DEEPS

and

SHALLOWS

The Dark Years

The years have vexing ways showing us How swift their flight while w are unaware.

of an eye, And some with unexpected graying hair.

gulse When at my table sits my grown-up brood: fed

Takes now a giant portion of the food.

I look, amazed, at what he can consume. His inward need a startling thing to see;

crave

toll of me. The mind I used to mold is now

derstand;

Like generals, with power to

And I, chagrined, essay a word or In hopes to capture days in which I led;

My voice is just an echo from the For no one's heard a single thing

I've said. -Buddy Bligh

Hands

Not like to turbulent rivers, these, Hobby Show at But more like peaceful, sleeping Lincoln PTA Meeting seas ...

That seek to lull their pain on sands In distant, dim-lit misty lands, Where soothing death and time and tide,

Alike, are weaving, side by side, Their destiny.

-Mary Olson

Solution

How sadly must the Galilean gaze At His beloved children's mental strife To find a true solution to the maze Of hate and lust and carnage o fair life.

The great and wise convene to proffer cure,

As air and land and sea are torn and rent, Sage councils offer ultimatum

And still we hear the screaming battlement.

profound

And scanning history's legal tones Man fails a keynote page to humbly heed

On which, in centuries gone, the Master wrote Answer so simple that a child may following specific collections: read.

As an embedded sliver festers the flesh, so a perpetual chip-onthe-shoulder festers the soul. -Sparks from Solomon.

Listener's Lament

Now, the claim has been made by the people who know That it's better to listen than chatter: Thus my fame as a listener contin- 2131, postcard collection.

ues to grow "Til what I want to say doesn't matter.

To layman and cleric And groups esoteric, Monologues egoistic Of housewife and mystic, To all that they mention I've given attention.

Enough of ambiguity, And fruitless affability. A pickle-puss I'm goin' t' be.

Home Life and Relationship forms are sundered, The book says a roundel's a roundeau's small brother, Which brings up a point upon

of a Roundel

which I have pondered -Didn't the poor little thing have mother?

its father.

One Mr. Swinbourne went into a pother About this new form into which Didnt the poor little thing have a he had blundered; In fact the book says he was really

Ravinia Gardeners to Hear Talk on Flowers

Otto C. Zschau of Glencoe will the February meeting of the Ra- son of Mr. and Mrs. George Pat- but to the Collectors' Study group vinia Garden club to be held the terson of Saunders Rd., Deerfield, the combination has a special sigon Ave.

the John Gery estate in Glencoe, is A. Pahl, Jr., of Highland Park. well known on the North Shore, Mr. Patterson, who recently re-Some know it with the dimming having lectured frequently around ceived an honorable discharge here on subjects pertaining to from the Army on account of practical gardening under local wounds received in Normandy, will soil and weather conditions.

The lecture will be preceded by Park Press. It comes to me in quite another a short business meeting of the The couple will be at home to club at which plans for the Gar- friends at 404 Waukegan Ave., den club of Illinois' annual flower Highwood. show will be discussed by Mrs. The little boy, I, stooping, gently Arthur T. Fathauer, flower show Miss Minnie Bernardoni chairman. Called "Fashions in Flowers, the show will be held at Marshall Field's March 19-31, inclusive, with two members of the club participating. Mrs. Fathauer will have a book-end flower arrangement in the show and Mrs. L. F. Harza will While I sit nibbling foods I do not do the entrance to the wedding bureau at the store. Some mem-Because the years have taken bers of the club participate in this show each year and last year three ribbons were won by Mrs. M. G. European area, is stationed at Ft. Kettner, Mrs. Stanley Grace and Leavenworth, Kans. Mrs. C. V. Nichols.

Immersed in things I try to un- Flowers for this meeting will be Announce Engagement arranged by Mrs. Gerald Stowe OF Miss Betty Dean He speaks of other continents, of and Mrs. Mason Smith, who are demonstrating arrangements for a piano and for a radio console.

> Following the lecture, tea will be served by the assistant hostesses for the afternoon, Mrs. Hugh Riddle, Mrs. R. W. Douglass, Mrs. C. L. Felske and Mrs. Remy Hudson.

> Preceding the regular business meeting, there will be a short board meeting at 1 o'clock at which Mrs. Remy Hudson, firstvice-president, will preside in the absence of Mrs. V. E. Lawrence, president, who is in Mexico on a short vacation.

