

Socials

By ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2064

CHARLENE BROWN WEDS

The wedding of Miss Charlene Adrian Brown, daughter of Commander and Mrs. Grant Houston Brown of 418 St. Johns place, and Lt. (jg) John Ward Seabury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Seabury, Oak Park, took place on Saturday, Feb. 23, at the Presbyterian church. Rev. Louis W. Sherwin heard the exchange of nuptial vows at 4:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore an ivory satin gown with a long train. The finger tip Brussels lace veil which she wore hung from a coronet of seed pearls. Both the veil and a seed pearl cross which she wore, belonged to her grandmother. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Miss Elizabeth Haynes of Joliet, maid of honor, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Barbara Coe of Madison, Wis., and Elizabeth Kennedy of Grand Forks, N. D., wore aqua blue taffeta dresses made with mesh cap sleeves and full skirts. The maid of honor's bouquet was of gladioli and white stock, and the bridesmaids carried American Beauty roses.

Mr. Albert Cotsworth III, of Oak Park served the bridegroom as best man, and Fred Borwell, James Holt, John B. Johnson of Oak Park and Alexis Tellis of Winnetka, ushers.

The bride's mother wore a grey-blue gown, complemented by a hat and gloves of dusky pink, and a corsage of roses of the same shade. The bridegroom's mother chose a beige dress trimmed in coral beading, and she wore a hat to match. Her corsage was of green orchids.

The bride is a graduate of Wisconsin university. The bridegroom received his commission as an ensign at the time of his graduation from Yale. He served for three years in the navy, two years of that time overseas, in both the Pacific and European theaters of warfare. At present he is on convalescent leave.

A reception for two hundred guests at the Highland Park Woman's club followed the ceremony. After a two weeks' honeymoon, which they are spending on an Arizona ranch, the young couple will be at home in Winnetka.

Prior to the wedding, several parties were given in Miss Brown's honor. Miss Elizabeth Haynes of Joliet was hostess at her home at Feb. 13. On Valentine's day, the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Burnham Fiske of Winnetka entertained at dessert-bridge for her, and the Misses Barbara Coe and Elizabeth Kennedy honored the bride-to-be at a miscellaneous shower on the evening of Feb. 15, at 56 E. Bellevue place, Chicago.

Last Wednesday, Mrs. Albert Cotsworth Jr. of Oak Park gave a buffet supper for the bridal party, and the bride's parents were hosts at the Hearstone, for the rehearsal dinner, last Friday evening.

The bride was hostess to her attendants at Exmoor Country club on the day of the wedding.

APPROACHING MARRIAGES

Mr. and Mrs. William P. Cawley of 1166 Hyacinth place, announce the approaching of their daughter, Helen F., to George R. Heicher, son of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Heicher of Chicago. Father Gleason will read the service on Saturday, March 2, at St. James church, Highwood, at 10:30 in the morning.

The bride-to-be, who served as an army nurse, was the first Highland Park girl to go overseas. For 2 1/2 years she served in the Pacific theater. She was on duty in North Australia, and spent six months on a hospital ship between England, France and the United States. She also served at Fort Sheridan and at Walter Reed hospital in Washington, D.C. She received her release from the service Dec. 22.

Mr. Heicher terminated his navy service in September after four years. He attended Northwestern university for three years before entering the service.

Many parties have been given in honor of the bride-to-be. Among them was a personal shower last Monday evening at which Mrs. Grace Sues of 231 N. Second was hostess. Mrs. Richard Duddy of Buffalo Creek farm, Arlington Heights, honored the bride-to-be at a miscellaneous shower on Wednesday evening, and a miscellaneous shower was also given for her by Miss Joan Stevenson at her home in Chicago on Thursday evening.

The approaching marriage of their daughter, Dolores E., to Mr.

Alex. Hainchek Jr., son of Mrs. Kate Borgini of 207 Jeffreys Pl., Highwood, is being announced by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mordini of 242 Everts Pl., Highwood.

The wedding will take place on Saturday, March 2, at 9:30 a.m. at St. James church. Father Arthur Douaire will read the service. About 250 guests were present recently at a miscellaneous shower, which was given at the Labor temple in honor of the bride-to-be. Co-hostesses were Mesdames O. Antonetti, Frank Borgini, Joseph Cassal, Edward Cassidy, Rudolph Cioni, Mary Croci, Alex. De Bartolo, Sam Leonardi, Theodore Minorini, Anthony Mordini, Domenico Mordini, Enrico Mordini, Nello Mordini, Philip Mordini, Peter Nannini, Peter Peradotti, Casper Santi and Adele Straus.

