

Socials

By ALICE ZABEL

Telephone Highland Park 2064

ANNETTE JONES A BRIDE

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Jones of 272 Vine avenue announce the marriage of their daughter, Annette Roberts Jones, to Weldon O. Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Reynolds of Evanston, which took place at 3 in the afternoon at the Friends' meeting house in Evanston.

Following the ceremony, a small reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families only.

Miss Elizabeth Orton Jones attended her sister as maid of honor.

PICNIC SUPPER

A picnic supper was held on Friday evening at the C. Eugene Pfister home in Barrington for the Highland Park Infant Welfare Wing group.

BEDE-JARCHOW NUPTIALS

The Wilmette Methodist church will be the scene of the wedding of Miss Barbara Bede and Robert Bertram Jarchow on Saturday, June 29, at 8:30 in the evening. Miss Bede is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bede of 1813 Rice street, and Mr. Jarchow is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Jarchow of Evanston.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, will wear a gown of ivory slipper satin with a long train and rose point veil. The bouquet she will carry will be of gardenias and stephanotis.

The maid of honor will be the bridegroom's sister, Miss Marjorie Jarchow, and the Misses Mita Adams of Shreveport, La., Suzanne Heath of Highland Park, Jaynell Masters of Evanston and Patricia Menough of Cleveland, O., all Principia classmates, will attend as bridesmaids. They will wear pale blue brocaded taffeta dresses and carry colonial bouquets of yellow carnations and corn flowers. The dress of the maid of honor which will be made like the bridesmaids, will be of a deeper shade of blue. Her bouquet will be the same as the other attendants.

The bridegroom's father will serve as best man, and the ushers will be Alan Bede, brother of the bride, Robert H. Wellington, Reid Wetterson, Philip Ward, and William Wheeler of Evanston, and Vern Reed of Hudson, O.

The bride's mother has chosen an aqua dress and her corsage will be of white gladioli. The bridegroom's mother will wear pale green, complemented by a corsage of talisman roses.

Miss Bede, who attended Highland Park high school for two years, graduated from the Principia high school. She also attended the Principia for two years of college, graduating from Northwestern university. Mr. Jarchow, whose studies at Amherst were interrupted by the war, served for over three years in the navy with two years of that time overseas duty. A former ensign, he plans to return to Amherst to work for his degree.

A reception at the Woman's club of Evanston will follow the ceremony, after which the young couple will leave for Nova Scotia. Upon their return, they will be in Wisconsin for the remainder of the summer.

DARTMOUTH
John K. Snobble, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Snobble of 139 Hazel avenue, has been chosen to deliver the welcome address during the class day exercises at Dartmouth college's commencement on June 28 and 29.

Mr. Snobble has also been chosen to head the student commencement committee in charge of arrangements for the week-end. A graduate of the Fountain Valley school, Colorado Springs, Colo., he will return there in the fall as a professor of history and geography, as well as coach for skiing. He joined the army air force in 1942 and served as a first lieutenant and pilot on a B-17 in Europe. He was awarded the European theater ribbon with three stars and the Air medal with four clusters.

After returning to college last fall to complete his education, interrupted by the war, he captained the varsity ski squad. He was a member of Green Key, honorary junior society, the Sphinx, senior honor society, Palaeopitus, senior governing body, the Ledyard Canoe club, the Cabin and Trail council of the Dartmouth Outing club, and Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. Snobble left on Wednesday to attend the graduation. They will return on Monday.

COURTNEY BARR WEDS

Before an altar of ferns and peonies, Miss Courtney "Coco" Barr became the bride of Harry Beach Clow III, at the Winnetka Congregational church at 4:30 on Saturday, June 22, the Rev. Harkness, reading the service. Miss Barr is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Barr of 1215 Wade street, and Mr. Clow is the son of Harry B. Clow Jr. of Lake Forest, and Mrs. John Rodman Hooker of Burlingame, Calif. He is the grandson of the senior Mrs. Clow of Lake Forest and of Robert J. Dunham of Chicago.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full skirted organdy gown with long sleeves and panels of embroidered organdy. A fingertip veil fell from a coronet of stephanotis. The bouquet she carried was of stephanotis and small lilies.

The bride's sister, Jane, maid of honor, and another sister, Meredith, and the bridegroom's sister, Adrienne, who attended as bridesmaids, wore dresses of green and white striped chintz, made with full skirts and cap sleeves. The flowers in their hair and the black streamered bouquets they carried were of white daisies.

Albert Niblack of Lake Forest served the bridegroom as best man and David Aubrey and Robert Redfearn of Highland Park, Patrick Isom, Russell P. Kelley Jr., and Lawrence Smith of Lake Forest, and Totten Warfield of Riverside, ushered.

The bride's mother wore a soft beige crepe dress, complemented by a corsage of pink roses.