The Lincoln School PTA meeting will be held at 1:30 Wednesday, Feb. 7, and will take the form of a hobby show and handicraft exhibit. Everyone is invited to participate and to show her possessions, any personal handwork, handicraft, collections or hobbies.

Mrs. R. H. Brownlee, co-chairman, will again share the results of her own hobby and prove what a homes atmosphere can be attained by a grouping around the fire place.

Mrs. Fred Roscher is baking a pieces of handcraft and will have in England. a table to which anyone may contheir "Korner" of examples of handicraft in the home.

Anyone interested may bring anything to make the exhibit more interesting and successful. Call H. P. 3284, Mrs. Jess Halsted, chairman, or the members who will have charge of the tables with the

Mrs. E. W. Cederborg, 2556, cre--Adelaide Koch. ative writing: (assisted by Miss Laura Paullin and Miss Virginia Newcomb). Mrs. Bryan Perreault, 2587, handmade dolls and doll clothes (assisted by Mrs. Malcolm Sproul 313). Mrs. Herbert A. Carlson, 5290, handmade rugs; Mrs. Gordon Parks, 414, Afghans; Mrs. Bernard Wizelman, 4269, linens and handwork; Miss Winifred Nichol, 1720, handblocking and weaving; Mrs. Theo. Jardine, 30, Indian craft; Mrs. Andrew Orsini, at 3:15 Mrs. Richard Seitz, presi- evening at 7:30 at Lincoln school, Making Things," to 1:30 o'clock.

MAGICIAN TO PREACH AT UNITED EVANG. CHURCH A three-day series of special meetings for children and young people featuring an accomplished magician, is listed for this weekend in the First United Evangelical church of Highland Park. Phil Foxwell of Wheaton will present Saturday, Feb. 3-Tho' I cannot tell where the two the chief attraction at the series, a full schedule of which appeared in last week's issue of The PRESS.

> For Algernon turned out a nice even hunderd.

Roundel by roundel, one after an But here's the great question about which I've wondered mother?

Grace Hayden Marries World War II Veteran be the speaker of the afternoon at former T/Sgt. Earl Patterson, valentines to young and old alike,

"The Science of Cutting Flow- The 20 guests present included talk on "The Golden Age of Val- land Parker, Elizabeth Orton ers" will be the subject of the talk. only the immediate relatives of entines." by Mrs. L. D. Sasscier, Jones Mr. Zschaw, who for the past eight the two families. The ceremony and see her lovely collection of years has been head gardener for was performed by the Rev. Gustav hand made and unusual examples, be associated with the Highland

Married in Kansas City

The marriage of their daughter, Minnie Cheroti, to Maj. I. W. Cundiff of Idaho, on Sunday, Jan. 14, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bernardoni, 308 Highwood Ave., High-

The marriage took place at Kansas City, Kans. Maj. Cundiff, veteran of three years' service in the

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dean, 458 Lincoln, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Betty, to Cpl. Brandt Olson, son Mr. and Mrs. Lester Olson, of the Highland Apartments. Both young people are well known in this city. Cpl. Olson, now stationed in Norfolk, Va., is spending a week's furlough at home.

No definite plans have been made for the future.

THE NATHAN UDELLS VISIT IN TOWN

Lt. and Mrs. Nathan Udell spent a short time in town last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Udell, 102 N. Sheridan. Udell flew from San Marcos, Tex., where he is stationed as instructor in navigation, to join his wife and accompany her to his base where she will visit for a time. Mrs. Udell is the former Betty Hallberg.

Couple Observes 25th

Wedding Anniversary Mr. and Mr. Paul Muzik, 13: Highwood, Ave., Highwood, entertained Monday evening in honor of their silver wedding anniversary.

Among the guests were their centerpiece for a tea-table, show- daughter, Sister Mary Rosaria of ing the use of molds and decora- LaGrange, and their son, Jerry. tion of food. Mrs. Trenor Judd Absent were their sons, S/Sgt. and her daughter, Mrs. Fletcher James, stationed in the Pacific Lewis, will display their many area, and T/Sgt. Robert, stationed

Mr. Muzik, chief of the Hightribute any form of handmade ar- wood volunteer fire department, ticle. Mrs. Philip Biggert and has been employed by the Chica-Mrs. George Freeman will repeat go North Shore line for 27 years.

Figure Skating Popular At PTA Ice Ponds

Mrs. Eva Maiorano of the Playground and Recreation board staff has been very successful with her fancy figure skating classes at the PTA ponds where she is teaching. For the past three weeks the excellent skating weather has been bringing many children to Mrs Maiorano for the free figure skating lessons. It is not too late to take advantage of these lessons and children are urged to go a the following times:

Elm Place-Fridays. Lincoln-Tuesdays. Braeside-Thursdays. Ravinia-Wednesdays.

