APPROACHING MARRIAGE

March 23 has been chosen as the date for the marriage of Miss Mary Catherine Hart and Melvin F. Gehring. Miss Hart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin C. Hart of 156 Sheahan court and Mr. Gehring is the son of John F. Gehring of Tonawanda, N. Y.

Mr. Gehring, who recently returned from 3 1/2 years in the Mediterranean and European theaters of warfare, participated in seven major campaigns. A corporal in the army, he was in the service for four and a half years.

Miss Hart's brother, Robert, received his discharge from the service last Sunday. A sergeant, he was in the service for three years. As a member of the tenth mountain division, he was on duty in Italy for eight months.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES

In celebration of his eleventh birthday, Donald Nordmark was host to several of his school friends at a luncheon and theater party Saturday. Donald is the son of the August Nordmarks of 1541 S. St. Johns.

Bobbie Rehn, son of the T. L. Rehms of 217 Belle avenue, entertained five of his young friends at dinner last Thursday evening. The occasion was his eighth birthday. He is in the second grade at Elm Place school.

In honor of her thirteenth birthday, Anne Boyd, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Boyd of 127 Wade, will be hostess at a party tomorrow at her home from 8 to 10 in the evening. The Ravinia school eighth grade girls will be her guests.

LORETTA BRANDT WEDS

Before an altar banked with palms and candelabra, Miss Loretta Mary Brandt became the bride of Peter Robert Zaker at the Redeemer church on Saturday, Feb. 9 at 7 o'clock in the evening. Rev. W. F. Suhr, former pastor of the church, and now of Chicago, read the service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white dress with lace bodice and sleeves, and full tulle skirt and train. Her white tulle fingertip veil which had a tiara of lace matching the bodice and sleeves of her dress, was trimmed with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias and white roses showered with hyacinth blossoms.

Miss Ruth Brandt, sister of the bride, who was maid of honor, wore a dress of pale blue chiffon, and carried pink roses and carnations.

Valerie Jung of Milwaukee, 3-year-old cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl. She wore a dress of pink taffeta and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of roses, carnations and snapdragons.

Bruce Stevens of North Chicago served as best man. The bride's mother chose a coral colored dress with brown accessories, complemented by a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore forest green, and her corsage was of yellow roses.

The bride is a graduate of the Highland Park high school and of Lake college of commerce, Waukegan. Mr. Zaker, who was in the service for 3 years, served with the 113th anti-aircraft division of the army. He spent 2 1/2 years in north Africa and the European theater of warfare. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Zaker of North Chicago.

Following the ceremony, a reception of 138 guests was held at Masonic temple by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brandt of 631 Deerfield avenue. Out of town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Jung, and their daughter, Esther, and an aunt, Mrs. Minnie Guggesberg, all of Campbellsport, Wis., Mrs. Helen Jung, an aunt, and a cousin, Miss Adeline Jung of West Bend, Wis., a great uncle, Albert Ohrmund, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Jung, Mr. and Mrs. Ferny Klein, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrmann, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Metzger, all of Milwaukee, Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Walters of Oconomowoc, Wis., Mrs. Edwin Dobberphul and Lester Steffan of Teresa, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Brandt of Kalamazoo, Mich.

After a three weeks' honeymoon at St. Petersburg, Fla., the young couple will reside in North Chicago.

Prior to her wedding, Miss Brandt was honored at a miscellaneous shower by the sewing club of which she is a member. Hostesses were the Misses Mary Zanina and Elma Lake.

CLUB MEETING

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. E. L. Andrews Jr., of 234 Laurel, was hostess to her bridge group.

Announce Engagement of Miss Regina Klemp To AAF Veteran

The engagement of Miss Regina Klemp to Mr. Frank Willems of Kenosha has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Klemp, 310 Ridge road.

Mr. Willems, who was recently released from service after 3 1/2 years as aerial gunner, was shot down in the European theater on July 7, 1944, on his 34th mission, and was liberated May 2, 1945 by a British task force. He returned to the States last October.

The date of the wedding is indefinite, pending the return of two of Miss Klemp's brothers from overseas. Lt. Earl is stationed in Japan and Sgt. Mat at Fairbanks, Alaska. Lt. John, former AAF pilot, now released from service, is attending University of Wisconsin.

Shirley O'Brien Drake Weds Jerome Bowes III Tuesday in Winnetka

Tuesday afternoon, at the Winnetka Congregational church, Shirley O'Brien Drake of Winnetka and Jerome Peter Bowes III of Highland Park were united in marriage by Rev. Leland Danforth.

Only members of the two families were present. Mrs. John Hopkins attended her cousin, and Jerome Bowes Jr. acted as his son's best man. An informal reception for young friends of the bride followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin P. O'Brien of Winnetka.

The former Shirley Drake was widowed when the late Gene Frederick Drake, distinguished young flier, was lost at sea shortly after their marriage in December, 1942. She is the mother of Gene Jr., aged 2.

Mr. Bowes, formerly a lieutenant in the army air forces, spent two years in Africa, Italy, and England, completing 68 missions. He is now engaged in business in Chicago.

High School Tankers To Meet Oak Park Saturday, Feb. 16

The Suburban league meet on Saturday — Highland Park vs. Oak Park — will mark the close of the season for the high school tankers.

Only once in nine meets has Highland Park lost—and that was by one point only, to Kenosha high school.

Jane Marie Heartt A February Bride

Saturday evening, February 9, at the Highland Park Methodist church, Jane Marie Heartt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Heartt, 938 N. St. Johns, was united in marriage to Mr. Howard Wadley, son of Mrs. W. D. Fehrend of Chicago. The marriage lines were read by Rev. William Overend.

Dressed in bridal white, with long train and finger-tip veil, the bride carried white gardenias, and was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Paul A. Hobschied. Her maid of honor, Miss Helen Culver, gowned in aqua, and her bridesmaid, Miss Mary Doherty, in fuchsia, carried pink carnations.

The groom was attended by Ens. John Francis Rolland Jr., of Chicago, and the bride's brother, Sgt. David Heartt, of Northwestern Military academy, served as usher.

The bride's mother, in gray and blue, and Mrs. Fehrend, in brown, wore identical corsages of pink carnations.

Both juniors at Lake Forest college, the newlyweds plan to continue their studies there, making their home in Highland Park after returning from a bridal trip in Wisconsin. Mr. Wadley, a former student at Purdue, served in the army for five years — half of that time overseas — with the rank of lieutenant.

Dr. and Mrs. Crossman Vacation in the South
Dr. and Mrs. Roy A. Crossman, 712 Yale, left last week for a six weeks' vacation in the south. Traveling by auto, they are visiting points in Florida, and expect to call upon their son, Roy Jr., who is stationed at a camp in Virginia.
