The children will conduct their usual opening and closing exercises, and each department will present songs and work learned. The school is divided into three departments—beginners, primary and juniors. The primary group has studied Bible boats, and the juniors have made imaginary trips through Palestine. The beginners have learned about Bible children. Practically every church in the community has been represented in the attendance. Awards will be given those having perfect attendance. The parents are urged to bring the children promptly at 7:30 p.m. so the program can be completed before it is too late, due to the small children participating.

The prayer that begins with trustfulness, and passes on into waiting, will always end in thankfulness, triumph, and praise.—A. Maclaren.

Okinawa Is Beautiful But Lacks Sanitation

Okinawa, scene of the war's bitterest fighting, is a beautiful island. The soil is good and the climate favorable for year-round crops. For the most part, the land is hilly, and the farms, small and almost identical in appearance, are located on hillside terraces.

In sections the soil resembles the red clay of Georgia, in some it is sandy, like Wisconsin, and in other sections it is rich and black. The farmers are industrious, and all no weeds in their neat rows of cabbages, lettuce, sweet and Irish potatoes, beans, peas, and patches of sugar cane.

Stock
Almost every farmer keeps at least one horse for farm work and for turning the heavy grinders for mashing sugar cane. Pigs and chickens and rabbits are raised for meat, and goats for fresh milk.

Sanitation
Sanitation on farms is of the worst. Flies and mosquitos which breed on waste, which is dumped at random, find easy access to the houses, with their uncovered foods.

Carry Babies on Backs

Babies are carried on the backs of their mothers, and nearly everyone goes barefoot. People sleep on mats in the 2-room wooden houses, and eat with chopsticks. Okinawa, however, is the most civilized Pacific island on which the marines have landed during the war. And night sounds, they say, would remind them of the States if they could ignore the mosquitos, the flies, and the terrible stench.

IT'S TIME FOR YOUR PRESSURE COOKER TO HAVE A

"Coming Out" Party...

CLEAN IT UP NOW . . . AND BE READY FOR C-DAY (Canning Day)

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

- 1 Be sure your pressure gauge is accurate. Have it tested. Some manufacturers and colleges will check gauges if you send them in.
- 2 To eliminate any storage or cooking odors or taste, put water in pressure cooker to 1-inch level. Toss in a big handful of potato peelings. Heat for 15 minutes at 15 pounds pressure. Cool. Wash kettle, pans, and racks in hot, soapy water. Rinse and dry.
- 3 If your canner is aluminum, avoid using strong soaps or harsh scouring powders. Remove stains from aluminum canners with a paste of whiting and vinegar. If you have a porcelain enameled steel canner, use water instead of vinegar.
- 4 Wash kettle in hot, soapy water but don't immerse cover in water—the pressure gauge won't like it. Just wipe cover with a soapy cloth and then a clean, damp one. Dry thoroughly. If necessary, clean edges of cover and kettle with whiting and vinegar. Dried food or scale formed by hard water on either edge may prevent a tight seal—allow steam to leak out.
- 5 Clean pet cock openings and safety valve frequently by drawing a string or narrow strip of cloth through them. Keep opening of the steam gauge clean with a toothpick.

Remember, your pressure cooker is a weapon of war. Care for it—share it!
