

Socials

By ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2064

ANDREW KRAMERS ENTERTAINED

A few intimate friends of the Andrew W. Kramers of 330 Woodland road attended a party at their home last Saturday evening.

Mr. Kramer, who is leaving Saturday for San Francisco, will leave June 12, aboard the USS Appalachian for Bikini, one of the Marshall islands, to be present at the atomic bomb tests, which are to be held there.

Mr. Kramer, who is attending the tests in the capacity of the technical press, is a scientific writer for "Power Plan Engineering" magazine. Two hundred members of the press will be represented at the tests.

ELSA LANZ A BRIDE

Trinity Episcopal church was the scene of the wedding yesterday (Wednesday) June 5, of Miss Elsa Lanz and Herbert Edwin Noreiko. Only relatives and close friends attended.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of net and faille. She is a graduate of Lake Forest college. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Hans Lanz of 335 S. Linden avenue.

Mr. Noreiko, who attended Illinois Institute of Technology, served for three years in the signal corps of the army as a sergeant. He is now a radio propagation engineer in Baltimore, Md.

After their honeymoon, Mr. Noreiko and his bride will reside in Baltimore.

BACK HOME

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Hartman and daughter, Suzanne, of 932 Lincoln avenue, and Miss Joan Smoot of 250 Lakewood place, returned home on Sunday after several days spent at their summer home in Muskegon, Mich.

After several days in Biloxi, Baton Rouge, and New Orleans, Mr. and Mrs. J. Edgar Moss of 334 Lake avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pick Jr. of 176 Vine avenue, returned home on Wednesday.

BIRTHDAY PARTIES

In honor of his thirteenth birthday, Timmy Weinfeld entertained at a picnic last Sunday for the 27 boys who are members of the Ravinia school sixth grade class. A theater party followed the picnic for the group.

Timmy is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Gustave F. Weinfeld of 925 S. St. Johns.

A surprise dinner at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the H. E. Holt home at 1330 Judson avenue was given in honor of Herb Holt's 18th birthday.

"Andy" Andrews, Bob Berg, Henry Date, Bud Hartman, Art Humphrey, Jerry Peterson and Ted Zabel, all high school students, were the guests. Herb is a member of this year's graduating class at the Highland Park high school.

Today (Thursday) Colleen Kelly will be hostess at an afternoon party in honor of her fourth birthday. Robert Leopold and John Rosenheim will entertain the youngsters with a puppet show.

Colleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Kelly of 1317 Broadview. Mr. Kelly is an athletic director in the Highland Park high school.

After a swim in the New Trier pool on Saturday morning, the boys of the Ravinia sixth grade class were entertained at a picnic lunch and baseball at Dam No. 1 at the Des Plaines river. Co-hosts at the party were Dave Smith, son of the Paul R. Smiths, of 379 Cedar avenue, and Hugh Zimmerman, son of Mrs. D. J. Zimmerman of 261 Cary avenue.

MARY CASORIO MARRIED

On Saturday, June 1, Miss Mary Casorio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Casorio of 26 Prairie avenue, Highland, and Peter S. Mazzetta of Glencoe were united in marriage in St. James church at 10:30 o'clock in the morning. The Rev. Martini heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an all lace gown with a train and fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of white carnations.

Miss Eleanor Casorio, sister of the bride, who attended as maid of honor and the bridesmaids, the Misses Edith Evangelista, cousin of the bride, and Gloria Linari of Highland and Mrs. Cecil Notari of Highland Park, were in identical dresses of pale pink lace. The bouquets of peonies, gladioli, and sweetpeas which they carried, were also alike.

Dolores Ann Casorio, little sister of the bride, in a white lace dress, made exactly like the bride's, acted as flower girl. She carried a bouquet of the same flowers as the other attendants.

The best man was Aldo Mazzetta, brother of the bridegroom, and the ushers were James Casorio, brother of the bride, Francis Fiore and Joseph Rafferty.