The immediate families and close friends of the bride and bridegroom attended the small reception at the home of the bride's parents, which followed the ceremony.

Mr. Clow and his bride, who are now on a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, Nevada, will reside in Lake Bluff when they return.

JUDITH MARY McHUGH CHRISTENED

At 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the infant daughter of the John P. McHugh of 1356 Broadview was christened Judith Mary, at the Immaculate Conception church, Father Skoner performing the ceremony. Sponsors for the baby were Mrs. M. J. Anthony of Indianapolis, Ind., sister of Mrs. McHugh, and Patrick Moran of Highland Park, cousin of Mr. McHugh. Open house followed at the home of the parents.

HIGHLAND PARKERS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. Robert Wolff of Commonwealth avenue, Chicago (Emily Harmon) formerly of Highland Park, entertained Highland Park friends of her aunt, Miss Marjorie Boulton, also a former Highland Park, now of Beaumont, Calif., at her home on Monday afternoon.

IN EAGLE RIVER FO RSUMMER

In Eagle River, Wis., for the summer are Mrs. G. Q. Grady, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Grady and Miss Elizabeth Grady of 529 Forest avenue.

ANN TAMARRI A BRIDE

On Saturday, June 22, Miss Ann Tamarrì became the bride of Guy F. Bernabei at 10:30 a.m. in St. James church, Highwood. Miss Tamarrì is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tamarrì of 246 High street, Highwood, and Mr. Bernabei is the son of Mrs. Domenica Benvenuti of Italy. The Rev. James Gleeson heard the exchange of nuptial vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white dress with a satin bodice, sweetheart neckline, and long pointed sleeves. The net skirt with a short train, had a fold of satin which formed a semi-circle and large bustle bow in back. Her illusion fingertip veil was held in place with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gladioli, fringed with carnations on a circle of tulle.

Miss Inez Tamarrì, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a nylon dress and carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and sweetwilliams.

The best man was Peter M. Olen-di.

A Coe college classmate of the bride's, Mrs. Armido Benassi, sang "The Ave Maria" and "Panus Angelicus."

The bride's mother chose a wine and white print dress with an aqua background, complemented by a corsage of deep red roses from the Tamarrìs' own garden.

Mr. Bernabei, a former sergeant in the medical corps, was released a year ago from the army. One of the first to leave Highwood in the draft, he was sent to the Pacific one month after induction. Forty-two months of his 44 months' service were spent in the Pacific theater.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

After a two weeks honeymoon in the north and south, Mr. Bernabei and his bride will be at home at 235 North avenue.

IRVING RANDALL, SR. AND JR., VISIT HERE

En route by plane from their home in California, to the Yale university reunion, Irving Randall, Sr., and his son, Irving Randall, Jr., former Highland Parkers, spent a few days as the house guests of the George W. Childs of 850 N. Sheridan.

Mrs. Roger Vail of 428 N. Sheridan entertained for them, as did Mrs. Robert Gosling (Ann Mills) of Barrington, and on Thursday evening Mrs. Childs was hostess at a party in honor of the younger Mr. Randall, at her home.

This is the senior Mr. Randall's fortieth Yale reunion, and the younger Mr. Randall's tenth.

HOLMES-MONROE WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Holmes of Lake Shore drive, Chicago, formerly of Highland Park, announce the marriage of their daughter, Alice, to Harry L. Monroe, also a former Highland Park, on Friday afternoon at the chapel of St. Chrysostom's church, Chicago, the Rev. Dudley Scott Stark reading the nuptial vows.

Mrs. Alexander Minty Waldron (Jane Holmes) of Ann Arbor, Mich., was matron of honor for her sister.

Best man was Fred Lohbrandt of Philadelphia, Pa., and the bride's brothers, Samuel Jr. and Kenneth, ushered.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents.

The young couple left by plane for Montana. On their return, they will reside in Chicago.

ARTHUR SWANSON MUCH IMPROVED

Arthur Swanson, a patient at the Highland Park hospital, has been reported as very much improved. Mr. Swanson, commissioner of streets, resides at 375 Orchard lane.

ALYCE McOMBER MARRIED

The Immaculate Conception church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Alyce Irene McOmber and Corwin Arnold Hellmer on Saturday, June 22, at 10:30. The Rev. Edmund Skoner officiated. The altar was decorated with small white flowers, peach gladioli and ivy.

The bride, whose father gave her in marriage, wore a white eyelet gown with a short train, and fingertip veil. She carried white carnations.

Miss Shirley McOmber attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a dress of yellow eyelet, and carried a bouquet of white daisies with a matching daisy halo on her head. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Donald Crow, of Platteville, Wis., sister of the bridegroom, one of the bridesmaids, wore peach eyelet, and Miss Frances Berube of Highwood, the other bridesmaid, wore a blue eyelet dress. Both girls carried yellow daisies with a halo of the same flowers in their hair.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress and white hat. Her corsage was of pink roses and white carnations. The bridegroom's mother's dress and hat were of navy blue and her corsage was like that of the bride's mother.

