APPROACHING MARRIAGE

October 12 has been chosen as the date of the wedding of Miss Terry De Santo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Domenic De Santo of Chicago, formerly of Highland Park, and Raymond Grossmann, son of the Henry Grossmanns of 1325 West avenue.

The wedding will take place at 2 o'clock in the afternoon in the rectory of the Immaculate Conception church.

ELDA CASAGRANDE WEDS

At a double ring ceremony on Saturday, Sept. 14, at high mass at 9 a.m., Miss Elda Rose Casagrande became the bride of Albert B. Gesualdo at the Immaculate Conception church. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Casagrande of 620 Laurel avenue, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Gesualdo of Centerville, Iowa.

The bride wore a long trained brocaded satin gown. Her fingertip veil hung from a crown of seed pearls. She carried white roses. Her father gave her in marriage. Wearing white net and carrying American Beauty roses, Miss Louise Santi attended as maid of honor. The bridesmaids, the Misses Rita Boilini and Ada Grotti, were dressed exactly as the maid of honor, and carried the same kind of flowers.

Valentino Lazaretto was best man and ushers were K. Bertagni and Domenic Volpendesta.

Little Dolores Ann Casorio, dressed in white lace and carrying a basket of small flowers, acted as flower girl.

The bride's mother chose a gray wool suit with black accessories, complemented by a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother was in navy blue, and her corsage was like that of the bride's mother.

A former corporal, Mr. Gesualdo served in the marine corps for almost three years, one and a half years of that time in the Pacific.

A breakfast was held at the bride's home following the ceremony and a reception was held at the Labor temple in the evening. About 500 guests attended.

After a two weeks' honeymoon in Iowa and Wisconsin, the young couple will reside with the bride's parents.