Older Boys' Basketball

Here is a Playground and Recre- north entrance. ation board activity for high Tea will be served at 2:45 and school boys. Every Wednesday Last of Sermons on dent, will open the meeting. The boys of high school age participate guest speaker is Miss Mildred Law- in a basketball program. William ry Turpin, instructor at Elm Place Behrens, coach, announces that as school. Her topic is "The Fun of soon as enough boys sign up a next Wednesday night.

Y.W.C.A. CALENDAR

Thursday, Feb. 1-10 a.m. Red Cross. 1:30 p.m. Creative Writers. 6:15 p.m. Friendship club dinner and book review. Friday, Feb. 2-8 p.m. GSO meeting.

2:30 p.m. Creative Writers. 9 p.m. Square Dance club. Monday, Feb. 5-3 p.m. Dancing classes.

Tuesday, Feb. 6-

10 a.m. Interfaith group, Wednesday, Feb. 6-8:15 Senior Girls organization. So Say We All pecially in an ancestor, -Pat Shannon Sloan. UNITED STATES WAR BONDS station WMBI, Saturday, Feb. 3. (I.B.) BUY THEM . . . KEEP THEM! at 9 a.m.

Collectors' Group to Hear About Valentines

Grace Hayden, of Highwood, and February means the romance of dating back to the 1880s.

number of interesting items, including Bennington, Parian ware, security which ought to be the painted tin or tole, ink stands, and birthright of children everywhere. cameos, besides the valentines. tion, and has brought her fund of has truly erected a living memorial information and collections before to a great American author, who the Study group twice before, first left us altogether too early. But on painted tin and next on Parian at the same time this work is also ware.

years, and besides fulfilling her race, a gift from her sincere heart, many demands as a lecturer, has contributed articles to The American Home, American Collectors, Antiques, and Hobbies magazines. She has appeared on WGN and is at present the program chairman of the Colonial Coverlet guild.

The public is always welcome at David-Jones. Told in the text the Collectors' Study group at the of the Bible. nominal fee of 35 cents a meeting.

Catholic Women Plan Valentine Party Feb. 13

To enable the North Shore Catholic league to continue its work at service men's centers on the North Shore, Mrs. Jalbert Woll, chairman of war activities, is giving a Valentine card party Tuesday, Feb. 13, at Community House, in Winnetka.

All proceeds will be used for this purpose and members and guests are thus given an opportunity to participate in this work. Hostesses for tea following the card game will be Mrs. James A. Delaney, Glencoe, and Mrs. Louis L. Pryor, Wilmette.

Assisting Mrs. Woll are her cochairman, Mrs. George F. Baier, Mrs. Richard Finn, and Mrs. Gerard M. Ungaro.

Moose Valentine Dance At the Masonic Temple

The Moose Valentine dance will be held at the Masonic Temple, on Saturday evening, Feb. 10. Music will be furnished by El Sheridan and his Rainbow orchestra. Door prizes will be awarded to the gentlemen and lady holding the lucky number. The committee consists of Marshall Meckley, chairman, Howard Stowe, master of ceremonies, Lewis Morfardini, Fred Coleman Thomas Caliva, Charles Winkler, Luigui Sabbini, and Frank Nicolazi. A special invitation is extended to all service men. . Refreshments will be served,

There will be a meeting of the officers and trustees of the lodge, Tuesday evening, Feb. 6.

The next regular meeting will be held on Monday evening, Feb. 12 at 8:00, at Witten hall.

"Pageant of Winter" At Chicago Museum

"The Pageant of Winter" is the title of a guide-lecture to be given to all naval air stations and overon Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 7, at 2 o'clock, in the Chicago Natur- riers. al History museum by Miss Loraine Lloyd. On Friday at the same hour Miss Velma Whipple will lecture, her title being "The Pot of Gold," dealing with precious metals and stones. On Monday, Feb. 5, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons there will be general tours of anthropological, botanical, geological and zoological exhibits conducted by Miss Miriam Wood, Miss Emma Neve, and Mrs. Roberta Cramer. Parties for these tours, which are open to all museum visitors, assemble inside the

"Prophets of Israel"

This Friday evening at North Shore Congregation Israel in Glencoe, the religious services will intournament will be played. Any- clude the last in a series of ser-Please notice the change in time one interested should be on hand mons delivered by Rabbi James A. Wax, this week on "Jeremiah." The series is called "The Proph ets of Israel," in which Rabbi Wax has been telling the story of the lives and teachings of the prophets and developing the growth of re-ligious traditions, which were fostered by the prophets.

