Rabbi Shulman to Evaluate Work of Jewish Organization

On Friday evening, at the North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe, Rabbi Charles E. Shulman will speak on "Organization and Disorganization in Jewish Life." This sermon will seek to evaluate, briefly, the work of some Jewish organizations. It shall, within the sermon limits, point out the relative effectiveness of such groups as the Sisterhood, the Men's club, the B'nai B'rith, the American Jewish Congress, the American Jewish committee, the ORT, the Zionist groups, the Council of Jewish Women, and others.

Regular services are held each Friday and visitors are always cordially welcome.

North Shore Sisterhood To Present Dr. Gilkey At Opening Meeting

The Sisterhood of North Shore Congregation Israel will present Dr. Charles W. Gilkey, professor of preaching at the University of Chicago divinity school since 1926, at its open meeting Monday, Feb. 18, at 1:30, at the temple in Glencoe.

Dr. Gilkey will speak on "Religion and the Making of Peace," the third of a series of talks by eminent speakers, on the Sisterhood's program of discussions of postwar problems.

Please bring tinned food for UNRRA.

All members and guests will be very welcome.

Sisterhood of North Shore Congregation Israel.

Sunset Terrace Assoc. To Enjoy Barn Dance At Center, Friday

Reuben Olsen's band, complete with caller, will furnish music for an old-fashioned barn dance tomorrow (Friday) night at 8:00, at the Community Center, for members of the Sunset Terrace association and their guests.

Costumes suitable to the occasion will be worn, and prizes will be awarded for the two judged the most original and striking.

The refreshment committee, headed by Mrs. Dorman Anderson, includes Mesdames Richard Hafner, Edward Stuppel, Robert Thebaud, Francis Nosek and Harry Pierce.

Those Travelin' Riddles

Riddle Brothers Still Serving Their Country

"Bill" Riddle, 22, and storekeeper 2/c in the navy, is a veteran of 5 years' service, in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters of war.

His last letter stated that he is now stationed at Okinawa for a five-week period, with 2000 tons of army provisions still to unload—and 60 miles from a postoffice.

He writes of Okinawa, with its west coast on the China Sea, as a very hilly, rocky country. The city of Naha, with a former population of 180,000, is now mostly a mass of stone from shelling and bombing. The natives, a mixture of Chinese, Jap and Russian, who are called Gooks, live in one-room shacks with no floors. A family of five or more eat and sleep in this one room.

Labor is done—or has been done—by the women and girls... but, writes Bill, the Americans are changing that order. The men have to work, now. Bill is in charge of 12 men, or rather boys. Only boys are left, and the old men. The young men have been killed in the war.

The people are smaller than Americans. The men and boys wear army shoes, but they are much too large. The women and girls go barefoot.

Buddy (Earl) Riddle, now 20, and nearly four years in the navy, still aboard the Missouri as seaman 1/c, is now stationed near Cuba.

Mrs. Joseph Riddle, 330 Vine, mother of the boys, has been surprised to receive Christmas greetings from former Highland Parkers, out of the state, who write: "I read all about your trip to New York in The Highland Park Press."

One G. I. from Ft. Sheridan told her that he saw excerpts of the story in Stars and Stripes.

It was while on this trip that Mrs. Riddle met and became acquainted with a lady on the train. This woman told of her nephew in the European theater, a professional golfer, who lost a match in Paris to a fellow from Illinois.

Mrs. Riddle twinkled. "Was the name, by any chance, Tom Saielli?"

"Why, yes—I believe it was. He won a wrist-watch. How did you know his name?"

Ha, ha! Mrs. Riddle knew him all right. He is the husband of her daughter, Margie. The Saiellis, with their three children, now live at 306 Ashland, Highwood, Mr. Saielli having been honorably discharged some weeks ago.

Public Health Group To Meet With Mrs. Haller Monday, 19th

In response to an invitation issued by the League of Women Voters to all those interested in public health, to attend a meeting at the home of Mrs. Louis P. Haller, 290 Marshman, on Feb. 11, 19 people came together and made plans for future work.

Miss Elizabeth Hittle, Mrs. Evelyn Bils and Miss Olive Lind, all public health nurses from the state department of public health with headquarters in Woodstock were among those attending. Mrs. Bils and Miss Lind are in charge of maternal and infant care, working out of Waukegan. They have been holding material welfare clinics for some time at the Community Center. The last one will be held today (Thursday) Feb. 14, at 1 p.m. and they invite everyone interested to come and see what they are doing.