The bride's mother chose a gray dress complemented by a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother was in navy blue and her corsage was also of white carnations.

Miss Gloria Linari, one of the bridesmaids, sang "The Ave Maria" and "Panus Angelicus."

A reception was held in the evening at Labor temple.

After a honeymoon in Washington, D.C., and Virginia, Mr. Mazzetta and his bride will reside at 211 Morgan place, Highland.

VISITED HERE

Visiting at the home of her parents, the Fred A. Tuckers, of 515 Oakwood, for the Memorial day week-end was Miss Edith Tucker. Miss Tucker is employed at Frank M. Wulf associates, an advertising agency, in Cleveland, Ohio.

GRADUATION PARTIES

After the splash party given last Wednesday evening at the Shawnee Country club by Margaret King, Sue Lawrence, Barbara Yarger, Bruce Dennett, Tom Pinkerton and Guy Wilbor for the Ravinia school graduates, the group went on to the John B. Wilbor home at 1881 Lyman court for refreshments and dancing.

A reception for the graduates and their families followed the commencement exercises last night at the Braeside school.

Bette Lou Larson, Nancy Newman, Alice Stuppel, Janis Zabel, David Holt, James Humphrey, Donald Page and Hugh Riddle were co-hosts at a supper party on Saturday evening at the Ravinia school. Music for dancing was provided by Bill Bates' orchestra and Mr. A. G. Humphrey of 1321 Judson avenue led the games. Mr. Richard D. Crisp of 1334 Judson avenue, magician, entertained. The Ravinia eighth graders were the guests.

CHARLOTTE GETZ WEDS

Mr. Jacob Weinberg arranged the floral setting for the wedding of Miss Charlotte Getz and Jacob C. Levenson which will take place today (Thursday) at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Getz of 64 Clifton avenue at 8 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Levenson is the son of Mrs. J. M. Levenson of Brookline, Mass. Only the families and a few close friends will attend.

The bride, whose father will give her in marriage, will wear a white satin gown. The lace veil she will wear was also worn by her mother and grandmother. Her bouquet will be of double white lilies and pale yellow begonias.

Maid of honor, Miss "Dibby" Getz, sister of the bride, will wear pale pink marquisette and will carry red roses.

Mr. Joseph R. Levenson of Boston, Mass., brother of the bridegroom, will serve as best man.

The bride's mother will wear a yellow dress and her corsage will be of blue delphinium.

Miss Levenson will be dressed in gray, with a corsage of lavender orchids, and Miss Dorothy Levenson, sister of the bridegroom, has chosen a print dress with corsage of white orchids.

Mr. Frank Miller, first cellist with Toscanini, arranged the wedding march especially for Miss Getz' marriage. The arrangement is a Brahms' Hyden variation for two violins and the piano. Harold Turner will be at the piano and Oscar Chaussov and Jerome Maggid will be the violinists.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Northmoor country club.

After a honeymoon in Nantucket, the young couple will make their home in Boston.

WEEK-END GUESTS

Week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Spachner of Oakmont road were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cohn of Louisville, Ky.

ELECTED TO HONORARY SOCIETY

Miss Joan Holt was elected to Kappa Tau Alpha, honorary scholastic journalism society, recently.

Miss Holt, a junior at the University of Iowa, is the daughter of the H. E. Holts of 1330 Judson.

ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON

Last Thursday a luncheon was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Bensinger of 1441 Dean avenue. House guests from Cleveland and Cincinnati are visiting at the Bensinger home.

AMENDOLA-REILLY NUPTIALS

On Saturday, June 1, at 9:30 mass, the Rev. James D. Gleeson heard the exchange of nuptial vows at a double ring ceremony when Miss Mary C. Amendola became the bride of James E. Reilly at St. James church, Highland. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Amendola of 1759 Pleasant avenue, and Mr. Reilly is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Reilly of Lancaster, Wis.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin and lace gown. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap. The bouquet she carried was of gardenias and feverfew.

Miss Clara Melchiorre, the maid of honor, wore aqua organza and carried pink carnations.

