is a problem child. (Am I kidding?!)!
