DOROTHY HOBBS ENGAGED

The betrothal of Miss Dorothy Hobbs to Lt. Robert O. Boehm was announced by her mother, Mrs. Clark Hobbs, at a cocktail party from 4 until 7 on Sunday at 1736 Rice street.

Miss Hobbs is a graduate of the Highland Park high school and attended Northwestern university. At present she is a stewardess for the American airlines.

Lt. Boehm of the army air force, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Boehm of 753 S. Green Bay road, has been in the service for over three years, one year of that time in the Pacific theater. At present he is home on terminal leave. A graduate of the Highland Park high school, he was attending the University of Wisconsin before the war interrupted his studies. No date has been set for the wedding.

ADELINE RAMOND A BRIDE

The Immaculate Conception church was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday, May 17 at 11 o'clock high mass when Miss Adeline Marie Ramond became the bride of Anthony John Vigelis. Monseigneur Joseph P. Morrison heard the exchange of nuptial vows before an altar banked with white lilacs and gladioli. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ramond of the Moraine hotel, formerly of 1069 Moseley road, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfons Vigelis of Camden, N. J.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a gown of white linen with eyelet embroidery, and she carried a white satin prayer book and a single orchid.

Miss Renee Ramond, sister of the bride, who attended as maid of honor, was dressed in light blue taffeta. The colonial bouquet she carried was of spring flowers.

The bridesmaids, Miss Terry Joyce and Mrs. Margaret Alenzo, wore yellow taffeta dresses and carried bouquets like that of the maid of honor's.

The bride's mother chose a cedar pink dress complemented by a corsage of lilies of the valley.

A breakfast at Exmoor Country club followed the ceremony.

Miss Ramond is a graduate of Roycemore and of Colorado college, and has been attending the drama department of Yale university in New Haven, Conn. The bridegroom, who has been released from the army, served a year and a half overseas. He is now president of the Turman Bottling Co. of Camden, N. J.

The young people, now on a two weeks' honeymoon in the Smoky mountains, will reside in Camden, New Jersey.
