 nition to 308 members of the Order in this state who have been members for 50 years or more.
 Three hundred worthy matrons of subordinate chapters will participate in the obituary service at 7:30 Tuesday evening, under the direction of Mrs. Agnes Osborne of Chicago.

Mrs. Thompson reports a very successful year, with an increase of 5000 members, making a total of 144,000 in Illinois. A report on the sale of charity seals, the proceeds of which go to support homes for the aged and infirm at Rockford and Macon, will be made by Mrs. Marjorie MacIlrath, chairman of the eleemosynary committee.

Delegates from Highland Park to the convention will include Mesdames Helen Abercromby, Ellen Bleimehl, Elsie Collins, Marie Schneider, Marjory Turner, Dorothy Thomson, Irene Watt, Nema Whitehouse and Messrs. James Whitehouse and James Thompson. 1200 reservations have been made for the dinner and dance to celebrate the opening of the grand chapter session in the Palmer House Grand ballroom, Monday, Sept. 30, at 6:30 p.m.

Green Bay School PTA Holds Meeting

Thursday evening, Sept. 19, was Open House at Green Bay school. There was a fine representation of parents, who visited the classrooms and then gathered in the assembly hall for a general meeting.

Mr. Walter Kurz, of the school board, gave a brief address, then presented Dr. Casper O. Dahle, superintendent of district seven. He gave a very enjoyable presentation in colored slides of nomenclature himself while on pulpits Sunday, media during the minute-speakers fore luncheon was followed by recitations, business.

Noted Speakers

Among the speakers at the convention was Dr. Kallenbach, of Llanerch, Pa., who rates 42 lines of recognition in "Who's Who in America," and is one of the few Americans to break into "Who's Who in the World." A popular speaker, he is booked for appearances two years ahead.

Blinded at the age of 20 in a hunting accident, he is a flower enthusiast, maintaining his own garden in a Philadelphia suburb. He finished a 4-year course in college in 2 1/2 years, winning Phi Beta Kappa honors. He swims, dives, golfs, bowls, and has published eight books, two of them best sellers, besides writing numerous pamphlets and magazine articles. He can detect the color of a flower by its perfume. His topic was "How Tall Does Your Corn Grow?"

F. F. Rockwell, editor of Home Garden magazine, and owner of "Gray Rock," a 5-acre estate at West Nyack, N.Y., where he grows experimental varieties of flowers and vegetables for David Burpee, talked on "The Development of Gray Rock."

Quote from "Asheville Citizen"

Following is a paragraph from the Asheville Citizen:

One delegate to the convention of the Men's Garden clubs spent most of the first afternoon in a fog. Starting from his home in the Middle West peacefully enough in his plane, he ran into a fog and low ceiling in the Smokies.

"I circled for four hours, and finally flew over a little town at an altitude of 50 feet, trying to read a name on a store or something." He finally reached Asheville in time for supper.

At first we thought... but, no! That section of the country designated as "The Middle West" is a vast expanse, and no doubt several delegates therefrom attended in their private planes.

The next annual convention of the Men's Garden Clubs of America will be held at Portland.

Miss Orpha White To Address Lincoln PTA Wednesday, Oct. 2

Mrs. Charles A. Sampler, president of the P.T.A. of Lincoln school has announced that Miss Orpha White, executive secretary of the Lake County Tuberculosis association, and Dr. Douglas Boyd, president of the Highland Park Board of Health, will address the first meeting of the PTA Wednesday evening, Oct. 2, at 8:00, in the school auditorium. The theme of the meeting will be "Keeping Our Children Well." The public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss White is widely known throughout the county for her work in the detection and control of tuberculosis. As executive secretary of the county's tuberculosis association, she supervises the field forces who give Mantoux tests to school children, and she directs the operations of the association's new mobile x-ray unit. Miss White will explain how tuberculosis develops, and will discuss its diagnosis and treatment. To illustrate part of her lecture she will use a visual education film entitled "They Do Come Back."

Dr. Douglas Boyd will present the over-all health program of Highland Park, the work done by the Board of Health, and discuss policies of the department and the proposals to increase the scope of its work in the future.

Both of these speakers will stress the necessity of mass education on all matters relating to tuberculosis and will emphasize the desirability of the regular periodic testing of school children.