Services are held each Friday evening at the Temple, which is located at the corner of Lincoln and Vernon Sts., in Glencoe, beginning at 8:15.

'All visitors in this area are cordially invited to the services, and to the social hour which is held in the Temple lounge immediately after the services.

TO SPEAK ON MOODY BIBLE STATION, WMBI

Rev. R. S. Wilson, pastor of the Thrift is a wonderful virtue, es-United Evangelical church, has been invited to speak over radio

New Children's Books In Public Library

Among the many outstanding children's books recently published one which has aroused interest and is referred to as "the most beautiafternoon of Feb. 9 at the home were united in marriage Friday nificance. At their next meeting ful book of the year," is "Prayer of Mrs. Robert Glasgow, 749 Mari- afternoon, Jan. 26, at the home of on February 6, at 10:30 a.m., at for a Child," written by Rachel his brother, Douglas, of Deerfield. the Woman's club, they will hear a Field, and illustrated by a High-

> Although the prayer was written for her own little girl, Rachel Field has given us a prayer for all Mrs. Sasscier is a collector of a children, a prayer filled with gratitude and love, and the feeling of pear and sing several numbers.

Out of her love and understand-She makes a study of each collec- ing of children, Elizabeth Jones a gift to children wherever they She has been collecting for 15 are, whatever their nationality or wrapped in beauty and reverence, and the rich imaginative quality which is hers.

Not content to be a nationally known artist and book illustrator, she is also an author, and children everywhere love her books.

Maminka's Children Jones. A' happy Bohemian family in Ameri-

Ragman of Paris-Jones. Mich and Tobie, Ragman and Madam Pouf with many others, Twig-Jones. A little girl and her own world.

Small Rain-Jones. Treasured sayings from the Bible, chosen by the artist's mother, Mrs. G. R. Jones. This book was runner-up last year for the Caldecott award, which is given annually for the book considered the year's best illustrated children's book.

Open House at Highland Park USO

The Highland Park USO will hold its annual "open house" Saturday and Sunday afternoons, Feb. 3 and 4, from 2 to 4. The public is invited to visit the building and see the club in operation. Special Parties

Friday, Feb. 2

The 344th Army band will play for a dancing party from 8 to 11. During intermission there will be entertainment by members of the Zeta Phi Eta sorority of Northwestern university. Refreshments at 9:30. Tuesday, Feb. 6

The Exmoor Country chib will sponsor a dancing party from 8 to 11. Music by the 344th Army band. Variety show at 9 p.m. and refreshments at 9:30.

Naval Aviation Cartoons

Witty incisive cartoon drawings by Lt. Comdr. Robert Osborn, USNR, will be exhibited at the Art Institute of Chicago in Gallery 16 from January 19 through March 19, 1945. These highly humorous pencil and water color drawings were originally made for booklets and posters used to train naval aviators and are distributed seas air bases as well as to all car-

Highwood USO Observes Fourth Anniversary

Sunday. Feb. 4, at 8 p.m., the public will be guest of honor at the USO club, operated by the National Catholic Community service , at at 428 Railway Ave. It will be "open house" for civilians as well as service men and women,

The Friends Singers will present a musical program at 8 p.m. Cpl. George Tozzi, a talented bass aperatic star, has consented to ap-A social hour will follow with Vic Lenzi and his orchestra providing a variety dance program. Refreshments will be served. Out of Eternity the new Day is

Into Eternity at night will return. -Thomas Carlyle.

> DAHL'S Auto Reconstruction Co. Dynamic Wheel Balancing Body & Fender Repairing

Auto Painting - Blacksmithing

322 N. First Highland Park 77

from 1¢ to $1 each

An especially nice line of men in service

Valentines adapted to

37 S. St. Johns Avenue Telephone 567

White Lace fragrance Tender as the touch of lace-secret as the scent of tiny white flowers under wet green leaves-lilting as a lovely ladywaltzing in a diaphanous gown. WHITE LACE PERFUME COLOGNE 1.25, 2.00, 3.50 DUSTING POWDER ... 3.00 SATIN SACHETS 4.00 and 8.00

> Highland Park Pharmacy 540 CENTRAL AVENUE