Women Voters to Hear Dr. Johnson of Lake Forest

The attention of the Highland Park League of Women Voters will be focused on "Reconversion for Economic Stability" next Wednesday, Nov. 15, when Dr. Ernest A. Johnson, president of Lake Forest college, will be guest speaker. His lecture is scheduled for 1:15 p.m. at the Community Center.

Prior to Dr. Johnson's inauguration as president of Lake Forest college, he was head of the Department of Economics and Business Administration, and has been associated with the college since 1924. After graduating from Colorado college, Dr. Johnson took his A.M. degree at the University of Denver and his Ph.D. degree at Northwestern.

Local league members who heard Dr. Johnson's recent lectures on "Taxation" before the Lake Forest league guarantee his audience appeal, and are eager to hear his human interest treatment of the equally complicated and technical subject of reconversion to peacetime economy.

Dr. Johnson's lecture next Wednesday, inaugurates the study of the problems of government and peace, which are on the agenda for extensive and objective analysis now that election recess is over. Elections may come, and elections may go, but government goes on forever.

"It has been reassuring to see the League pursuing a calm and steady course through the turbulent waters of the election," said Mrs. Carlton B. Cummings, president of the Highland Park league. "Through its non-partisan viewpoint and by sustaining an objective interest in all things pertaining to government, the league has served as a stabilizing influence."

"Now is the time for this great interest in politics engendered by the election, to crystallize into continuous study of complicated governmental structure and administration. The league functions most effectively as a composite organization representing many points of view. This year's work has just begun. Discussion classes and lectures are planned to penetrate and clarify enormous questions profoundly affecting every American. League membership is open to all voters in Highland Park who are also invited to hear Dr. Johnson's lecture on reconversion next Wednesday."

Mr. Sherer, president of the board of directors of the Highland Park hospital from 1933 to 1938, and president of the Highland Park Community Center, will act as moderator at the meeting. Work of Republican Clubs Is Reflected in Election Returns

Marked influence of the aggressive campaign waged in Highland Park by the Highland Park Men's Republican club and the Deerfield Township Women's Republican club was reflected in election returns here, which showed substantial majorities for all Republican candidates.

Incomplete returns showed a total vote of 5,254 for Dewey, as compared with 1856 for Roosevelt, Lyons polled 4,975, with his opponent, Scott Lucas, getting 3,478. Other returns where there was a contest, were: Church, 5,173, and MacDougall, 3,456; Howard Scott, 5,844, Isabel E. Bellows, 3,049; Garfield Leaf, 5,582, Dr. Donald Cook, 3,100.

As usual, the election was a quiet orderly affair in Highland Park. There were no disturbances of any kind reported to police.

County-wide returns showed the usual preponderance of GOP votes, with all Republican candidates carrying the county.

FORT SHERIDAN'S "TOWER" AIDS IN METALS DRIVE

Fort Sheridan's weekly newspaper, the Tower, did its bit for metal salvage this week when more than 25 pounds of zinc and copper engravings were turned over to the post salvage office. Both metals rate high on the list of critically needed war materials.

Crucial Period for War Fund Campaign

The next two weeks are the most crucial of the entire War Fund campaign in Cook, DuPage and Lake counties. Only a little over $500,000 has been raised thus far for the national war fund in these three counties toward the goal of $850,000. $350,000 more must be raised before Nov. 20, to make way for the war bond drive.

The national war fund must look to you and to all other editors and publishers of daily and weekly newspapers in the metropolitan area to make a final series of inspiring appeals to your readers in behalf of the current campaign. Editorials, news stories, pictures and the use of national war fund ads—all of these are more essential in the next two weeks than ever before.

The war fund desperately needs your help to reach the goal. Can we depend upon it? Thanks a million for all that you have done thus far—and for all that we hope you will do from now until Nov. 20.

I. C. BILOW,
Asso. Director Public Relations.

ARMISTICE DAY

That day the guns fell silent at a word,
And instant bells awoke, and every hill
Rang high with song, till heaven itself was stirred;
Only the dead lay still—
The weary dead. But when today a clear,
Soft silence falls, they gather, listening
(Grown wise with immortality) to hear
Our mute remembering.

Y.W.C.A. Commemorates Half Century of Service

Fifty years ago the world organization of the Y.W.C.A. was founded. On Sunday, Nov. 19, at the National Cathedral in Washington, a commemorative service will be held, sponsored by the national board of the Y.W.C.A. of the United States and the Bishop of Washington. The speaker will be the Right Rev. Bishop Angus Dun.

More than 500 American secretaries have gone abroad since the year 1894, to serve the associations of 30 foreign countries.

At the present time seven Latin American countries have Y.W.C.A. centers. Margaret E. Forsythe, of the foreign division, who recently made a visit to South America, reports a need for more work of the Y.W.C.A.

Trained for service in Greece, a Y.W.C.A. unit is at present in Egypt, awaiting the eviction of German invaders.

Since the heat and humidity are so great, women with unusually sound health are needed to serve the Y.W.C.A. on Assam, Burma and Arabian fronts.

Rubenstein at New Trier Monday, November 13

A few tickets are still available for Monday night, Nov. 13, when Artur Rubenstein will appear at 8:30 in the New Trier high school auditorium.

Rated as one of our greatest living pianists, and the most popular pianist in America today, those "ten electric fingers" make a concert by this great artist an inspiring and unforgettable experience.