An example of one of the activities of the Board of Health is the reassuring special note that was sent to all parents by Dr. Boyd during the first week of school. The note read:

"Your Health Department believes there is no peril from poliomyelitis in Highland Park at this time. No cases have developed here.

"The schools should carry on as usual."

Following the lectures, Mrs. Carol Sumner, a member of the safety committee, will give a report of the findings and proposals of the survey which was presented to the safety council last fall.

Before the lectures, during the period from 7:30 to 8:00, the classrooms will be open and the parents will have an opportunity to visit with the teachers.

At the end of the meeting, there will be a social hour with refreshments served by Mrs. Bryan K. Ferrault and her committee composed of Mrs. Edward A. Murray and Mrs. R. H. Brownlee.

Infant Welfare Group Plans "Tea for Toys"

Tentative plans for Infant Welfare's annual "tea for toys" were announced Monday at the luncheon meeting of the junior group of Welfare center, at the home of Mrs. Gordon Buchanan Jr. on Moraine road.

The "tea for toys," given for the purpose of collecting toys and games for pre-Christmas sale at the Thrift shop, is the only large guest day planned by Infant Welfare groups annually. All three organizations in the Highland Park-Ravinia center — the junior and senior groups and the Wing — join forces on this particular occasion.

This year's hostess will be Mrs. E. N. Johnson, 2229 Lakeside Pl. Committees and detailed plans will be announced later, according to

Highland Park Girl Scouts Train for Leadership

A leadership training course will be given at the Community center on Oct. 1, 2, 3 and 4. The courses will start at one o'clock.

Oct. 1 and 2 — beginners. This course will include fundamentals of scouting, plans for setting up a troop, songs and games to be used.

Oct. 3-4—Intermediate. Organization and the ten fields of scouting for second class rank will be interpreted.

All new leaders are especially urged to attend and leaders with past experience will find this a helpful refresher course. However, anyone interested in scouting is invited to attend.

A practical workshop for Brownie leaders will be held during their monthly meetings. Fundamentals of scouting, an exchange of ideas and planning actual programs for Brownie meetings will be included.

In the near future, following the above courses, an intermediate course will be given for those who have taken the beginners course and an advanced course for study of proficiency badges will be held.

Mesdames E. E. Alt, R. J. Ryan and L. Davidow are to conduct the training course.

On Sept. 26 at 5:30 p.m., Mrs. R. C. Ferguson is entertaining the mothers in troop 23 of Braeside school.

The mothers will be given a resume of the plans for the coming year and thus become better acquainted with the work the girls do. This troop is led by Mrs. R. H. Olson.

Fun is like insurance; the older you are the more it costs.

Those who HAVE help those who NEED!

This year marks the first post-war appeal of the Highland Park Community Fund and the last appeal for the USO which is finishing up its wartime job of providing relaxation for the boys in service at home and abroad. Except for the USO, the money to be collected is for the benefit of the health and welfare agencies which serve our community and in which most Highland Parkers are interested.

We must raise $54,325 — a larger sum than that allotted last year to our own local needs, due to mounting wages and prices that affect the operating costs of the welfare agencies... and due to the increased post-war problems that must be solved. And ALL of the needed money must be raised RIGHT HERE, because we can no longer get credit for contributions made in Chicago by our residents.

Highland Park must make its quota! The work which your contributions support cannot stop! Give as generously as your circumstances permit! — and give it right here in Highland Park.

Have your pledge card ready when your neighbor calls on you next week!

Give Now... Give Generously... to the HIGHLAND PARK COMMUNITY FUND

Remember—Contributions are deductible from Income Tax

ONE-TWO-THREE-FOUR-FIVE-SUGGESTIONS

...to help you make better use of your NEW Telephone Directory

- 1 Be sure to discard your OLD telephone directory if it was not collected when the new one was delivered. (Don't destroy it — turn it in for waste paper.)
- 2 If you have a memo list of numbers called frequently, verify these numbers now by looking in your NEW directory.
- 3 Always consult the directory when you aren't sure of a number. Calling from memory is a common cause of wrong numbers.
- 4 Look in your directory first instead of asking "information" for numbers listed there. This avoids making two calls instead of one.
- 5 Use the "Classified" section (yellow pages in most directories) to locate wanted products, services or professional help.
