WEEK-END TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. Edmund L. Koebelin of 725 Sunnyside, and his parents, the William Koebelins of Skokie, spent the week-end on a trip to the Ozarks.

We have a few jobs for men who are not afraid of work (and coal dust). Perhaps some of these jobs will appeal to a pair of young veterans who wish to make good money for about six months before returning to school. One of the pair should have a car.

SPEAKING OF WORK...

Chicago Sales and Executives Club polled presidents of 250 companies and asked what work led up to their present positions. Here is how they got their starts...