UP TO NOW

For Lake county Republicans, one of the most succinct and thought-provoking comments made on the election was that of Gov. Bricker, who said, "the people have spoken."

So they have, and now with the campaign over, Republicans as well as Democrats can turn their entire energy towards winning the war and the peace that follows.

However, the electoral college landslide is no reason to assume that the New Deal has a mandate to carry out any and all of its policies without debate, careful consideration and even, should the occasion arise, vigorous opposition.

The electoral college vote does not reflect the votes of 21 millions of Americans who sincerely felt the New Deal had outlived its national political day. An election in which more than 47 per cent of the voters are in the losing column cannot be called a landslide for the victorious candidate.

There should be no blind obstructionism—no opposition to a New Deal measure simply because it is a New Deal proposal; by the same token, there should be no blind, rubber stamp acceptance of any proposal that may issue from the White House simply because the winning candidate espouses it.

President Roosevelt himself "asserted" that he and his party has made mistakes. They will make more.

The part of a vigorous, alert, aggressive minority party is the role the Republican party should and must play during the next four years. Upon how well this role is played, depends on what happens in 1948.

G.I.'s Laud Work of Ft. Sheridan's Volunteer Com.

The Fort Sheridan Volunteers' committee of civilian women living in North Shore suburbs and northern Chicago, has been responsible, since the onset of the war, for fostering and sustaining civilian interest in soldier welfare at Fort Sheridan.

"There will never be another Fort Sheridan" one soldier wrote back. Many other written testimonials from boys who were inducted at the Fort, are tributes to the morale building impact of the Volunteers' work. Many boys hope to be released from the army at the Fort so that they may again use the recreation rooms furnished for them by thoughtful civilian friends.

Knapsack libraries; chapel floral arrangements, bedside bouquets in hospitals and flowers for the Service Center sponsored by garden clubs; circulating libraries and sixty homelike recreation rooms—all have eased transitions and supplied home touches missed by recruits. As the war advances, many new duties confront the Volunteers in addition to continuing the program of helpfulness already so well established.

Col. George H. Cushman, post commander, has suggested that the Volunteers furnish and make homelike the dreary waiting rooms in the Separation center, which are in use now and will continue to be, long after combat ceases. Plans are under way to furnish these rooms, accommodating 125 men, in carefully developed territorial units of interest which should be psychologically helpful to veterans from different localities to whom the old home state is but a dim and blurred memory. The American Red Cross hospital recreation room and dayrooms for incoming WACs are other tasks the Fort Sheridan Volunteers are eager to undertake in the immediate future.

Mrs. Chase M. Smith and Mrs. Arthur U. Claghorn are chairman and co-chairman respectively of the Highland Park Volunteers' committee which includes Mrs. William F. Bromstedt, Mrs. H. Howe, Mrs. H. G. Kemper, Mrs. A. S. Trude Jr., Mrs. Bernard Newman, Mrs. Earl Wallis and Mrs. Theodore Jardine. Rastinia activities are co-ordinated by Mrs. Alan Kidd, chairman, with Mrs. Robert K. Belt, Mrs. H. Grant Clark, Mrs. Frank G. Hough, Mrs. J. T. Snite and Mrs. J. Kenneth Tyson assisting.

Highland Park Library

In the show cases at the Highland Park public library there is an interesting exhibit of postage stamps loaned by the local stamp club. If you are a collector, you will enjoy it; if you have never before acquired the hobby, you may be compelled to follow it now. The next time that you carelessly place a stamp on an envelope, take an extra minute to examine it for its artistic composition.

Fire Marshal.

Following last Tuesday's election, the doors of the Republican headquarters maintained for a month at 31 S. St. Johns, have been closed. Officers of the Deerfield Township Republican Woman's club and of the Highland Park Men's Republican club expressed their appreciation to all those who worked with them in the office. "Without the assistance of many friends and fellow Republicans who donated not only their time and money, but equipment, furniture, labor, and incidentals, the work could not have been so successfully completed," said Mrs. William L. Winters. "Our clubs wish to thank not only the individuals who helped, but also the Republican precinct committeemen who assisted with the work, and the Highland Park Woman's Republican club for their donations volunteer workers."

Much information flowed in and out of headquarters during the four weeks it was open and many thousands of items of literature were handled. To all those who helped with the projects go the many thanks of both organizations. To Mrs. Harold O. McLain, who undertook the management of these projects goes particular praise for the way she efficiently operated the office.

Throughout the campaign, both clubs signed up new members: The Deerfield Township Republican Woman's club now has over 500 members, and the Highland Park Men's Republican club has over 700 members. These two clubs are permanent Republican organizations in Highland Park, whose work will be carried on between elections as well as during campaigns. They will function throughout the years in the interest of good Republican government, and will inform the Township on matters pertaining to the Republican party at all times, it was announced.

It is with regret that the doors of the headquarters at 31 S. St. Johns close, as there have been many friendships developed as a result of the work carried on there, and much interest aroused in Republicanism.

Open House Tonight Planned by Seniors

Tonight's Open House promises to be a big success, if the earlier ones this year are any example, according to Bob Cooksey, chairman of the Open House committee.

As usual, it will be from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m., at the Community Center. It's to be a football dance, and Frank Peter's band will provide the jive music.

The seniors are in charge of the floor show, and judging from what has been heard from Chuck Fay, who's planning the senior class floor show, it is going to live up to everyone's expectation of what should come from a senior class.
