When I Parade

When I parade down Tower Road
To almost every one I'm known As poet, rimester, author — Me, I write such wondrous poetry.

The youngsters smile and then they say:
"Have you wrote any pomes today?"
And if I have, or if I hain't, They long for something new and quaint.

The oldsters shake my hand and sigh
For more choice verse as I pass by.
Fair maidens, too, love classic thought And me, of course, just like they'd ought.

Ethetic themes — one hundred plus — Make me the bard notorius.
With modest pride I 'most explode
When I parade down Tower Road.
Alfred Newton Burnham.

Moon Family Holds First Reunion In Four Years

A family reunion was held on Sunday at the Fred Moon home at 598 Homewood avenue. For the first time in four years, the family was all together.

Lloyd Moon, who served in the army for 2 years, with overseas duty in England and Germany all but 5 months of that time, received his release a few days earlier. He and his wife, the former Ruth Benson, and their 5-year-old son, David, reside at 1416 Pleasant avenue, Ravinia.

Also present was Melvin Moon and his wife. A former corporal, he was given a medical discharge in August after 2 years' army service, with overseas duty in the Pacific theater.

Robert Moon, who was a member of the army air corps for 4 years, with 1 1/2 year's duty in the European and Caribbean areas, terminated his service as captain on Feb. 10.

A fourth son, Sgt. Verne Moon, flew in from Grand Island, Neb., where he is stationed with the army air corps to make the reunion complete. A tail gunner on a B-29, he has been in the service for 1 1/2 years.

The Moon's daughter, Marion, who resides at home, was also present for the occasion.

"George and Margaret" Spring Play Given by Community Players

"George and Margaret," the spring play to be given by the Highland Park Community players in May, is a light and entertaining comedy based on the goings-on of the Garth-Bander family, when the elder son Claude decides that he loves Gladys, the best maid the family had ever had, and is determined to marry her.

How this is settled gives many laughs and chuckles all evening.

Competition for the parts has been very keen. Those definitely selected so far are:

Malcolm, father, Vernon Fox; Alice, mother, "Mim" Hafner; Claude, elder son, Dan Burke; Dudley, younger son, Harold Schimmelpfeng; Gladys, maid, Margo Mower; Roger, Dudley's friend, Raymond Periman.

The entire production is under the direction of Robert Hoffmann.
Assistant director is Rose Marks.
Stage manager is Gerald Fox.

Unique Arrangement Of Easter Hats at Junior Welfare Parade

An umbrella completely covered with an assortment of Easter hats won first prize for Mrs. Robert M. Bussard at the Highland Park-Ravinia Infant Welfare junior group's annual Easter hat parade on Monday. Mrs. William Holman, 950 Lincoln avenue, was hostess at the meeting.

Two other members wore their collection of hats in bustle arrangements; one wore a doll's hat enhanced with a bit of veiling; and many others wore one hat which they had concocted out of several pinned together. The centerpiece on the luncheon table was a hat box topped by an Easter bonnet decorated with fresh tulips.

All the hats collected at the meeting were taken to the Thrift shop to be sold.

The Infant Welfare society is one of three organizations which benefit regularly from Thrift shop proceeds. The other two are Northwestern Settlement and the Highland Park hospital auxiliary.

The new members of the junior group gave tentative plans for a buffet supper May 3 at Country Fare at which they will be hostesses to members of all three of the Highland Park - Ravinia Welfare groups.

Mrs. Henry G. Schroeder is general chairman for the supper, with Mrs. George D. Harrison as co-chairman. Mrs. T. V. McDavitt is in charge of tickets, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Lineberry and Mrs.
Donald Bennett. Mrs. Gustavus Babson, Mrs. Howard Loevenhart and Mrs. R. H. Brownlee are in charge of the raffle.