Capt. Thomas Reilly Jr., brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The bride's mother chose a light blue dress complemented by a corsage of yellow carnations.

A dinner at the Deerpath inn for the immediate families followed the ceremony.

After a honeymoon, the young couple will live in Bloomington, Wis.

HOME SOON

Miss Ethyl Jean Buys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Buys of 367 Ravine drive and Miss Courtney Ann Cavenaugh of 1835 Deerfield road will arrive home soon from Stephens college in Columbia, Mo., for the summer vacation.

TO NORTH WOODS

On Monday, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. De Leuw of 259 Oakland road, will leave for their cabin at Rainbow lodge, Land O'Lakes, Wis., to be gone all summer. When they return they plan to go into their home at 1917 S. Sheridan road which is now under construction.

Mr. De Leuw, who expects to spend week-ends in the north woods with his family, will be at the University club in Chicago for the summer.

The De Leuw's son, Charles Jr., plans to attend Camp Makajawan this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Martineau of Memphis, Tenn., the new owners of the De Leuw home on Woodland, will be moving here about July 1.

BRIDAL SHOWERS

In honor of Miss Mary Casorio whose marriage to Peter Mazzetta took place on Saturday, a miscellaneous shower was given at the Stanley Mazzetta home in Glencoe the week before the wedding. Thirty-one guests were present.

Prior to her wedding another miscellaneous shower honored the bride-to-be at the home of her parents. Co-hostesses were the bride's attendants, Miss Edith Evangelista, Miss Gloria Linari, Mrs. Cecil Notari and Miss Eleanor Casorio, sister of the bride. Thirty-five guests were present.

A miscellaneous shower was given last Thursday evening at the home of Miss Clara Melchiorre of 850 Taylor avenue, in honor of Miss Mary Amendola, whose marriage to Mr. James E. Reilly took place on Saturday, June 1.

Miss Melchiorre and Mrs. L. G. Amendola, sister-in-law of the bride, were co-hostesses.

Before her wedding last Monday, Miss Lois Ann Carlson was guest of honor at a great many parties. Mrs. Rudolph Nessler of Deerfield entertained at a kitchen shower for her the Monday before her wedding, and the following day Mrs. M. Dunbar of Bannockburn was hostess at a dinner party and linen shower in her honor.

On Thursday, a luncheon and miscellaneous shower was given for her by Mrs. Fred Jensen of Kenilworth avenue, Wilmette. Her maid of honor, Miss Frances McKay, of Briarhill road, Deerfield, entertained at a miscellaneous shower for her, also last Saturday evening and she was again honored guest at a personal shower at which Mrs. C. Stromberg of Chicago was hostess the Tuesday before her marriage.

LEAVING FOR CALIFORNIA

On Sunday, Mrs. Melvin L. Straus of 2315 S. Sheridan road, and her sister, Mrs. E. E. Wyle of 2413 S. Sheridan, will leave for a two weeks' visit in Los Angeles, Calif., with their father, Charles Stonehill, who is 85 years old.

Miss Donna Jean Udell left two weeks ago for San Francisco, California, to visit with a cousin, Miss Alice Bennett, before going to Corvallis, Oregon, where she and her mother plan to make their home.

Her mother, Mrs. Letha Udell, who will join her daughter in Corvallis, is at present with a sister, Mrs. George Brown, in Ione, Wash.

Mrs. Udell's other daughter, the former Cleona Udell, and her husband, James Gathercoal, and children, Bette, 16, Dorothy, 11, and James Jr., 9, have been making their home in Corvallis for the past two years.

HEWCOMER TO HIGHLAND PARK

Residing in Highland Park temporarily while their home is being built in Deerfield are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Johnson. They are living with the T. L. Rehns of 217 Belle avenue until about August 1. They formerly resided in Kewanee Ill.

