MARY VIRGINIA McCAFFREY WEDS

St. Patrick's church in West Lake Forest was the scene of the wedding of Miss Virginia McCaffrey and Thomas R. Johnson on Saturday afternoon, July 20. Father Daley heard the exchange of nuptial vows in the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli. Miss McCaffrey is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie B. McCaffrey of 669 Central avenue, and Mr. Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. Johnson of Kenilworth.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white marquisette gown with a court train and fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli and baby breath.

Miss Ann McCaffrey, sister of the bride, attended as maid of honor. She wore a pale blue net dress and carried pink carnations and pink larkspur.

The bridesmaids wore dresses exactly like that of the maid of honor. They were the Misses June Dean and Evelyn Fay, and Mrs. Wylie Morrison (Margery Benson). They carried bouquets of pink carnations and blue delphinium.

Carol McCaffrey, sister of the bride, acted as flower girl. She was dressed in blue net. The old fashioned bouquet she carried was of pink carnations and blue delphinium.

Best man was Thomas Parrish of Winnetka and the ushers were Richard Johnson, brother of the bridegroom, George Bacharas of Chicago, and William Kellner of Highland Park.

The bride's mother wore a moss green dress, complemented by accessories of chocolate brown and a corsage of tiger orchids. The bridegroom's mother was in pink crepe with pale blue accessories and an orchid corsage.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

If you are a stay-at-home this summer, find a cool spot and settle down with the library's new Southern California County, by Carey McWilliams, or The Gulf Coast of Mississippi by Nola Nancy Oliver—a veritable work of art. The Borzoi Book of Ballets by Grace Roberts is expected to attract much interest, and provides light summer reading.

Radar by Orrin E. Dunlap Jr., and The ABC of Boat Sailing by Herbert L. Stone are also new on the library shelves.

For those who prefer more serious subjects, the library offers Peace of Mind by Joshua Loth Liebman, which reveals the author's profundity of thought that is well worth reading; and A Negro's Faith in America by Spencer Logan which is a challenge to the thinking reader. A book of much interest at this particular time is The Roots of American Loyalty by Merle Curti which is an analytical study of the elements of American patriotism.

Many readers will welcome Jan Struther's A Pocketful of Pebbles containing essays, poems and speeches by the author. Those who like biographies will want to read Alexander of Macedon by Harold Lamb and Old Rough and Ready: Zachary Taylor by Silas B. McKinley and Silas Bent.

BAPTISM

William George, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Bock, 588 Onwentsia avenue, was baptized at the home of the Rev. Alvin C. Kniker on Wednesday, July 17. The sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. George Rudolph.

A small headstone, placed at the foot of a tree at Orphans-of-the-Storm, Deerfield, haven for unclaimed pets, now marks the resting place of Bum, aged 12, who since puppyhood had been the pet of Ray Pearl, orchestra leader.

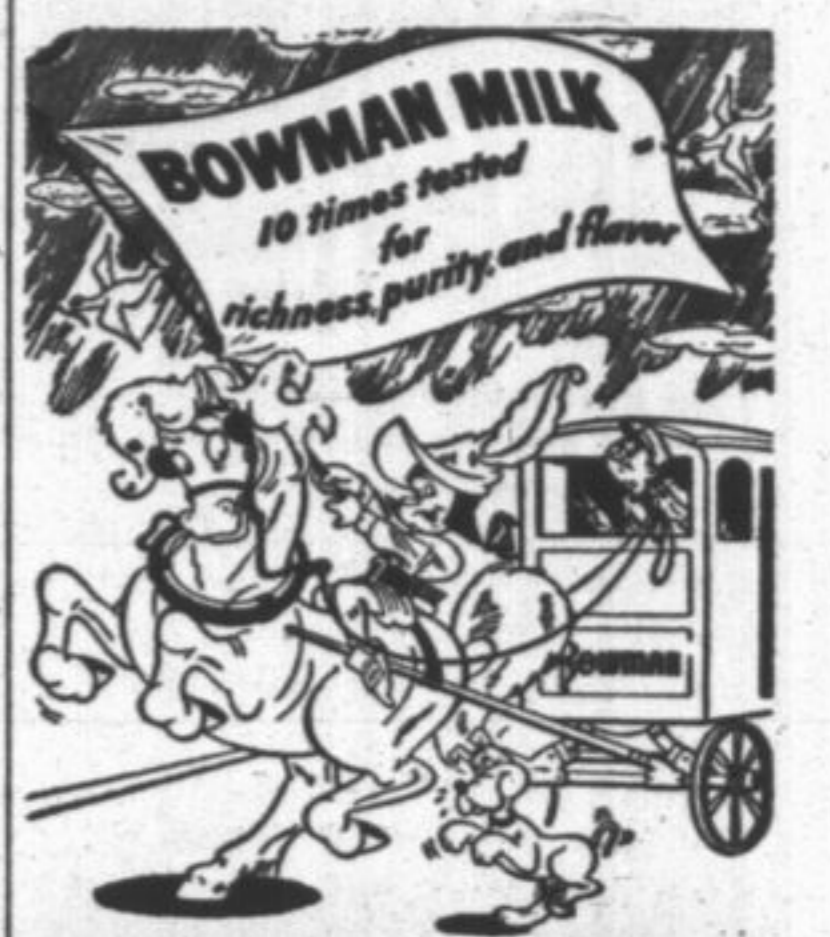

Bum breathed his last, recently, at Lincoln, Nebr., and his tiny casket, covered with flowers, arrived by express at the Union station, Chicago, last week. Mrs. Irene Castle McLaughlin, founder and director of Orphans-of-the-Storm, arranged for the burial.
