

Camp Ma-Ka-Wa-Jan To Open July 9th

The Boy Scouts of the North Shore Area council are looking forward with keen anticipation to the scheduled opening of Camp Ma-Ka-Wa-Jan on July 9. Indications point to a very satisfactory enrollment for the two periods that camp will operate this summer.

The first period, starting July 9, and ending July 22, can handle about 50 more scouts, while the second period, from July 23 to August 5, still has openings for about 100 additional scouts. With special permission scouts may attend both periods.

Reports coming from Camp Ma-Ka-Wa-Jan indicate that everything will be ready for a final inspection by June 25. Fifty four-boy cabins have been constructed, the main lodge and kitchen have been remodeled and equipment has been installed in the kitchen, bake-room and dishwashing rooms, the new water system is approaching completion as is the improved sanitation system. In addition to the new cabins, the village sites will have new latrines, wash-racks and drinking fountains. The entire camp is being remodeled to make it the finest camp in this part of the country.

Scouts will travel to Camp Ma-Ka-Wa-Jan on the Chicago North Western's crack "Flambeau." They will leave Highland Park at 1:26 p.m. and arrive in Antigo at 6:55 p.m. The return trip will be concluded at Highland Park at 10:55 p.m.

Camp Ma-Ka-Wa-Jan is located 23 miles northwest of Antigo, Wis., beautiful Spring lake. The camp property circles the lake and consists of 437 acres of timberland. Any registered scout or lion cub who will be 12 years of age in 1946 is eligible to attend.

SPORTS SHELLINGS STRAIGHT FROM THE CRIB

WOULD not be a bad idea for Manager Bill McKechnie of the Cincinnati Reds to hire ex-White Sox pilot Jim Dykes as a coach at Crosby field. What with "Dykes" in the Rhineland ballyard, no longer would Red fans have to worry about the Ohio River flooding their park as it has in recent years.

PROBABLY most sports fans never realized this remarkable coincidence. In 1915 the Philadelphia Phillies copped their only National League pennant—the very same year that the only filly in Kentucky-Derby racing history won our nation's top turf classic!

Walter T. Rice Succumbs To Injuries Received In Skokie Crash

The automobile crash which occurred on Skokie avenue on May 25, resulted in the death of Walter T. Rice, 144 Sunset, who succumbed to his injuries at the Evanston hospital on June 8. Rites were held in Chicago on Tuesday, June 11, with interment in Graceland cemetery.

A resident of Highland Park for 15 years, Mr. Rice had been a partner of his brothers, Daniel and Joseph, in the Daniel S. Rice brokerage firm in Chicago for 23 years. He was a member of Exmoor Country club and of the North Suburban Philatelic society.

Other survivors are his widow, Lorein a daughter, Mrs. Florence but most Americans will agree that he pulled off the best double play of the year through his recent address to Congress concerning the rail strike. The victims of his twin-killing were of course Messrs. Johnson and Whitney. That made it two down with one (Lewis) to go.

SOMEONE sitting next to me at the ball game in Wrigley field last week said there was just one place he would gladly walk miles to see John L. Lewis in action. That would be in a boxing ring facing Joe Louis!

Robert Bock Retires After 33 Years' Service

Children of Lincoln school last week presented Robert Bock, 543 Oakwood, with a wallet containing $100 in savings bonds, in behalf of present and former students of the school.

Mr. Bock retires this year after serving for 33 years as custodian of the Lincoln school.

Pioneer Teacher Retires; Writes Book

Miss Etta Grunewald, for 36 years a teacher in the Elm Place school, has written a book on the history of the school, which will be published by the 1946 graduating class, and will appear next fall on the shelves of the public library.

Miss Grunewald will retire from professional life this year and make her home in Rockford, Ill.

Firefighters Needed At Fort Sheridan

Ft. Sheridan, Ill., June 19. — Firefighters are wanted for permanent positions at Ft. Sheridan, it was announced today by the federal civil service commission.

The duties of the firefighter specify that he is to inspect buildings and grounds, fire alarm systems, sprinkler systems and other equipment. He must be competent to operate firefighting apparatus in response to fire alarms with a firefighting company.

Veterans are given special preference for this position, provided they have had experience as members of a fire department.

Applications must be filed on or before June 26, 1946, with the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at Fort Sheridan. Application forms may be obtained from the secretary of the board at Fort Sheridan, at the regional office of the U. S. Civil Service Commission, 433 W. Van Buren St., Chicago 7, Ill., or at any first or second class post office.

Sigmund Livingston Taken By Death

Sigmund Livingston, 225 Cary, retired lawyer, passed away at his home at 225 Cary, last Thursday evening, at the age of 73.

Born in Germany, Mr. Livingston came to this country at the age of nine, and made his home in Bloomington. Completing his education, he practiced law in Bloomington and Chicago for 30 years. A year ago he retired.

He was the author of the book, "Must Men Hate," the founder and chairman of the Anti-Defamation league, and a member of the B'nai B'rith lodge for 50 years. The last rites and burial were private. Survivors are his widow, Hilda and a son, Richard M.

'Lucky' Reynolds Evens Things Up

Dwight "Lucky" Reynolds likes things to be symmetrical. When still a babe he acquired a scar over one eye. Last Thursday evening he evens things up by acquiring a simjar one over the other eye.

A member of the most fun-loving class in the history of the high school (1946), he started out to help celebrate commencement with a beach party. Skimming like a bird down Ravine drive, he crashed (unlike a bird) into a curb. Result — no beach party for Lucky.

The family chariot also suffered a frontal injury.

RULE OF THREE

Three things to govern: Temper, tongue and conduct.

Three things to commend: Thrift, industry and promptness.

Three things to wish for: Health, contentment and friends.

Three things to cultivate: Courage, affection and gentleness.

Three things to despise: Cruelty, arrogance and ingratitude.

Three things to admire: Dignity, intellectual power and gracefulness.

Three things to give: Alms to the needy, comfort to the sad and appreciation to the worthy.

A word of appreciation to the worthy... Have you ever considered the importance of a meter reader's job? Not only is he expected to read meters accurately, but he must be courteous, honest, and well informed about the Gas business. It is an important job, this meter reading.