LOIS ANN CARLSON A BRIDE

The wedding of Miss Lois Ann Carlson, daughter of Mrs. Victor E. Carlson of Deerfield and the late Mr. Carlson, and Valois Robert V. Varick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Varick of Passaic, N. J., took place on Monday, June 3, at the Deerfield Presbyterian church at 4:30 p.m. The Rev. Bernard E. Vanderbeek heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, who wore a white sharkskin faille suit and a wreath of gardenias in her hair, carried a white moire prayer book.

Miss Frances Ann McKay, maid of honor, wore a chartreuse suit and a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Carrying out a tradition, Donna Jean Pedderson of Braeside, served as junior bridesmaid. She wore a white dress and carried a bouquet of spring flowers. Donna Jean's mother was Mrs. Carlson's junior bridesmaid at her wedding, and when Mrs. Pedderson was married, Lois Ann Carlson, Monday's bride, was her junior bridesmaid.

The bride's mother chose a light blue suit and she wore a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley. The bridegroom's mother's dress was of navy blue sheer and her corsage was like that of the bride's mother.

The bride attended Stephens college in Missouri after her graduation from the Highland Park high school. She served as assistant to the personnel director of the National Broadcasting company in Chicago. Her father was mayor of Deerfield at the time he passed on last year.

Mr. Varick, who has been released from the army air corps, will attend Union college in Schenectady, N. Y., in September, where he and his bride will live.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother following the ceremony. One hundred and fifty guests were present.

The young couple, now on a wedding trip at Spring Mill, Ind., will go on to Christmas Cove, Me., for the summer.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lauter of E. Cedar St., Chicago, have recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Joan Betty, to L. Thomas Straus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Straus of 2315 S. Sheridan.

A former sergeant in the army, Mr. Straus served for over four years, over a year of that time with the Rainbow division in France, Austria and Germany. His fiancee is at present attending the University of Wisconsin.

The wedding will take place in Chicago in July.

NANCY NEREIM PLANS SUMMER VACATION

Miss Nancy Nereim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Nereim, 247 Central, who was graduated on May 25 from the University of Wisconsin with a B.A. degree, is leaving Wednesday for a trip to the Grand Canyon and the west coast. She plans to be gone until September 1.

Most of the summer will be spent in southern California and Seattle, Wash., where she will visit Mrs. Stuart Hoadley, the former Shirley Wing.

Miss Nereim is a member of Pi Beta Phi sorority.

HERE FOR WEDDING

Here for the wedding today of Miss Charlotte Getz and Jacob C. Levenson, is the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. J. M. Levenson, and her daughter, Miss Dorothea, who arrived by plane on Monday from their home in Brookline, N. Y. His brother, who will be his best man today, Joseph Levenson of Boston, also arrived by plane on Monday.

An aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Morris Sharoff of Brookline, Mass., also flew here for the wedding, as did his cousin, Miss Gloria Sharoff of New York.

Do you provide large toys for small children? Remember that marbles, beans, peanuts, popcorn, safety pins, dolls' eyes, "celluloid" toys, and similar articles have caused the deaths of many small children.

ANNOUNCEMENT

KONSLER SIGN CO.

wish to announce the

Opening of Their New Office and Shop

304 N. St. Johns Ave.

- Walls
- Trucks
- Windows
- Show Cards
- Label Designing

ANY KIND • ANYTIME

PHONE H. P. 892

We Have the

Hallmark Greeting Cards

for

Father's Day

and other special occasions

"The Hallmark card will best express Your perfect taste, your thoughtfulness."

Also Father's Day Gifts

LARSON'S STATIONERY

37 SO. ST. JOHNS HIGHLAND PARK 567

For the June Graduate

A FINE SELECTION OF ELGINS AND LONGINES. SCHEAFFER'S "LIFETIME" PEN AND PENCIL SETS.

For the June Bride

COMPLETE LINE OF QUALITY DIAMONDS. WE HAVE SOME WONDERFUL GIFTS SUITABLE FOR DAD ON FATHER'S DAY.

Mordini Jewelry Store

550 Central Avenue - Tel. 3905