Rabbi's Friday Subject, "Accentuate to Positive"
This Friday evening, at the North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon, Glencoe, Rabbi James A. Wax will take as his subject for a sermon, "Accentuate the Positive." This is inspired by a popular song of the time, a Hit Parade song expressing a philosophy of life, and has a message that is vital to all of us.
Regular weekly services are held at the temple every Friday evening at 8:15, to which servicemen and women and visitors are always cordially welcome.

Long-Time Resident Is Laid to Rest

Last rites were conducted at the Kelly chapel, on Wednesday, with interment at Graceland cemetery. Surviving are a son, Wm. Ruehl, a daughter, Mrs. Fred Bahn, both of this city, and a daughter, Mrs. P. T. Starck of Chicago. Four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren also survive.

But the most apt description—fervently agreed to by marines there—is "eight square miles of hell."

Sea-Going Mules
The American mule is an important transportation unit for army, especially where the terrain is muddy and mountainous. Thousands of them are crossing the oceans, traveling in style, in shops that have been especially and expensively converted to mule carriers at an average cost of $317.133 each.
The ships are designed to carry from 220 to 699 mules—with sick bays for 16 to 32 mules. A feature of the ship is that the stalls are built to accommodate mules of various sizes, from different areas. A Missouri mule, for example, requires more space than the slightly smaller Texas mule.
Stalls are built crosswise, as it has been discovered that this type of structure largely eliminates seasickness on the part of the mules, and they arrive fit for immediate service. All mules aboard ship—Ships.

Nature Walks In Thatcher Woods
The Illinois Audubon society announces the fourth annual series of nature walks in Thatcher Woods (River Forest). The walks, led by Mrs. Theron Wasson and three assistants, will be held every Saturday morning during April and May from 9:30 to 11:30. Anyone interested in nature study is invited to join the group, which assemblies at the Trailside museum at Chicago Ave. and Thatcher (River Forest), at 9:30 a.m. for a half-hour talk before each field trip. Those who have binoculars or field glasses will find them of great assistance.
Scout groups and others planning to attend as a body are requested to write or telephone Mrs. Wasson (600 Thatcher Ave., River Forest, Ill., Forest 2984) so that additional leaders may be provided for the day's field work.

WAHINE MARINES
"Wahine Marines" is what natives and male Leathernecks in Hawaii call members of the Women's Reserve—and the latter, usually resentful of nicknames, enjoy the appellation. "Wahine" is pronounced "wah-hee-ny," and is Hawaiian for "woman."

National Honor Society Initiation on April 27
Sponsoring their tenth National Honor society initiation on Friday, Apr. 27, the Girls' club and Boys' club will present the pins to approximately 35 members of the senior class.
Only students in the upper third of the class scholastically are considered, and the seniors were asked to vote on the members of the class who have been outstanding in terms of leadership and service to the school. Character is determined by the ratings made each year by the students' session adviser and two other teachers of his own choice.
The final decision as to Honor Society membership is made by a faculty committee made up of the principal, the deans, the vocational advisers, and the Girls' and Boys' club advisers. The final selections are based, as explained, on leadership, scholarship, service, and character ratings expressed statistically in points so that personal feelings are eliminated.
The students in the upper third of the class are: Mary Lou Adler, Mary Appel, Marilyn Arentz, Gloria Barrett, Harry Baum, Rose Mary Berube, Philip Birkemeier, Ernest Bischoff, Donn Block, Herbert Bowker, Richard Bruce, Erminia Bruno, Marjorie Mann, Donald Martin, Ann McCaffrey, Frederick Meyer, Fritz Meyer, Joseph Michaels, Remo Morelli, Milton Newton, Joan Oliver, Harriet Olson, Patricia Olson, Carmella Pace, Carol Carter, Emma Christensen, Mansfield Cleary, Bradford Crisg, Roy Crossman, David Dean, Janet De Bona, David Dubin, Janet Edmonds, Edith Evans, Peggy Evans, Thomas Foster, Irene Gerken, Thomas Gilroy, Richard Goodman, Fred Grabo, James Greenebaum, William Gutman, Robert Harvey, Donn Heinrichs, Lowell Kmie, Joseph Landauer, Carol Lau, Robert Lawrence, James Leech, John Lind, Barbara Lynn, Richard Patac, Joan Peters, Edward Peterson, Eugene Peterson, Daniel Plummer, Anita Rehorst, Bruce Robinson, Carmella Santeljo, Kate Schamberg, Judith Schultz, Robert Schur, Josephine Serafini, Virginia Sheehan, Russell Smith, Gertrude Sossdorf, Esther Spier, Mary Lou Tjaden, Marilyn Tranter, Jennifer Turner, Victoria Turner, Lorraine Tuttle, Janis Uhlmann, Joyce Valique, Walter Wagner, Susan Weddell, Edward Weil, Marilyn Welch and John Wood.

