

Miss Elizabeth Bredin Chairman of New Group Of Women Voters

Forty-six women interested in hearing Mrs. Walter T. Fisher of Winnetka, president of the Illinois League of Women Voters, speak and also ready to organize an evening section of the Highland Park League congregated at the local Y.W.C.A. Wednesday, Oct. 31, at 8 o'clock.

In addition to Mrs. Fisher's talk on "The Year Ahead in the League," in which the speaker outlined the main points for the league's future emphasis such as UNRRA, the reorganization of Congress, foreign relations, etc., the history of the League of Women Voters was humorously presented in a skit entitled "The League and the World, or Vice Versa," with Mrs. Walter Rubens and Mrs. David Geppert the star performers.

Mrs. Richard Loewenthal, president of the Highland Park league, conducted the business meeting, pledging her organization's willingness to give the new group whatever it wanted. Represented in the group were teachers, nurses, and various other business and professional women who have been very much interested in the league, but who have found it impossible to attend the day-time meetings. At this time, these new members decided that they preferred to be supplementary to the local league, rather than separate from it. An election was conducted in which Miss Elizabeth Bredin was chosen chairman, with Miss Joan Johnson, co-chairman, and Miss Jean Rosenthal, secretary. A regular meeting time was set for the fourth Wednesday evening of each month at 8 o'clock at the Y.W.C.A. Thus the next date for a meeting will be Nov. 28, at which time anyone interested in the program or in joining this evening group of the Highland Park league may attend.

At the conclusion of the business meeting, Mrs. Carol Baker Summers, the league's social committee chairman, served cider and doughnuts to the group.

Carl Anderson, Deerfield, Victim of Fatal Heart Attack

Carl T. Anderson, for 20 years owner of Anderson Super Service station in Highland Park, collapsed on Friday of last week while driving from Chicago to his residence, 755 Chestnut, Deerfield. He was 47 years of age.

Although in ill health, and cautioned by the doctor against over-exertion, he had, on account of a heavy business schedule, been obliged to drive to Chicago. Evidently feeling ill on the way home, he had pulled to the curb before succumbing to the attack.

Born in Highland Park, Mr. Anderson moved to Deerfield in 1905, where his father, the late Frank Anderson, owned the Anderson hotel. Surviving are his widow, now teaching at Lake Forest Day school; his mother; a daughter, Dorothy Jean, and son Ward; and two sisters, Mrs. Henry Siljstrom of Highland Park and Mrs. Blaine of Moneiac, Ill.

U. S. VICTORY BONDS BUY THEM . . . KEEP THEM!

Why Are America's Overseas Veterans Joining the V.F.W.?

Because the V.F.W. can help the dependents of their comrades who will never come home.

Because they want their rights and privileges as individual veterans protected.

Because they want to make certain their dependents will enjoy the protection to which they are entitled.

Because they want the security of knowing the V.F.W. stands ready to help a comrade in distress.

Because they may need the aid of trained V.F.W. rehabilitation experts on matters pertaining to hospitalization, pensions, compensation, educational aid, federal loans, unemployment compensation, vocational training or employment.

Because they want to make certain the doors of the V.F.W. National Home will always be open to their widows and children if circumstances require.

Because the V.F.W. is a non-political, non-sectarian outfit concerned primarily with veteran welfare.

Because the V.F.W. lapel emblem will always identify them as overseas veterans.

Because there is no real substitute for the comradeship which exists between men who have shared the same dangers and experiences.

With Peace Civilian Can Anticipate New Canned Foods Soon

Now that the postwar era has become a reality with the downfall of Japan, citizens of Lake county can look forward to dramatic developments in canned foods, many of which were first packaged for the armed forces, according to W. C. Stolk, vice-president of the American Can Co.

Mr. Stolk said that the approximately 8,809,000 cans of food opened annually by residents of the county undoubtedly will be largely increased with the arrival of the new postwar items. It will be no trick at all, he said, for a housekeeper to put together a three or four course meal by making use of the canned foods she should shortly find on grocery shelves.

Among the new foods he listed are such items as canned hamburgers, canned bacon, seafood cocktails and salads in cans, as well as a long list of meats new to a can, among them chicken stew with dumplings, beef and gravy, pork with apple sauce, ham with raisin sauce and boned turkey.

Auction Sale On Many Surplus Items At Fort Sheridan

During the first ten months of 1945, approximately $33,000 worth of scrap materials were salvaged at Fort Sheridan, Ill., it was announced today by Brig. Gen. John T. Pierce, commanding general.

These materials consisted of corrugated paper, mixed paper, used egg cases, metals, tin cans and items listed as surplus, i.e., no longer of use to the army.

Due to rapid demobilization of our armed forces at the present time, many surplus items which are of no further use to the army play a major part in this division. These items are groups of like materials which have a valuation of less than $300. Lt. Stapel and his staff prepare lists of these items and mail them to anyone requesting this information. Persons interested in a listing may inspect the material in the sales tent and then place a bid, the item going to the highest bidder. Items of over $300 valuation are sold through the U. S. Dept. of Commerce.

Most of the scrap materials are sold through contract to private dealers in this area.

Gob Humor

During the last war an American doughboy on leave picked up a cute little mademoiselle and took her to a Parisian cafe for dinner. During the first course he consulted his French dictionary and with the Brooklyn accent breathed, "Je t'adore!" The little lady fired back, "Shut the door yourself—you lazee Yankee!" — Naval Supply Messenger (Pearl Harbor).

U. S. VICTORY BONDS BUY THEM . . . KEEP THEM!

PEACE . . . and quiet!

A lot of men who went off to fight for their country will never see their country again! They are the ones who were blinded.

Some who went away, whistling and gay . . . will come back with shattered nerves that only expert care, and time, can mend.

And there'll be others without legs. Without arms. With broken bodies.

We can never repay these men for the sacrifices they made. But we can give them the best of medical attention. We can provide them with the best of care and pensions. And a certain measure of peace . . . and quiet.

They'll get the best that can be given. And even if you can't loan the money needed for their care, someone else, perhaps, will buy the Victory Bonds you might have bought.

But you'll feel better if you buy Victory Bonds yourself. And you'll demonstrate to yourself and others that your patriotism didn't end the day the war ended.