ATTENDED FUNERALS

The death of both their mother, Mrs. Christina Vollmer, and aunt, Mrs. Louis Vollmer, took Mrs. Egbert W. Carlson of 607 Onwentsia and Mr. Lee W. Vollmer of 1305 Pleasant, to Le Center, Minn., to attend the funerals.

Both Mrs. Vollmers passed on, on the same day, Friday, Feb. 22. Funeral services were held Monday in Le Center.

A family reunion, the first in many years, was held last Nov. 14, when Mrs. Christina Vollmer celebrated her 87th birthday. Mrs. Louis Vollmer was 80 years old.

IN NEW ORLEANS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Bletsch and daughter, Barbara, 386 Ravine Dr., are in New Orleans, La., visiting their son, S1/c Charles Jr. of the U. S. navy.

The USS New Orleans, the ship which he is aboard, is now on exhibition for ten days at the New Orleans Mardi Gras celebration. Charles entered the service in September.

PHYLLIS WAGNER A BRIDE

Before an altar of palms and candelabra, on either side of which was a basket of white gladioli, Miss Phyllis Wagner became the bride of Lt. Le Roy R. Haas Jr., of the U. S. marine corps, at the Presbyterian church on Saturday, Feb. 23. Rev. Louis W. Sherwin read the service.

The occasion was also the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of the senior Haases of 2116 Grove avenue.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long-trained gown made with a white satin bodice, long full sleeves tight at the wrist, and a full marquisette skirt. Her finger tip veil was held in place with lilies of the valley and small white roses. She carried a bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis.

The maid of honor, Miss Betty Meyer of Deerfield, wore an aqua dress. Pink velvet streamers hung from the small nose gay with pink carnation center, which she carried.

The bride's sisters, the Misses Caryle and Barbara Wagner, and Miss Betty Van de Velden were in light pink dresses of lace and net. Their bouquets were exactly like the maid of honor's except that the streamers were of aqua velvet.

Best man was Robert Landau of Chicago, and Walter Wagner, brother of the bride, Thomas Garrity, and Stanley Gilbert, ushers. The bride's mother was in light blue crepe and her corsage was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother, who was in Alice blue, also had a pink rose corsage.

Lt. Haas is now on terminal leave. He served 22 months in the Pacific theater, participating in the battle of Guadalcanal and the invasions of Guam and Iwo Jima. At Iwo Jima he was awarded a special citation for bravery. General Erskine made the presentation.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wagner of 527 S. Ridge, were hosts at a reception at the Deerpath Inn in Lake Forest after the ceremony.

After a southern honeymoon of 10 days, the young couple will reside at 2116 Grove Ave.

HOSTS AT OPEN HOUSE
In honor of his sixty-sixth birthday, Albert Larson was host from 1:00 to 6:00 p.m. on Friday at open house at his home at 133 S. Green Bay. About 35 guests attended.

FLORIDA VACATION

On Saturday, March 9, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred O. Gilbert and their daughter, Alice, will leave for a vacation at Boca Raton, Fla. They will be gone for one month.

Their son, Henry, a student at Wharton school in Philadelphia, Pa., spent a few days at home this week. Henry is in his freshman year at Wharton.

VISITED HERE

Week-end guests of the E. L. Dorroughs of 1318 Wade St. were Mrs. Dorrough's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Terrance Webster of Columbus, O.

Visiting here with the E. J. Smythes of 273 Woodland road for a few days last week was Mrs. Ralph Hermann of Freeport, Ill. Mrs. Smythe and Mrs. Hermann are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Overton of 2707 S. Deere Park drive spent the week-end in Iowa, visiting with Mr. Overton's brother, R. M. Overton of Waterloo, who is ill.

In Ishpeming, Mich., this past week-end to attend the national ski tournament, were the Misses Gail George of 1841 Rice St., Renee Ramond of 1069 Moseley Rd., and Peggy Stair of 373 Woodland Rd. The girls are seniors at Highland Park high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Ingram C. Rasmussen of 340 Elm place and Mrs. Rasmussen's father, Mr. Andrew Bloomfield of 501 N. Sheridan, spent the week-end at Delafield, Wis., visiting their son and grandson, "Andy" Rasmussen, who is a student at St. John's Military academy.

HERE FOR WEDDINGS

Here to be an attendant at the Cawley-Heicher wedding is Mrs. Edward Lake and her young son, William Edward III, of Des Moines, Ia. Mrs. Lake, the former Joan Pier, is visiting at the home of her parents, the Harry M. Piers of 555 S. Linden.