The public health committee will meet again at 1:15 on Monday, Feb. 18, at the home of Mrs. Louis P. Haller, 290 Marshman. At this time a survey of the district will be started. The meeting will close at 3:00 to allow mothers to get home to young children. Anyone interested is cordially invited to attend, even though they were unable to be present at the first meeting.

"Great were the hearts, and strong the minds."—Bryant.

A galaxy of shining names is the birthday roster of February. Authors and artists, scientists, inventors and builders of our country, all born in this month, have in many ways contributed to the enrichment of our lives, spiritually as well as materially.

What they gave us is part of our common world inheritance, and the fact that these people created and developed fruitful thoughts and ideas, that they met and conquered difficulties should be an inspiration and a challenge to us all.

February 7, 1812—Dickens. Child's Journey with Dickens—Wiggin. Author's chance meeting with Dickens on a railway trip when she was a little girl.

February 11, 1735—Boone. Daniel Boone, wilderness scout—White. Story and adventures of the great hunter who first blazed the wilderness through the Indian country to Kentucky.

February 11, 1847—Edison. Boy With Edison—Simonds. Four years in Menlo Park as an assistant to Mr. Edison during the years when electric light and the phonograph were invented.

February 12, 1809—Lincoln. Abe Lincoln Grows Up—Sandburg. "A poetic, homely tale of struggle and hardship, written with great sympathy and understanding."

February 19, 1473—Copernicus. Heroes of Civilization—Cottler. Achievements in the fields of exploration, science, invention, biology and medicine.

February 22, 1732—Washington. George Washington's World—Foster. The story of Washington's life and contemporary history of the world.

February 26, 1846—Buffalo Bill. Adventures of Buffalo Bill—Cody. Buffalo Bill's own story of his thrilling life.

February 27, 1807—Longfellow. Poet of Craigie House—Hawthorne. Popularly written life of the great poet, tracing his career in such a way as to bring into prominence the characteristic features of his personality.

February 28, 1865—Grenfell. Adrift on an Icepan—Grenfell. The intrepid Labrador doctor tells here of his perilous experience when marooned with his dog team on floating ice off the coast of Newfoundland. Complete biographical notes.

The British Loan Subject of Voters League

"The British Loan, What and Why" was the subject of a large luncheon to be held February 10 at 12 o'clock, Grand Ballroom of the LaSalle hotel, by the Illinois League of Women Voters.

The State Department and business men of this area were represented on the program. Miss Mildred Northrup of the State Department, formerly professor of economics at Bryn Mawr college, explained the provision of the loan and accompanying economic agreements. Carl Wynne, a director of the Chicago Association of Commerce, and president of Overseas Industries, was the second speaker, dealing with the meaning of the British loan to American business and the American taxpayer.

Mrs. Walter T. Fisher, president of the Illinois League of Women Voters, points out that the league held this meeting in order to give the public more information on the subject at a time when ratification of the loan is coming up in Congress.

More than one billion letters for American soldiers in the Pacific area cleared through the Army Post Office at the San Francisco post of embarkation. Stacked one on another this would make a pile 1600 miles high.

Woman's Club—

wise guiding hand of this gifted minister.

At 2 p.m., Mrs. Leonard Keaster, president, will call the regular meeting of the club to order.

Mrs. Benedict K. Goodman, program chairman, will present as the speaker of the afternoon, Louis K. Anspacher, poet, philosopher, dramatist and lecturer.

Dr. Anspacher has delivered over 200 lectures at the New York Town hall, where he helped to inaugurate the popular Short Courses.

His eloquence and his profound knowledge of human nature make him one of the most sought-after speakers in America.

From his listing in "Who's Who" we learn that he was born in Cincinnati, O., and received much of his formal education in New York City. His A.B. degree was awarded by the New York City college, A. M. by Columbia, and his LL.B. he studied at the Post Graduate school of philosophy, Columbia.

The name of Louis Anspacher has been identified with every important movement in adult education. He is secular lecturer for Temple Emanuel in New York, a member of the lecture staff of the League for Political Education and Sciences, and lecturer for the New York City.

New York Extension Center in Dr. Anspacher is a successful playwright, and a list of his best known plays would include "The Glass House," "Our Children," "All the King's Horses," "Rhapsody," and "They Saw the Light."

The timely topic chosen for his lecture on Feb. 19 is "Our Heritage of Liberty."