War Stamp Assembly Friday, April 13
With a war stamp and bond assembly planned for Friday, April 13, the boys of Mr. Finch's senior session hope to make possible the realization of the $15,000 goal set for this year.
A "surprise" auction will be the main theme of the production. Various articles will be offered for the purchase of stamps and bonds. These articles are being carefully selected so as to have an appeal for the entire student body.
In cooperation with the Victory corps, the following chairmen have been appointed: Lowell Kmie, production; Phil Birkemire, technical; Dave Duban, finance; Miles Zimmerman, publicity.
JAP PROPAGANDA
IWO JIMA (Delayed)—Third Marine division scouts found Japanese propaganda pamphlets with drawings depicting President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill behind bars. Another sketch showed American women digging ditches and doing other manual labor, reports a marine corps correspondent.
MARINE RUEFUL AT LOSS OF 'BATTLE'
SOMEWHERE IN THE PACIFIC (Delayed)—A marine private first class was dispatched to a troop transport with a movie film called "The Battle for the Marianas."
As the marine stepped briskly up the gangplank, reports Tech, Sgt. E. L. Volk, correspondent, he slipped and fell into the sea. Marines and sailors quickly fished him out, but the films sank.
Water-soaked and empty-handed, the marine returned to his office and said glumly to his puzzled buddies:
"I just lost 'The Battle for the Marianas.'"

A COLUMN FOR RECORD COLLECTORS
Swing It!
BY LUCKY REYNOLDS

Up-to-the moment news, is the RCA Victor campaign to reissue in April six record albums devoted to "hot jazz," presenting the discs on the Victor Green "educational label." Each album features outstanding performances from Louis Armstrong and orchestra, Benny Goodman's trio and quartet, Lionel Hampton and his orchestra, Jelly Roll Morton's Red Hot Peppers, McKinney's Cotton Pickers, and the quintet of the Hot Club of France.
Columbia started a similar campaign of reissue "hot jazz" albums before the war, and succeeded in presenting many outstanding sets. There is no reason why Victor will not do just as well, in fact better. Anyway, I wish Victor the very best of luck in their new undertaking.
Space does not allow me to review all the above records, but there's no reason why you should not be on the lookout for these at your record shop. The rest of the column is full of new and outstanding waxings that I know will meet with your approval.
FRANK SINATRA—Axel Stordahl's orchestra.
"Ol' Man River" and "Stormy Weather." Columbia 55037.
A new and different Sinatra in a stunning interpretation of two classics.
HARRY JAMES and orchestra—"All My Life" and "Ya-Ta-Ta, Ya-Ta-Ta." Columbia 36788.
Harry and his trumpet weave intricate melodic patterns on a coupling of two superior tunes.
WOODY HERMAN and orchestra "Caledonia" and "Happiness Is a Thing Called Joe." Columbia 36789.
This disc is a combination of the sweet and hot with Woody and the boys providing plenty of extra listening thrills. I truly say that this is a record that will make a hit with all of you.
It did with "Caledonia."
TOMMY DORSEY and orchestra—"On the Sunny Side of the Street" and "Any Old Time." Victor.
The band is top "stuff" on both faces of the disc, but you'll probably like the "Street" side better.
ARTIE SHAW'S Gramercy Five—"Grabtown Grapple" and "The Sad Sack." Victor.
The Grapple is described on the label as a "stomp" tune that really makes you jump. "The Sad Sack" employs the same harmonies and the same excellent instrumental work on a blues theme with a nice melody.
Woody Herman is playing a successful engagement at the College Inn and will be there until April 12.
Earl White and Count Basie are playing on the south side of Chicago, Basie as a one-nighter at the Savoy April 8. Hines holds over at the El Grotto until May.

WHAT'S Cooking

- Yesterday radio station W A I T saluted Soldier "Jim" Jerome who is one of your North Shore Gas Men overseas. We are proud of the fine tribute which this broadcast gave to our former and future fellow worker.
- Army Glider Pilots made non-stop pickups of "rush" supplies. The demonstration is reported by Business Week as a factor in reducing war plant absenteeism.
- Where was that inch-thick steak your grocer didn't have a couple of months ago? And the pound of butter you could not find? Both may have been served today in an Army hospital in France.
- Every 24 hours one hospital consumes 7,000 pounds of meat; 380 pounds of evaporated milk; 540 pounds of sugar; 900 pounds of bread, and two tons of vegetables. From four giant mess halls this typical hospital serves patients and hospital attendants. Hospital trains which make this hospital their terminus must be supplied with its ration stores. Many of these stores are made available by this nation's rationed conservation of food.
- Probably your Victory Garden will help to solve your food problem... but don't plant a larger garden than your wife can care for.