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Kirshner of Kansas City, Mo., were here for a five-day visit at the home of Mr. Kirshner's brother-in-law and sister, Comdr. and Mrs. Grant H. Brown of 418 St. Johns Pl. They were here to attend the marriage of their niece, Charlene Brown, to Lt. (jg) John W. Seabury, last Saturday.

House guests of the John R. Pasquesi of 216 Railway Ave., Highwood, this past week, were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Genser of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Miss Amy Towers of Detroit, Mich. They were here to attend the Pasquesi-Baracani marriage on Wednesday.

ATTENDED GRADUATION

Dr. and Mrs. B. A. Hamilton of 206 N. Linden avenue attended the graduation of their son, Wilson, from the N.R.O.T.C. Ensign Wilson returned home with his parents, and is proceeding to Newport, R. I., for further training afloat.

Another of their sons, Traver, recently received his full lieutenant and is at present stationed at Bremerton, Wash.

PASQUESI-BARACANI NUPTIALS

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Pasquesi of 216 Railway Ave., Highwood, announce the marriage of their daughter, Anna Margaret, to Domenico Baracani of 238 High St., Highwood. The service which was read by Father Arthur Douaire, took place on Wednesday, February 27, at 9:30 o'clock in the morning at St. James church, Highwood.

The bride wore a white gown with lace insertions and a finger tip veil which hung from a tiara. She carried a mother-of-pearl prayer book to which gardenias were attached. Her father gave her in marriage.

Miss Helen Picchiotti attended the bride as maid of honor. She wore a pale pink dress and carried carnations of a slightly deeper shade.

The bridesmaids, Ethel Bernice Pasquesi, a sister of the bride, and Carmen Ann and Lucy Pasquesi, cousins, were in gowns made with an aqua bodice and full white tulle skirt.

The Junior bridesmaid, Mary Florence Pasquesi, young sister of the bride, wore a dress exactly like that of the bridesmaids. The four girls carried bouquets of pale pink carnations.

Angelo John Pasquesi, brother of the bride, served as best man. The ushers were August Baracani, brother of the bridegroom, and Henry A. and Robert Pasquesi, his cousins. Junior attendant for the bridegroom was his nephew, Frank Bernardi.

Enza Picchiotti, accompanied by Miss Agnes McGuire at the organ, sang "Panis Angelicus" and "Ave Maria." Children of St. James choir also sang at the mass.

The bridegroom, who served with the Merrill Marauders in Burma for one year and for six months with the Mars' task force, has been released from the service after three years of duty. He was a corporal in the infantry and served two years overseas.

A breakfast at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony, and a reception for two hundred guests was held at Labor temple in the evening.

After a short honeymoon, the young couple will be at home at 216 Railway avenue, Highwood.

MOVING

Moving this week to their newly purchased home at 323 Oakland drive are the B. K. Martins and their son-in-law and daughter, the Robert Austins (Ardis Martin). For the past twenty years, the Martins have been living at 821 Ridgewood drive.

Mr. Austin, recently stationed at Fresno, Calif., terminated his army service at Camp Grant last Thursday, after 31 months service. His mother, Mrs. F. D. Austin, resides at 1352 Broadview.

BACK HOME

Back home after a three weeks' vacation in St. Petersburg, Fla., are Mrs. Karl D. King Jr., and daughter, Janet, of Ravinia.

Mrs. Frances Schneider of 706 Ridgewood drive spent the past week-end visiting in Ann Arbor, Mich., with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Collins.

IN CALIFORNIA

In California for a three months stay are Mr. and Mrs. Werner B. Spengler of 414 Glencoe avenue. They are visiting with Mr. Spengler's brother and his wife, the L. A. Spengler's, in Miranda, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Le Vally of 357 Hazel are vacationing in Palm Springs and Los Angeles, Calif. They will be gone for three weeks.

DEERFIELD WEDDING

St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church in Deerfield was the scene of the wedding of Miss La Verne E. Krase and David K. Lundquist on Thursday evening, Feb. 21, at 8 o'clock in the evening. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Krase Jr., of 938 Woodward, Deerfield, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundquist of Kenmore avenue, Deerfield. Rev. Piepenbrok of Oak Park, formerly of Deerfield, heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gown of white slipper satin with a short train. Her finger tip veil hung from a crystal beaded crown. The bouquet she carried was of white sweet peas.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Arthur Scheskie of Osterman avenue, Deerfield, wore a dress of chartreuse chiffon, and carried a bouquet of matching roses.

The three bridesmaids wore identical sateen dresses, complemented by bouquets of roses, which they carried. Miss Lorraine Tuttle, of Osterman avenue, a cousin of the bride, wore aqua, Miss Frances North of Park avenue was in green, and Miss Margaret Archibald of Waukegan wore a pink dress.

