The Highland Park 160-yd. free style relay team, consisting of Lautmann, Detmer, Shanley, and Baum, tied the pool record previously held by Waukegan, at 1 min. 23.8 sec.

The frosh-soph swimmers also won their meet from Niles. Thorson, Rubens, Peters, Wright, Wilson, and Rosenheim all doing a grand job in their divisions. The frosh-soph diving was won by Hegarty of Niles; with Haupt, of Highland Park, second; and Friedman of Highland Park, third.

Senn Defeats Highland Park Basketball

Playing against a tall, fast Senn squad, the Highland Park cagers met their second defeat last Friday, Dec. 8, by a score of 33 to 45. The Little Giants were outscored, but not outclassed.

The frosh-soph lost a tough game to a tricky junior varsity team of Senn by a score of 45 to 46, after playing extra time because of a tie.

"Information Please" At Lincoln School

All who attended the Lincoln school P.T.A. program Wednesday night, Dec. 6, are well informed on many matters.

Dr. William Copeland of Lake Forest college gave a pleasantly informal but inspirational talk on "Some Things Not Found in Books." He stressed the point that many intangible qualities such as courtesy, tact, a winning smile, sympathetic understanding, and fairness in one's dealings, make up character, and though they cannot be learned from books they are even more important than the knowledge of all the facts in all the books that were ever written.

Following this splendid address an "Information Please" program combined humor with facts on extra curricula activities. Questions from the audience were answered by a "board of experts" composed of Mrs. Charles Crouch, representing Girl Scouts; Mrs. Philip Biggart, Brownies; Mr. Karl Velde, Boy Scouts; Mr. J. R. Alford, Cub Scouts; Mr. W. J. Anderson, the skating rink chairman; Mr. Stanley McKee, general information; and Dr. Copeland, incidentals.

Everyone who asked a question that "stumped the experts" was rewarded by a gift of a package of cigarettes.
Mr. Lester Ball, as moderator, and Mr. George Eckdahl, as announcer, gave the program a truly professional air.

At the conclusion of the entertainment refreshments were served. Everyone had a most enjoyable evening.
