Telephone Highland Park 2064

On Sunday, March 24, at 1:30, Miss Delores Ruth Heintz, daughter of the William P. Heintz of Bronson lane, became the bride of John Burr Clavey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Clavey of 2000 Clavey road, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Richburg of 580 Glencoe road, Glencoe. The Rev. Richard Talbot, Jr., heard the exchange of nuptial vows in the large living room, which was decorated with palms, ferns, and lilies.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gold colored suit, complemented by a small feathered hat. Her corsage was of gardenias.

Mrs. Richburg, who attended as matron of honor, wore a cocoa brown suit and a corsage of pink roses.

The bride's mother chose a light green dress and a corsage of white carnations.

Dr. Richburg served the bridegroom as best man.

Mr. Clavey, who was released from the service on Dec. 1, spent two and a half years in the army air corps, most of the time in Africa.

Colored movies of the ceremony were taken.

A dinner for the immediate families followed the services.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. Clavey and his bride are back at the home of the bride's parents. They plan to make California their home.

ON INSPECTION CRUISE

On of twelve men nominated to make an inspection cruise, Bert Brand of New York City, formerly of 360 Park avenue, left on Mar. 14 for Iceland, Greenland, and other North Atlantic waters.

The party flew to St. Johns, Newfoundland, and from there met a destroyer which took them to the aircraft carrier, "Midway," somewhere in the Atlantic ocean. They were guests of the commanding officer of the "Midway."

Mr. Brand returned to New York this week.

APPROACHING MARRIAGES

The approaching marriage of Miss Patricia Anne Wolf and Robert Leonard Sanders has recently been announced.