Little Darlene Evans of Glenview, the bride's cousin, attended as flower girl. She wore a dress of pink organdy, and carried a basket of rose petals. Grant Berning of Deerfield, a cousin of the bridegroom, acted as ring bearer.

The best man was Edward Berning of Northbrook, the bridegroom's brother, and the ushers were Dale Berning of Deerfield, James Berning and Ralph Nelson of Northbrook.

The bride's mother chose a black dress trimmed in chartreuse, complemented by a black hat with chartreuse feathers. Her corsage was of pink and chartreuse roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of black and white crepe, and a white gardenia corsage.

The bridegroom, who served as a corporal in the marine corps, received his release Feb. 5. He served for four years, and was stationed overseas twice, 25 months the first time, and six months the second.

A reception for one hundred and sixty guests followed the ceremony at Rich Seul's in Northbrook.

After a two weeks' honeymoon in Atlanta, Ga., the young couple will reside in Deerfield.

Prior to the wedding, Miss Krase was honored with a miscellaneous shower by the Hope Chest club, of which she is a member. Her aunt, Mrs. Ethel Zobus, of Glenview, also gave a miscellaneous shower for her, the Sunday before the wedding. Twenty guests were present. The bridegroom's mother also was hostess to twenty guests recently in honor of Miss Krase at a miscellaneous shower.

TINA MORELLI MARRIED

Father Arthur E. Douaire read the service at St. James church

NEW HIGH WAGES

for Telephone Operators
Earn $37 Per 6 Day Week
Immediately

START TODAY

In a communications job which is an essential part of the business and social life of your community.

Experience unnecessary. Full pay while learning. The experience you acquire as a telephone operator will be profitable to you all through your life.

ENJOY

- Frequent Salary Increases
- Interesting, Steady Work near Home
- Vacations, Holidays with Pay
- Sickness Benefits
- Pension Plan
- Pleasant, Safe Surroundings
- Advancement

Apply Today

To Chief Operator

21 South St. Johns Avenue

ILLINOIS BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

NOMINATE

JOHN R. BILLS

A Lifelong Republican
For COUNTY JUDGE
Primary April 9, 1946

Eminently Qualified With Actual Judicial Experience
No Entangling Political Alliances
A Full Time Judge

1. John R. Bills is 48 years of age and has had nearly a quarter of a century experience in trial courts, civil and criminal.
2. He has served as Judge in the following courts of record: City Court of Zion, County Court of Lake County, Circuit Court of Lake County, and Probate Court of Lake County, the Municipal Court of Evanston, and the Superior Court of Cook County where he tried important jury litigation.
3. He served you honestly and courteously as Assistant State's Attorney from 1932-40, handling the County Court work and is entirely familiar with the procedure of that Court. His work in depression years with juvenile and family relation cases was outstanding.
4. He possesses that rare qualification judicial temperament.
5. In the event Mr. Bills is elected he will devote his entire time to the court. He will not in any manner practice law nor will he have connection with any law firm directly nor indirectly.

HEADQUARTERS
CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK BUILDING
PHONE MAJESTIC 463
Your Vote and Support Will Be Appreciated

EXPERIENCED QUALIFIED

BERNARD J. JURON

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR

PROBATE JUDGE

(Excerpt from Waukegan News-Sun—January 18, 1946.)
Another race for Lake County office in this year's election began shaping up . . . with announcements today for Probate Judge by Bernard J. Juron. . . Juron, also a past president of this county bar, has practiced law 25 years, recently in Waukegan alone, although he formerly practiced in Chicago and for many years maintained offices in both Waukegan and Chicago. He moved almost 25 years ago to Round Lake, where he and Mrs. Juron and their 9-year-old son still live.

While he has had an extensive probate practice, he probably has become best known for his work representing cities and villages as municipal attorney. He is former city attorney of Highwood, Winthrop Harbor village attorney, Round Lake village attorney, Lake Villa village attorney, Fox Lake village attorney and Waukegan fire district attorney.

He attracted wide attention for his work while city attorney of Highwood in the city's successful fight to close a tavern within 100 feet of a church.

Juron also served 23 years as a member of the Lake County Republican central committee, and 12 years as Aron Township justice of the peace. He now is vice president of the new Lake County School Survey Committee, a non-political education post. He was first president of the Graylake Lions Club and is retiring president of the Lake County Shrine Club. He also holds memberships in the Waukegan Elks lodge and numerous other civic and fraternal organizations.

WILL APPRECIATE YOUR VOTE

