A science lecturer was explaining that the sun was gradually cooling, that within ten billion years the earth would probably be a dark, cold and dead planet

A wide-eyed man in the audience interrupted: "Did you say ten million or ten billion years, sir?" "I said 'ten billion'," answered

"Thank God!" muttered man, with relief showing on his face, "I thought at first you said "ten million"."

WHAT MAKES GOOD PUBLIC RELATIONS? .

Is it the telephone operator's cheery "Good Morning?"

Is it the Salesman's genial interest in the customer's favorite hobby?

Is it the foreman's rendition of First Aid to an injured motorist?

Is it the prompt visit of the emergency repair crew?

Is it the truck driver's cheerful relinquishment of the right-of-way to a hurrying motorist?

Is it the meter-reader's kindassistance to a blind mancrossing the street? Is it the employee's interest and assistance in community betterment activities? Is it the service man's courteous answers to what seem to him foolish questions? Is it the book-keeper's accurate billing? Is it the credit man's tactful discussion of credit conditions? Is it the executive's courteous and considerate reception of the customer's grievance?

Is it the service man's carefulness in trying to keep from tracking dirt into the kitchen?

It is all of these and many more that create good public relations.

Sure, we've won the War

BUT THE COST GOES ON!

IT WILL COST MILLIONS TO BRING OUR ARMIES BACK and it's just as expensive as it was taking them over. Meanwhile, thousands of our men who stay behind in occupied territory must receive their pay, be clothed, housed and fed at Uncle Sam's expense.

NCLE SAM MUST STILL PAY FOR THESE. Although America had already started to cut down on production of various kinds of war materials, the swift ending of the war left many planes, tanks, battleships, guns, made at the last minute, still to be paid for.

the rehabilitation and care of over 300,000 wounded are among America's gravest peacetime problems. This obligation is one which every American can now share in-by investing in the Great Victory Loan.

 America Must Take Care of Her Own In the Great Victory Loan!
