A BETTER WORLD . . . THE STARTING POINT

The U. S. A. scene is significant. If we can solve our problem, we will have demonstrated the solution of the world problem.

Here is being attempted what must be achieved on global scale, the orchestration of differences, not into unity or uniformity, but, into a free fellowship where each finds fulfillment in the enrichment of all.

Note the constituency of our citizenship. The ancestors of 10,000,000 of us came from Ireland
 15,000,000 of us came from Germany
 60,000,000 of us came from Great Britain
 18,000,000 of us came from Africa
 9,000,000 of us came from Slavic lands
 5,000,000 of us came from Italy
 4,000,000 of us came from Scandinavia
 4,000,000 of us came from France
 3,500,000 of us came from Mexico
 1,000,000 of us came from Greece
 1,000,000 of us came from Lithuania
 360,000 of us came from the American Indian
 127,000 of us came from Japan
 97,000 of us came from China
 45,000 of us came from Philippine Islands

Aside from 360,000 American Indians, we are all immigrants or descendants of immigrants. We are a mixed blooded and polyglot people. As late as 1937 we had 1,076 foreign language publications in 38 languages. More journals were published and read here in more languages per capita of population than in all Europe.

Here the major world problem of race culture and nationality is set down in a professedly Christian democratic scene. To fail here is to foredoom world hope.—A. D. Stauffacher. From Missionary Herald.

Back from a honeymoon in the north woods of Wisconsin are Mr. and Mrs. Hobart Evans Early (Patricia Pulfer). They were married in Evanston Sept. 7. Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Early of S. Green Bay road, his parents, entertained for them at a dinner party Sunday evening.
