Rabbi Shulman To Talk On What To Be Thankful For, at Temple, Glencoe

This Friday evening at the North Shore Congregation Israel, Lincoln and Vernon avenues, Glencoe, Rabbi Charles E. Shulman will speak on "What To Be Thankful For Today." Assistant Rabbi Richard C. Hertz will conduct the services.

There is little balm in Gilead these days if all that is Gilead is our present work-a-day world. Peace conferences are timidly and distrustfully entered. Hunger is not met by resolute rationing. Free enterprise is harrassed by individual greed and callousness to public weal. The average person may well wonder what there is to be thankful for today. Rabbi Shulman's sermon considers such balancing things that give strength, stability and the incentive to continue to the individual confronted by the enormous problems and challenges of our times.

Regular weekly services are conducted at the Temple each Friday night at 8:15. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

BETHAND REPRESENTED AT ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Two representatives of Bethany Evangelical church, Laurel at McGovern, are in attendance at the 102nd annual Illinois Conference of Evangelical churches being held in Peoria. Rev. Lester H. Laubenstein, pastor, is the ministerial delegate, and Mr. M. A. Frantz is the lay delegate. The latter is also in attendance in the capacity of president of the Illinois Albright Brotherhood.

RABBIT CHASES DOG

ARMONK, N. Y. — An adventure of hound and hare took a turn in favor of the rabbit here recently when in a sudden shift of scene a dog found himself faced with more ears than tail for a change.

This bunny, observers reported, turned in a performance worthy of a spot in the Broadway play, "Harvey," although they had made no special claims as to his size.

He was big enough, however, they said, to turn and demonstrate a fighting spirit not commonly exhibited by a bunny. The chase and counter-chase were enacted on a typical suburban lawn, where, the observers said, the dog actually yelped the canine equivalent of "uncle."

THE HIGHLAND PARK PRESS

Please save Gas in every possible way.

Our supply of coal at our Gas plants is very low.

Although that long awaited Federal Power Commission permit for NATURAL GAS for the North Shore was received last week, we are not sure when the new Gas will be available. Present conditions make it impossible to predict delivery dates for pipe and other materials.

So-o-o, we can not make commitments for heating loads until the present emergency is past.

Copy Book . . .

Think deeply, speak gently.
Love much, laugh often.
Work hard, pray freely.
Pay promptly, pray earnestly.
And be kind. That's enough!

Did you notice that 4-color double page spread in McCally's which was headed, "Your new gas range, What it does for you. It turns out savory foods in a way to make meal getting a joy and meals a feast."

Then, there's the newest thing in Men's clothing . . .