Bernel Senhitaker of Platteville, cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man, and the ushers were Donald Crow, the bridegroom's brother - in - law, and Huey Deery of Platteville, George Bergdahl of Highwood and Bert Gillenberg of Lake Forest.

A breakfast at the Charm House followed the ceremony for the bridal party, and a reception was held from 2 to 5 in the afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. McOmber Jr. of 532 Glencoe avenue.

Miss McOmber is a graduate of the Highland Park high school, and has been employed at Abbott Laboratories. Mr. Hellmer, son of Mrs. Wanda Hellmer of Platteville, graduated from Platteville high school and attended Platteville State Teachers college. He enlisted in the navy air program two years ago, and has been instructing in recruit training command, N. T. C., Great Lakes, for the past year. He was separated from the service the first of June and plans to attend school at Tulsa, Okla., this fall.

Mr. Hillmer and his bride spent a few days honeymoon in Chicago, and are now in Platteville for the summer.

WEEK-END GUEST

A week-end guest of the E. L. Dorroughs of 1317 Wade street was Mrs. George Searle of Portland, Washington. She was en route to Minneapolis for the summer. Mrs. Searle is Mrs. Dorrough's cousin.

SCARBROUGH-PETERSON WEDDING

The Rev. Sprenger of the Normal Park Methodist church heard the exchange of nuptial vows of Miss Jane Scarbrough and John E. Peterson at a candlelight ceremony on Saturday afternoon, June 22, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Scarbrough of 2239 Lincolnwood road, before an altar of greenery and white peonies. The tapers were lighted by Mrs. Cornelius L. White of Atlanta, Ga., aunt of the bride, and Miss Selma Purchase, a sorority sister of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a champagne beige suit and carried white roses and stephanotis. Her headress was also of white roses.

The maid of honor, Miss Dulcie Ann Witt, of Kansas City, wore a coral colored dress and carried a garden bouquet.

Donald Wycoff of Chicago served the bridegroom as best man.

The young couple will return on Saturday for the Dorick-Doyle wedding, from a week's honeymoon at Pokagon State park in Angola, Ind. On Sunday they will go to Milwaukee to be honored guests at a dinner party at the home of the bride's uncle, Dr. W. M. White. They will spend a second week's honeymoon at Dr. White's summer cottage on Lake Michigan in Wisconsin, before returning home.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Dr. White and James Holt of Milwaukee, and two aunts of the bride, Mrs. G. B. Sisson and Mrs. Cornelius L. White of Atlanta, Ga.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Peterson of 7616 Stewart avenue, Chicago.

After their return from Wisconsin, Mr. Peterson and his bride will reside at 505 Eastwood avenue.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Colored paper streamers decorated the room for the birthday party which Jack McHugh of 1356 Broadview gave for the neighborhood children on Saturday, June 15, in honor of the fifth birthday of his daughter, Patty.

Mrs. McHugh and their ten-day old baby, Judith Mary, returned from the Highland Park hospital the following day. Kathie, 2½, is the McHugh's other daughter.

BRIDAL SHOWERS

A great many parties have been given in honor of Miss Barbara Bede, whose marriage to Robert Bertram Jarchow will be an event of Saturday, June 29. Among them was a luncheon and miscellaneous shower which Mrs. Harry Jaeger of Kenilworth gave for her recently.

On Monday, June 10, Miss Jaynell Masters of Evanston, feted Miss Bede at a kitchen shower at her home and on Friday afternoon, June 14, she was again given a kitchen shower by Mrs. Paul Truesdell of Evanston.

Miss Suzanne Heath was hostess at a luncheon-bridge and bathroom shower at the Exmoor Country club on Saturday, June 15, and Mrs. C. E. Jarchow of Wilmette, an aunt of the bridegroom, honored Miss Bede at a lingerie shower at her home on Friday, June 21. Another aunt of the bridegroom's, Mrs. Elmer Zitvitz, gave a miscellaneous shower for the bride-to-be at her farm near Lake Zurich.

Mrs. Grace Pickett Howes entertained at a handkerchief shower for Miss Bede on Saturday, June 22, at her home at 303 Ravine drive.

Prior to her wedding to David W. Culver of Tecumseh, Mich., which will take place on Saturday, June 29, Miss Nancy Henning has been entertained at a great many parties.

A few days before she came home from the University of Illinois, where she has been a student, several classmates feted her at a dinner and a miscellaneous shower at the Urbana Lincoln hotel.

