CHRIS LARSEN JR. MARRIED

A very pretty wedding took place on Sunday, May 12, at the Medill avenue Lutheran church, when Miss Jeanette Syvertsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. Syvertsen of 4559 Shubert avenue, Chicago, became the bride of Chris Howard Larsen Jr., son of C. H. Larsen of 1245 Euclid avenue, the Rev. Holmgren reading the service.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white marquisette colonial bridal gown. Her colonial bouquet was of lilies of the valley and white roses. There were also white roses on either side of her fingertip veil.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Inga Hansen and Carolyn Potel, and the junior bridesmaid, Norene Poeter, niece of the bride, were in pink, and they carried colonial bouquets of deep pink roses. Halos of pink roses were their head-dresses.

The maid of honor, Miss Shirley Madsen, was dressed exactly like the bridesmaids, except her bouquet and halo were trimmed with blue ribbons.

The flower girls, Barbara and Virginia Poeter, nieces of the bride, were also dressed in pink. The little girls, 4 and 2 years old, are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Poeter of Chicago.

Dale Schmidt, 4 year old son of Mrs. Pearl Schmidt of 1955 Northmoor road, nephew of the bridegroom, dressed in a white suit, acted as ring bearer.

Edward Johnson served the bridegroom as best man and Harold Kloss and William Perok ushered.

Over 100 guests attended the reception at the home of the bride's parents, following the ceremony.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. Larsen and his bride are now residing in Chicago. They plan a wedding trip to Colorado later on in the summer.
