Thank You, Infant Welfare!

A bouquet of the Eugene Pfisters' beautiful roses to Doris Mead, President of the Highland Park Wing of Infant Welfare, and to Doris' staff of pretty, capable workers who put on such a happy, successful dance at the Woman's Club last Saturday night.

We all had a grand time, Doris. You and your helpers deserve much praise for a swell job, well done.

ESCORTS "STAR" . . .

The writer was honored when he learned he was to escort Betty Wallis to the gala affair.

You see, folks, Betty was one of the "star" performers—despite a typhoid shot!—dancing in the humorous and entertaining floor-show.

And it's always good to go to a dance with a "star."

The evening began brightly with a cozy cocktail party at the George E. Wallis home. There the PRESS enjoyed meeting and chatting with the Wallis family, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Zischke, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wales, Byron Gordon, Shirley Pfister, Ray and Shirley Hays, Alice Hall and Hugh Wolff.

KAK AND BUD . . .

From this enjoyable party to the home of Harold F. Pfister Jr. There we met Bud and Kaki, one of Highland Park's keenest couples, and Don and Mellie Julian, two swell persons.

From the Junior Pfisters to the attractively-decorated Woman's Club for a gay evening of dancing, laughing and meeting many, many old friends.

(Editor's Note The writer saw so many persons he knew in such a hurry he was unable to jot down all their names. He did his best, though; and here are some of the fine Highland Parkers he saw.)

HIGHLAND PARKERS . . .

C. Schultzes, Gordon Frisbie, the Hal Hixons, Ann and Bill Peters, Aldie and Ginie Harris, Alice and Marge Pfister, Sam Carson, Jim Sorg, the Bill Fishers, the Dave Sanders, the George Lyman,

Local Girl Scouts Go To Camp Joseph Austin

Mrs. J. M. Watkins Jr., commissioner of Highland Park Girl Scouts, recently announced arrangements have been completed to send a very limited number of local scouts to Camp Joseph Austin, 8 miles north of Chisholm, Minn.

The girls, accompanied by an adult, will leave Chicago by train July 13 and attend camp from July 14 to 28.

Due to so few camp openings, this announcement was made simultaneously to all troops and the first 20 girls registered will be accepted for camp.

The girl scout council feels the girls will gain valuable experience that will fit into Highland Park scout outdoor programs but this opportunity should be available to all girl scouts rather than to a limited number. It is their hope that the local cabin project will be completed in the very near future, affording camping experience to all registered girl scouts.

The finance campaign for the cabin, launched a week ago, is progressing rapidly due to the enthusiasm and encouragement of girl scout parents and friends. Meetings are being held by grades in each school to acquaint the girl scout fathers with the acute need for a cabin in order that a full-scale outdoor program may be carried on.

It is the hope of the leaders of the campaign that the goal of $15,000 may be reached by June 30.

The following girls will attend Camp Joseph Austin:

Marcia Stenberg, Joanne Febel, Carol Curotto, Sally Bernardi, Diane Singer, Jane Bahr, Alice Stuppel, Nancy Kelly, Carol Walker, Louise Casel, Margaret King, Beverly Mitchell, Barbara Ohlwein, Patricia Singer and Sue Lawrence.

Black Orchid Myth

Every so often the black orchid myth gets into circulation. Florists say the public is asking again for black orchids. Chicago shops have had hundreds of calls in the past few days, while the florists are unable to track down the source of this libel on nature's reluctance to mother her sturdiest flower in an ebony hue.

There is no such thing as a black

NAMES SLIP MIND . . .

We wish we could remember all their names.

But the PRESS wasn't the only one unable to tie up names with well-known faces.

Said sweet Dottie Murray,

"Oh, there's so many people we know here tonight; how I wish we could remember all their names."

There were so many familiar faces, laughs, voices.

It was a big reunion; a get-together of scores of old friends who have been separated too long during the bleak war years . . .

TASTY BREAKFAST . . .

After the dance several of us went to the Harold F. Pfister Sr. home on Indian Tree drive. There Mr. and Mrs. Pfister had prepared a tasty breakfast for all of us.

It was a nice party, Pfisters; we all enjoyed it so.

And so the evening — or early morning by that time — ended.

And as we drove our "date" home down Highland Park's quiet streets, we thought how wonderful it is to have friends; and to see them again; and to laugh with them; and to attend their gay parties.

CONGRATULATIONS! . . .

This column extends congratulations to friend Stan Turner, popular son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver S. Turner, who is graduating today as the top-ranking midshipman of his class at the U. S. Naval academy, Annapolis, Md.

Announcement of resumption of bituminous coal mining has enabled the Illinois Commerce Commission to remove all restrictions on normal uses of electricity. The public may now feel free again to make full use of electric service for all residential, commercial and industrial purposes.

The period of these restrictions has been a trying one, and we want the public to know that we appreciate its understanding and cooperation.