Campbell Chapter, O.E.S., To Present "The Hat Shop"

Campbell chapter No. 712, Order of the Eastern Star, will celebrate its 34th birthday anniversary at its regular meeting on Wednesday, April 3. The meeting will be held at the Masonic temple at 7:30 p.m.

Following the business meeting, the past officers will present a play, entitled "The Hat Shop," for members and their friends.

The worthy matron and worthy patron of the organization hope that all members will try to be present as each member will be presented with a copy of Campbell chapter's new book, "Let's Give a Party."

A social period, during which refreshments will be served, will conclude the evening's program.

High School Girls' Club Attended Conference

Members of the Highland Park high school Girls' club attended the annual Suburban League Girls' club conference which was held on Saturday at Thornton Township high school at Harvey. Thirty schools and 525 girls participated in the conference.

Eileen Risjord was conference president, and officers attending from Highland Park were Janice Schick, Joy Peterson, Theo Zaeske, Dolly Becker and Molly Smith.

The meeting featured discussion groups, luncheon and an afternoon program.

Full Day at Woman's Club Planned by Collector's Group Apr. 2

The Collector's Study group will open the full day's program of the Highland Park Woman's club on Tuesday, April 2. At 10 a.m.
(note time change) the group will meet to view the display of table settings arranged by members.

Formal and informal dinner, breakfast and luncheon settings will be shown, using collections of old china, milk glass, pressed glass, and silver. There will also be suggestions for attractive breakfast trays and invalids' trays.

Members are urged to come early, as the tables will have to be dismantled promptly at noon.

This will be the last meeting of the collectors' group for this year.

Mrs. James M. Cuthbertson and her committee will serve luncheon at noon, and reservations must be made by March 30. Call Mrs.
Cuthbertson at Highland Park 1334.

At 12:45 Mrs. Frederick O. Toof, chairman of book reviews for the fine arts committee, will introduce Mrs. Sarah Weidner Youngren who will review "My Indian Family." This is the story of an American girl who married into a high caste East Indian family.

There will be a brief business meeting at 2 p.m., conducted by Mrs. Leonard Keaster, president.

Miss Wanda Paul, pianist, is the artist chosen for the spring musicals. She will be introduced by Mrs. John M. Mannings, music chairman.

Miss Paul is a young Chicagoan, whose unusual talent manifested itself at an early age. She acquired all her musical training in her native city, doing advanced study with Rudolph Ganz, internationally known conductor, composer and pianist.

Her concert appearances include two with the Chicago Symphony orchestra; Ravinia Festival; five appearances with the Illinois Symphony orchestra, and two appearances at the Grant Park Summer series with the Woman's Symphony orchestra.

She also has appeared in numerous concerts throughout the middle west.

BERNARD J. JURON

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR
PROBATE JUDGE

(Excerpt from Waukegan News-Sun—January 18, 1946.) Another race for Lake County office in this year's election began shaping up . . . with announcements today for Probate Judge by Bernard J. Juron.
Juron, also a past president of the county bar, has practiced law 26 years, recently in Waukegan alone, although he formerly practiced in Chicago and for many years maintained offices in both Waukegan and Chicago.
He moved almost 25 years ago to Round Lake, where he and Mrs. Juron and their 9-year-old son still live.

While he has had an extensive probate practice, he probably has become best known for his work representing cities and villages as municipal attorney.

He is former city attorney of Highwood, Wintthrop Harbor village attorney, Round Lake village attorney, Lake Villa village attorney, Fox Lake village attorney and Waukegan fire district attorney.

He attracted wide attention for his work while city attorney of Highwood in the city's successful fight to close a tavern within 100 feet of a church.

Juron also served 12 years as a member of the Lake County Republican central committee, and 12 years as Avon Township justice of the peace. He now is vice president of the new Lake County School Survey Committee, a non-political education post.

He was first president of the Grayslake Lions Club and is retiring president of the Lake County Shrine Club. He also holds memberships in the Waukegan Elks lodge and numerous other civic and fraternal organizations.