Co-hostesses at a personal shower for her last Friday night were Miss Shirley Pressler and Miss Carol Quandt of Forest Park. On Sunday, Mrs. D. C. Hoffman of 440 Oakwood avenue, a cousin of the bride, was hostess at a family dinner in her honor, and on Tuesday, a luncheon - shower was arranged by Mrs. Richard Crook (Billie Salystids) and Miss Catherine Moran at the Highland House in her honor.

Miss Rosemary Berube and Miss Yolanda Crimo were co-hostesses at a personal shower in honor of Miss Mary Fink, last Wednesday at Miss Berube's home at 98 Sunset road. Miss Fink will be married on Sunday, June 30, to Morris Hagerman.

A cocktail party at which William Kellner was host, was given recently in honor of Miss Virginia McCaffrey and her fiance, Thomas Johnson, whose wedding will take place next month.

Office co-workers at Abbott Laboratories, where she was employed, honored Miss Alyce McOmber at a dinner and miscellaneous shower, recently.

MOVED TO MILWAUKEE

The A. W. Lawrence family of 1237 Burton avenue, moved recently to Milwaukee, Wis., after several years' residence here. Their daughter, Sue, graduated this month from Ravinia grammar school. Their son, Bob, a member of the United States navy, is at present in the Pacific. Bob graduated from the Highland Park high school in '45.

FRANK-WITHERBY NUPTIALS

Miss Juleona Maria Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Frank of 623 Deerfield road, became the bride of Clifford Wetherby of Fort Mitchell, Ky., on Sunday, June 16, at St. Paul's church in Deerfield, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

A dinner at the home of the bride's parents was followed by a reception in Chicago.

After a honeymoon in Colorado Springs, Colo., Mr. Witherby and his bride will reside in Deerfield.

STATIONED AT GREAT LAKES

Lt. (jg) Lewis Hutchison, son of Mrs. Gretchen Hutchison of Judson avenue, who is stationed at Great Lakes, expects to be here until his release from service in the fall. He plans to return to DePauw university to continue his studies which were interrupted by the war.

Lt. Hutchison served for four years in the navy, 15 months of that time in Okinawa, Leyte and China.

His brother, Bob, who recently terminated his navy service, is at present helping to organize a naval reserve unit in Chicago. Bill, his other brother, is a seaman 1/c, stationed at Washington, D. C.

They are nephews of Dr. and Mrs. G. Q. Grady of 529 Forest avenue.

Quality Cleaners

Phone H. P. 176

RELIABLE LAUNDRY AND DRY CLEANING CO.

NEWCOMERS TO HIGHLAND PARK

The James E. Meehan family, recently of McHenry, Ill., are newcomers to Highland Park. They are residing at 1224 Sunnyside lane. There are two children, Carol, 7, and Kathleen, 2.

After six years away from Highland Park, the Conrad Dreiskes (Isabel Fosbender) will return here about July 1. They are now living in Norwood Park, and will move to 14 S. Green Bay road. The Dreiskes have two children, Donald, 8, and Jean, 3.

Former Highland Parkers, also returning after a year's absence, are the H. D. Coultons and their year-old daughter, Judith. The Coultons will live at 1826 Burton avenue. A former lieutenant commander in the navy, Mrs. Coultton remained with him in California (Continued on page 5)

BE COOL

with a three-inch

FEATHER CUT

for the Summer

TERRY'S

BEAUTY SALON

365 Central Ave.

Alcyon Theatre Bldg.

Tel. H. P. 415

MAKE RESERVATIONS NOW

MOLTHROP'S Personally Escorted

Milwaukee Road

Yellowstone - Teton

TOURS TWO ALL-EXPRESS

MEALS, FULLMAN, RAIL, HOTELS, PARK, BUS, FED. TAX.

Departures

JULY 13 WED. DAYS

AUG. 5 THUR. DAYS

$189 $208

H. and R. Anspach TRAVEL BUREAU

379 1/2 Central Ave. Tel. 1211

Angelo Nizzi Rema Bernardi Bob Turelli

Present for Your Enjoyment

THE CLUB LORRAINE

346 Waukegan Avenue

Highwood, Ill.

COCKTAIL LOUNGE AND

The Finest Food in Town

SERVED BY GINO BELLEI

CHICKEN AND STEAK DINNERS

Italian Spaghetti

Bar-B-Cue Ribs Our Specialty

Draft Beer at All Times

Fish Fry Every Friday Night

DINNER RESERVATIONS TAKEN

TEL. H. P. 5454

"MAKE IT A MILLION!"

EARN WHILE YOU LEARN

A SKILL OR TRADE

Splendid education and training in more than 200 skills and trades are offered by the new Regular Army. Good pay and opportunities for advancement. Over three-quarters of a million have enlisted already. MAKE IT A MILLION! Get all the facts at your nearest U. S. Army Camp or Post, or U. S. Army Recruiting Station.