Tea will be served following the program. Hostesses for the afternoon are Mesdames Harry B. Roberts, Harry E. Willis, Joseph W. Maple and J. S. Bracken.

Mrs. C. J. Bassler and members of her social service committee invite all interested club members and friends to join them in their next work day at Ridge Farm Preventorium. This is mending day, so bring scissors, thimble and any mending material you can spare.

Members have found this a very satisfying form of service and thoroughly enjoy, too, the luncheon hour—12 sharp—with the children and their adult leaders. The cost of this meal to the workers is nominal, but the value of the friendship is inestimable.

Mrs. Wilhelmina Ryder Is Laid to Rest

At her home on 639 Central, Monday afternoon, Mrs. Wilhelmina Ryder succumbed to a month's illness at the age of 72. She had been a resident of Highland Park since 1910.

Besides her husband, William, an employee of Siljestrom Ice and Coal Co., she is survived by two sons, William of Highland Park and Henry of Chicago; two daughters, Mrs. Donald Ray of Waukegan and Mrs. Joseph Meier of Miami, Fla., and five grandchildren.

Services will be held on Friday at 2 p.m. at the Seguin Funeral home, 52 N. Second, and burial made at Northshore Garden of Memories.

Two Local Women To Attend National YWCA Convention

Mrs. Mary Ann McFadden and Mrs. Edmund Froelich will attend the 17th national convention of the YWCA at Atlantic City, which opens March 2 and continues thru March 8.

No convention has been held since 1940, because of the war. There must be faced, therefore, important issues which will have far-reaching consequences for the national YWCA and the 434 communities in which there are local associations. About 3000 delegates are expected from the United States as well as from YWCA's of foreign countries.

The program will be both national and international in scope, with capable leaders heading the discussion of such timely topics as the international situation, full employment and race relations. Among these leaders will be Owen Lattimore, famous writer and speaker on China, and the Hon. Mrs. Helen Gahagan Douglas, student of Soviet-USA relations.

NATURAL GAS? Well, we are temporarily awaiting another Federal Power Commission hearing on March 4th from which we hope to get a "Green Light" to proceed with conversion to Natural Gas. Naturally, we are interested in starting as early as possible in order to be able to handle requests for new heating loads, etc. Your Illinois Commerce Commission has approved the plan to convert to 1,000 BTU Natural Gas at reduced rates.

A Sergeant demanded an explanation when a Private was two hours late in returning with necessary supplies. "Well, I picked up a Chaplain along the road," explained the Private sadly, "and from then on those mules couldn't understand a word I said."

Floating fish factories, have been proposed which will fillet, quick freeze, and pack fish right in the fishing boat.

Speaking of frozen foods, Servel Gas Refrigerators will probably have increased frozen food storage capacity in the next models of Servel. We estimate that approximately one fourth of the capacity will be low temperature storage. The present models are similar in arrangement to Pre-war models. Incidentally, a few new Servels have been received but the steel strike has caused a shut-down of Servel's factories for the present.

We offer an opportunity for a typist-cashier in our Highland Park Office. Our cashier, Mrs. Dryden is leaving to join her husband who has just returned from the Pacific.

EXPERIENCED QUALIFIED

BERNARD J. JURON

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR

PROBATE JUDGE

(Excerpt from Waukegan News-Sun—January 18, 1944.)
Another race for Lake County office in this year's election began shaping up... with announcements today for Probate Judge by Bernard J. Juron. . . . Juron, also a past president of the county bar, has practiced law 28 years, recently in Waukegan alone, although he formerly practiced in Chicago and for many years maintained offices in both Waukegan and Chicago. He moved almost 25 years ago to Round Lake, where he and Mrs. Juron and their 8-year-old son still live.

While he has had an extensive probate practice, he probably has become best known for his work representing cities and villages as municipal attorney.

He is former city attorney of Highwood, Winthrop Harbor village attorney, Round Lake village attorney, Lake Villa village attorney, Fox Lake village attorney and Wauconda fire district attorney.

He attracted wide attention for his work while city attorney of Highwood in the city's successful fight to close a tavern within 100 feet of a church.

Juron also served 12 years as a member of the Lake County Republican central committee, and 12 years as Aven Township justice of the peace. He now is vice president of the new Lake County School Survey Committee, a non-political education post.

He was first president of the Graylake Lions Club and is retiring president of the Lake County Shrimp Club. He also holds memberships in the Waukegan Elks lodge and numerous other civic and fraternal organizations.
