Ft. Sheridan GI Says It By Recording

The affair had been going on for seven years, and might have continued seven more, for this GI (and we believe it) was a bashful boy. But finally he thought of a way. After much rehearsing (we suppose) he made the proposition to a round black disk and mailed it to his sweetheart.

It must have been good, for, by golly, she accepted, and they were married (we suppose) last Saturday in Chicago.

But remember this, Mr. GI. You can never blame this on Leap Year, for the missus has the goods on you!

NOTES FROM YOUR

High School

High School Pupils Give Fall Play Saturday

Love and tragedy is the theme of the war drama, "Letters to Lucerne," which the high school is presenting in the high school auditorium tomorrow night, Nov. 11, at 8:15.

The play takes place in a girls' boarding school at Lucerne, Switzerland, and centers around six of its students. As the girls' nationalities are different, there is a slight international mix-up at the out-break of the war in 1939, when the Germans march into Poland.

When the play was produced with professional actors, the magazine, Theatre Art, said, "It has a human quality in its quiet plea for tolerance."

The characters in the play are a Polish girl, Olga Kirinski (Peggy Heilborn); a German girl, Erna Schmidt (Jennifer Turner); her brother, Hans (Bob Klemp); the schoolmistress, Mrs. Hunter (Debbey Moseley); an American, Bingo Hill (Monie May); a French girl, Felice Renoir (Winnie Wolters); another American, Sally Jackson, (Margie Nath); a British girl, Marion Curwood (Edith Musser); Gustave (Don Block); Gretchen Linder (Barbara Lasier); Margarethe (Joan St. Cyr); Francois (Henry Date); and Kopper (Glenn Harvey).

The behind scene committees and their heads have really put forth a great deal of effort to help make this production a success. They are: make-up, Paul Pagggett; props, Mimi Schur; costumes, Virginia Sheahan; publicity, Maurice DeBona. Mr. Stuart and Mr. Lederer are directing the scenery committee.

Because of its international complications, it is particularly fitting that this production be presented on Armistice day, Nov. 11, of 1944.

Little Giants Overpower Lakeview High

Highland Park high school's varsity football squad won its seventh game of the season last Saturday by trimming Lake View 33 to 0.

Johnny Wood of Highland Park scored two touchdowns in the first minute of the game and another later. Other touchdowns were made by Eugene Melchiorre and Tom Foster. Highland Park received two points for a touchdown, and Bob Focchi kicked the point after touchdown.

By scoring early in the game, the Little Giants were able to substitute many players, thus giving every member of the team a chance to play.

Fresh-Soph Lose

The Fresh-Soph came out on the short end of a 13 to 6 score. The ponies scored after a touchdown was set up by a pass from Ernie Wieder to Tom Martin. Moorhead took the ball over for the points.

$15,000 Goal Set for Sale Of War Stamps in Sessions

A war stamp goal of $15,000, enough to buy a fighter plane, has been set for this year. This means an increase over last year when the sales amounted to $13,687.65 worth of stamps.

The stamps sold through October 16 amount to $1,348.10, which means that the students haven't been buying as many as usual. However, the war stamp committee, which consists of Esther Spier, chairman, Mark Williams, Anita Rehoreh and Dolly Brown, who is substituting for Joe Michaels, hopes that sales will pick up.

Volleyball to Start If Weather Permits

Next on the after-school sports calendar is the opening of the volleyball season. No definite date can be set, however, because of the uncertainty of the weather conditions.

Volleyball is based on session competition. Miss Cairncross's session won the championship last year.

If the weather should continue mild, challenge teams in hockey will be held.

Moody Institute Quartet At U. E. Church Sunday

The Harvesters male quartet, heard regularly on WMBI, on Sunday, from the Moody Bible Institute is scheduled to sing next Sunday, Nov. 12, at 7:45, at the evening service in the First United Evangelical church, Green Bay at Laurel. The pastor, R. S. Wilson, will bring the fifth of his messages on Prayer, "Why Prayers Are Not Answered."

This school of prayer will continue during the following week each evening at 8, except Saturday. These services are evangelistic in character and all who are interested in prayer are welcome.

Special prayer meetings will be held each afternoon during the series at 2:30 in the homes of members and friends. Fifteen minutes before each service, a prayer group will meet in the prayer room of the church to pray for the services.

The subject for Friday evening, Nov. 12, is "Why May Pray?"

Aboard the USS Princeton which was recently lost near the Philippines, Lt. (j.g.) John O'Connor, son of the John O'Connors, 590 Glenview, is nevertheless now safe and is expected home soon. The lieutenant was chief censor and communications officer on the carrier.

A student at St. Mary's college, Winona, Minn., at the time of entering the navy, February, 1941, the lieutenant is 24, married, and the father of 8-months-old John Henry.

After production catches up with deferred needs of its market, competition will have need for large quantities of... intestinal fortitude. Many companies have started sales training even to the extent of correspondence courses for former members who are in the Armed Services.

Down in Texas, Babson reports a unique business which publishes a regular catalogue which offers horned toads, tame chimpanzees, rattlesnakes, pythons, Chinese dragons, diamond backs. Brrrr! We prefer the Gas business.

Speaking of the Gas Business...

Please conserve fuel gas throughout the balance of the winter. Military needs remain high and our Gas manufacturing capacity will be limited until pipe lines and other equipment is available.

We need a typist in Winnetka. Good opportunity to learn bookkeeping.
