Formerly a technical sergeant in the army infantry, Lt. Chavis transferred to the air corps in June, 1943, receiving his wings and commission at Coral Gables, Fla., in April, 1944. Last July he transferred overseas and is believed to have been lost on his fourth mission. He had recently recovered from wounds and burns received aboard a bomber, for which he was awarded the Purple Heart.

In civil life, Lt. Chavis worked as a reporter on a Chicago and a Waukegan newspaper.

Republicans Speak for Themselves

The Democratic candidate for Congressman from the 10th District claims the endorsement of Republican voters.

We sympathize with the dilemma of this candidate, BUT: We repudiate his professorial thesis that everything is fair

We are confident that half-truths and innuendoes will not hurt the HON. RALPH E. CHURCH, the REPUBLICAN CAN-DIDATE. His record for political integrity is written on the pages of the Congressional Record, and REPUBLICANS approve it.

We, therefore, speak in behalf of ourselves and our fellow RE-PUBLICANS.

Our party loyalty is based on conviction and not on emotion. No candidate in this election has a monopoly on appeals to REPUBLICANS are able to speak for themselves.

No REPUBLICAN has been heard endorsing any other candidate for Congress from the 10th District than the HON. RALPH E. CHURCH.
