NEWCOMES TO HIGHLAND PARK

Mr. and Mrs. Sol Sackheim, former Chicagoans, are new residents at 2265 Lincolnwood road. There are two sons, Judd, 15, who will be a sophomore at Highland Park high school, and Michael, 11, who will enter the Braeside school.

GEORGE ROSE JR. TAKES A BRIDE

Before a very beautiful altar of palms, ferns and white gladioli, Miss Jean Druliner, daughter of the Morris R. Druliners of Evanston became the bride of George A. Rose Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Rose of 75 Elmwood drive, on Saturday, Aug. 31, at 8 p.m. in the Baptist church in Wilmette.

Lace, which has been used for weddings for over one hundred years in the bridegroom's family was part of the bride's wedding ensemble, used on her fingertip veil.

Miss Jane Hopkins of St. Paul, Minn., who attended Miss Druliner as maid of honor, wore a blue dress and carried a heart shaped sheaf of pink gladioli, bordered with blue glads.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Bruce Druliner of Montello, Wis., sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Lucille Bishop of Davenport, Ia., Miss Ruth Riseman of Chicago, and Miss Betty Zillman of Milwaukee, were in dusty rose, and the sheafs of flowers they carried were of blue gladioli with pink flowers.

The bride's mother was in dusty pink and her corsage was of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother chose a white beaded blue dress, complemented by a tiara of white flowers in her hair.

The bridegroom's brother, John Janson Rose, served as best man, and another brother, Jim, Bruce Druliner, brother of the bride, of Montello, Terry Elmore of Ann Arbor, Mich., and Frank Smith of Evanston ushered.

A former second lieutenant, Mr. Rose served as bombardier-navigator for three years with the army air corps. He and his bride both attended Lake Forest college.

RETURNED HOME

After a several weeks' visit with relatives in Highland Park and Lake Forest, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fiddler and son, Walter Jr., and daughter, Carolou of Pittsburgh, Pa., returned to their home Sunday.

ENTERTAINED LUNCHEON

Several Highland Park friends of Mrs. Lucille Gamlin of Chicago were entertained on Tuesday at luncheon at her home. Mrs. Gamlin is a former Highland Park.

CLUB MEETING

After a summer vacation, the "500" club will have its first fall meeting on Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tucker of 515 Oakwood avenue.

APPEARED IN "LIFE"

Pictures of a former Highland Park, Weston Jayne, along with other members of Florida's School for Poster Girls, appeared recently in "Life" magazine. Weston, who attended Ravinia grammar school for several years, resided with her family at 1631 S. Green Bay road, before they moved to Florida.

LOOK WHO'S HERE!
