Deerfield Resident Is Taken by Death

Mrs. Otto Seiler, 902 Chestnut, Deerfield, a surgical patient at the Highland Park hospital, passed away on Thursday morning at the age of 64.
 Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Segert, she had lived nearly her whole life in Deerfield. Besides her husband she is survived by two sons, Rollin, of Deerfield, and Harold, of Glenview; two sisters, Mrs. Woodman Todd, of Deerfield, and Mrs. Albert Clapper of Chicago; two brothers, Edward and Henry, of Deerfield, and several grandchildren.

Well-Known Deerfield Resident Succumbs To Sudden Attack

John Raymond Hopkins, advertising executive and country-wide authority on gladiolas, passed away suddenly Monday morning at his home on Ramsay road, Deerfield, at the age of 57.
 Advertising manager of the Chicago Belting Company since 1920, he was also one of the founders and was the first president of the Industrial Advertising Association. He had made his home in Deerfield for 10 years.
 He is survived by his wife, Ellen.

Lincoln School Students To Present Operetta "Tom Sawyer"

Tom Sawyer, a frivolous, well meaning lad, is as alive in the minds of our children today as he was to Mark Twain.
 Tom's support of his bosom friend, Huck Finn; his admiration for Becky Thatcher; his flight from his stern Aunt Polly to a deserted island; his exciting encounter with Indian Joe in the cemetery at midnight, have gripped many a boy in such a manner as to make him attempt to escape reality.
 The spirit of Tom and his pals has been caught by Theodosia Paynter and written into an operetta. On Thursday, April 11, at 8 p.m., the children of the eighth grade of Lincoln school, aided by other children of the 5th, 6th and 7th grades who form a supporting chorus, will present the operetta.
 Such a project as this requires a tremendous amount of work from the staff of the school. Heading the music for the operetta is Miss Anne Phelps; dramatics, Mr. Stanley W. McKee, school principal; costuming, Miss Jessie Hiatt and Miss Ellen Miller; art, Mrs. Frances Apts; school band, Earl Strickler; staging, Helen Boyce and Harold Rudolph, custodian; tickets, Walter Borg; sale of tickets, Nema Whitehouse; makeup, Winifred Nelson.

The April meeting of the Ravinia Garden club will be held at the Ravinia school auditorium on April 12 at 8 p.m. Husbands and friends are invited to attend.

Mr. John Y. Beatty of Crystal Lake, Illinois, will be the speaker. His topic is "Three eYars With Luther Burbank." Mr. eaty lived with Burbank for three years, working with him in the garden and writing for him a series of twelve volumes. His talk will be illustrated with rochromes slides, stressing the technique of producing new varieties of flowers.
 Mrs. C. Longford Felske is host-ess for the evening, assisted by Mesdames Judson Cross, Henry Fordtran, G. J. Frelinger, Stanley Grace, J. A. Lytle, Jack McDonald and C. V. Nichols.
 Mrs. Grace and Mrs. Nichols will arrange the flowers.

EXPERIENCED QUALIFIED

BERNARD J. JURON
 REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR PROBATE JUDGE

Our history and background have appeared here for some time . . . To intelligent Republicans, it is not enough to have a candidate for office say, "Vote for me" . . . there must also be some sound reasons and recommendations to back that up . . .

Let us assume that all candidates for Probate Judge are more or less qualified for the office, which one shall we vote for and why? . . . As Republicans, we must ask, does the party owe this candidate its full support? . . . What has this candidate done for the party? It is a well established adage, "you can only take out what you put in." We can also ask who is the Republican Party? An answer to this question appeared in a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post and the National Republican Magazine, where they said, "The People and the Precinct Committeemen are the Republican Party, not the National Chairman or the National Committeemen" . . . This is a solid fact.

There is only one candidate in this group who has worked for the Republican Party from the "grass roots." He has served as a Republican Committeeman for 12 years, as a missionary carrying the torch of the party in the dark "daze" of new deal . . . pushing door bells . . . making converts . . . helping maintain the party in this county.

This candidate is eminently qualified as his record as lawyer for many years in Lake county shows. He has the judicial temperament which is so vitally important in assuring the continued efficient administration of this office.

and the National Republican Magazine, where they said, "The
